ADAMS OF WISCONSIN SAYS INCOME TAX IS FAILURE. Princeton, N. J., Dec. 30.-The federal income tax, for which only 357,598 returns were received last year, is reaching directly less than one-half of one per cent of the population.

Princeton, N. J., Dec. 30.-The federal income tax, for which only 357,598 returns were received last year, is reaching directly less than one-half of one per cent of the population, promotes class conflict and public extravagance, and is a feeble instrument with which to reduce swollen fortunes.

The present federal income tax is a class tax and class taxes breed extravagance," he said. "It deserves approval from almost every other standpoint, but in this respect it needs courageous correction. Income taxes should not be levied upon the poor, but they should be levied upon all the rich, i. e., upon everyone with income exceeding the amount required by the American standard of living.

UNITED STATES COULD END WAR SAYS VOLLMER. Washington, Dec. 30.-How the United States could end the European war in 90 days; how some day the "issue" between this country and Japan must be "tried out on the Pacific" was described by Representative Vollmer of Iowa to the house foreign relations committee.
