No One at Station to Greet Basketball Team on Return From Trip.

Whenever Montana football teams come wearily home from drubbings (as they sometimes do) Craig hall is emptied to make the railroad station as festive with cheers and co-eds as may be.

But this sauce for the gander isn't accorded to the co-eds, and Miss Mary Murphy, who is a reporter for the Montana Kalmi, is angry about it. Last Saturday evening, the co-ed basketball team of the university returned from a 50-50 tour, and Miss Murphy avows that not one student was at the station to extend a welcome.

Two gallant persons cheered when the girls' team left, at 7 o'clock last Friday morning. "Linus C. Fitzgerald, who was here last semester and Andrew Boyd, a new-comer from Dillon, happened to be the only ones who were on hand," Miss Murphy says.

But "somehow or other they both forgot that the team was returning Sunday evening at 6 o'clock."

"Even the football heroes whom the girls so loyally supported didn't remember the occasion," says Miss Murphy.

The other and less adept basketball team of the university is now on a tour.

RUSSELL ASKS COURT TO COLLECT WARRANT

Charles A. Russell filed an affidavit and petition with the clerk of court yesterday asking that a warrant for $167.35 issued by the Sanders county board of county commissioners last December payable to Mr. Russell be delivered to the plaintiff. The information declares that the clerk and recorder of the county, John F. McKay, named as defendant, refused to deliver the warrant and asks that the court instruct him to do so. Mr. Russell also asks that the costs of the action be levied upon the defendant.

The warrant was issued by the board in payment for Mr. Russell's services as special counsel at the outset of the case of the state against Edith Colby, charged with killing A. C. Thomas at Thompson Falls last September. The warrant had been passed upon by the board and issued by the clerk but was held at the office at the behest of County Attorney Wade Parks, according to the records.

FIND NO MORE DEAD IN RUINS OF HOTEL

Minneapolis, Feb. 13.—Although police and firemen, assisted by a force of laborers, searched all day in the ruins of the Kenwood hotel, which was destroyed by fire Sunday night, the death list of two known dead has not been increased. Several persons listed among the "missing" have reported that they were not at the hotel the night of the fire and that list has been reduced to six.

Local and state fire officials will investigate charges that the firemen who first arrived at the Kenwood did not attempt to rescue persons in the burning building at a meeting called for Thursday.

N. P. BRAKEMAN HAS BOTH ARMS SEVERED

Livingston, Feb. 13.—C. R. Williams, a Northern Pacific brakeman had both arms severed at the shoulders when he fell from the top of a moving train between two cars this morning at West End, near here. He is in a critical condition tonight. He was making his last trip prior to visiting his home in Missouri.

Dyspepsia Gone Forever

The Simple, Safe, Sure Use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Will Bring Joy to Any Stomach Sufferer.

How many quiet, afraid-to-make-a-noise, unhappy homes there are due to cross, irritable, miserable, close-to-the-kitchen-door kind of dyspepsia sufferers. Such men and women cannot help their peevishness, for they suffer terribly and should be pitted.

Dyspepsia, bad breath, gastritis, catarrh of the stomach, pains in bowels, nervousness, heartburn, belching, bloating, etc., come from wrongful conditions of digestive juices. When the system exhausts its juices, when the liver, when the pancreas, the stomach become thereby unfit to furnish the proper digestive fluids, one cannot expect this same system, without aid, to do anything else than keep on making their improper digestive products.

There is relief in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets that means a restoration to normal health and a building up of correct digestive juices.

THEY ARE WEARING 'EM IN CHICAGO.

MISS EMILY MILLER IN HER NIFTY WORKING COSTUME.

Miss Emily Miller of Chicago has snatched. She says she is becoming the vogue among the women of her city. "I wear 'em when I go out camping," she says. "I wear 'em when I do my housework. Many a time I have worn them to the movies, only I slipped on a coat. And what's more, most of my neighbors are wearing 'em."

Summary of War's Progress

The British troops fighting in France continue their pecking at the German lines at various points and, according to London, they have met with additional successes. The greatest gain was east of Souchez, north of Arras, where an advance of several hundred yards placed them in German positions, which were badly damaged by the invaders, who killed a number of Germans and took 47 prisoners. Similar raids were made near Neuville-St. Vaast, Loos and Ypres. In the Anere region near Serre and Pys the Germans were unsuccessful in attacks on the newly captured positions of the British. On the remainder of the front bombardments have predominated.

With the return to better weather conditions, the activities of the armies on the Macedonian front have increased.

The fighting, however, is being done mainly by surprise detachments and the artillery wings of the belligerents. In the Cerna Bend region Berlin reports the capture by the Teutonic allies of a hill position east of Paralovo and several camps behind that front, while Paris records the repulse by the Italians of several surprise attacks attempted by the Germans between the Cerna and Lake Presba. In this region the bombardment has grown particularly violent.

In the Irak theater the British now have Kut-el-Amara completely hemmed in. The Turkish war office admits the gain of ground by the British on the Turkish left wing in this region.

While the invaders still remain practically inactive along the southern front of the Rumanian theater, their army on the west Moldavia front has captured a strong point of support from the Rumanians south of the Vale Putna road.

Seventeen members of the crew of the White Star liner steamer Africa are missing as a result of the destruction of the vessel by a submarine. The Africa was of 11,999 tons. Two other vessels, the British steamer Foreland of 1,999 tons and the Norwegian motor vessel West, are reported to have been sent to the bottom. The tonnage of the Norwegian ship is not known.

FUNDS FROM MONTANA DIDN'T REACH GUARDS

Helena, Feb. 13.—Members of troop A, Montana cavalry, who have just returned from the Mexican border, report that since arriving home, friends have been inquiring how they liked the funds raised for them on Thanksgiving and New Years. No funds reached the soldiers, who believe swindlers have been collecting them in Helena. The sole gifts they received, they declare, came from Rev. Father J. L. McMullen, chaplain of the Second Montana infantry.

TREASURY DEFICIT OF $333,400,000 FORESEEN

Washington, Feb. 13.—A treasury deficit of $333,400,000 at the end of the next fiscal year is forecast in a report submitted today by the senate finance committee recommending that the administration revenue bill be amended to authorize a bond issue of $125,256,000 instead of $100,000,000 and that the authorization for certificates of indebtedness be made $500,000,000 instead of $200,000,000.

"BLACK 'ELL" PROMISED

University Masquers Plan to Give Censored British War Play.

"Black 'Ell," a one-act war play suppressed in England by the censors but smuggled to the United States and published in "The Masses," probably will be presented in Missoula by the Masquers' club of the State University.

Arthur A. Butzerin, head of the club, has been deeply interested in the play, and Dr. George Coffman, head of the department of English at the university, has praised the piece highly. A meeting of the club is to be held this afternoon to hear a reading of the play. The cast probably will be selected at this meeting.

Miles Malleson, an English dramatist whose radical work has attracted much attention here at home, is the author of "Black 'Ell." The play shows the psychological effect of actual warfare upon a sensitive individual and adroitly reveals the brutality of stay-at-home belligerency.

The Masquers' club plans a series of one-act plays for presentation at university convocations. "Black 'Ell," probably will be the first.

THIEVES SENTENCED.

George Rooney was sentenced to 90 days in jail yesterday by Justice Phil Gagnon upon conviction on a petty larceny charge. Rooney stole a couple of mackinaws.

Jerry O'Brien was sent to the county jail for 30 days upon conviction of petty larceny. O'Brien emulated Rooney in a coat stealing episode.

FOR CROUP, COUGHS AND COLDS

A. Baxter, Wheeler, Wisc., says: "For ten years we have used Foley's Honey and Tar in our family and consider it the best cough medicine on the market, especially for children, as they like to take it." A divorce was granted to Mrs. Mary J. Matthews from her husband, James R. Matthews, by Judge Theodore Lentz in department No. 2 of the district court yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Matthews charged her husband with desertion.

Missoula 25 Years Ago Today

(Taken from the society page of the Missoula Gazette of Saturday, February 13, 1892. The Gazette was not published on Sundays.)

Society's mood for the week has shown itself in an increase of small private entertainments of a somewhat informal character, so that while the pace has been fast enough for almost everybody, there have not been, with the exception of the club dance, any of those larger events which call together all of the giddy throng at one time, and consequently, society as a body has been somewhat less gay than last week. But the private small entertainments have been so numerous and extending through all corners that, with the regular meetings of the various whist clubs and the play of Thursday night, it would have been more than difficult to have found place for anything more, large or small. While the K. of P. ball and banquet is the only important event so far dated for next week and the B. of L. E. ball the only one dated for the week following, it is probable that the gaiety will continue right up to Lent. The K. of P. ball and banquet will probably be the most important social event, in many ways which has so far occurred this season. The utmost care has been given to all matters in connection with it down to the smallest details by capable committees and the gathering will be representative of Missoula's brightest and best. It will be interesting as a spectacle and it will also be enjoyable. The music is to be especially strong and the supper will prove substantial refreshment for the enthusiastic dancers.

Talk about men being gay deceivers! Here is a story of woman's perfidy which, unless it be all a joke—which is highly probable—will fairly cap the climax.

A certain member of Missoula society who is—or at least was—engaged to be married, shaved off his mustache recently and that same evening as usual, went to see his fiancée. It was a starless night and the hall of the mansion where the girl lived was unlighted. Now, although the engagement was bona fide and "a sure go," the coy maiden had always been rather sparing of her kisses and carresses—a fact which the dotting swain attributed to a proper maidenly reserve. He was accordingly somewhat surprised on the evening in question

DIFFER ON SHIPS SUNK

Overseas News Agency Reports More Sunk on February 12 Than Lloyds.

Berlin, Feb. 13.—(Via Sayville.)—Among the news items given out for publication today by the Overseas News agency was the following concerning Germany's submarine warfare:

Among ten steamers reported February 12, as having been sunk was one English steamer of about 7,500 gross tons; three large freight steamers arrived and one unarmed English steamer of 3,500 tons.

According to reports now received from German submarines they have sunk one steamer, one English ship, the name unknown, of about 300 tons with a cargo of pig iron and grenades; the French bark Hoeland, 395 tons, with salts and wines; the French sailing ship Confiance and Saint Marie, with coal for France; one steamer with hidden lights of about 4,000 tons gross; the Russian steamer Corea with 5,000 tons of coal for the French admiralty and seven steamers and three sailing ships which together aggregated 22,000 tons.

Reports from Lloyds and other sources February 12 announced that day the sinking of four British steamers and one Greek steamer of an aggregate tonnage of 8,361. Available shipping records do not contain the French ships Hoeland or Saint Marie. The Confiance was a vessel of 83 tons gross. The Russian steamer 'Cera' was reported as "believed" to have been sunk February 6.

COUNTESS WRITES A POPULAR PLAY

COUNTESS OF CROMARTIE.

At the recent celebration of Twelfth day in Stratford-on-Avon, Shakespeare's birthplace, one of the chief features was the production of a one-act play by the Countess of Cromartie. This piece, in which the countess played a leading role, is called "The Tiger of Ashur." It was originally produced at a big Red Cross matinee given at Aldershot some months ago and has since been acted frequently. It is popular.

when, the girl herself opening the door, she threw her arms about his neck and kissed him with more effusiveness than he had thought her capable of. His surprise was not lessened when, on leading him into the light, she had a good look at him and exclaimed, before she realized how it sounded, "Why, is it you! I did not know you without your mustache!" The young man is naturally curious as to whom he was mistaken for and is wondering how many bachelor's revels he might have had with the money the engagement ring cost him.

Miss Hill, Miss Montgomery and the Misses Harrison had a little party in their room in the Hammond building last Wednesday evening at which they entertained pleasantly with cards, music and refreshments the Misses Laura Thompson and Martin and Messers. People who have met Miss Ione Crutchfield, now here from her home in Richmond, Va., on a visit to her brother, Hon. C. M. Crutchfield, pronounce her a most delightful girl. She has the dark eyes and hair of the south and the southern accent which tells so prettily from a woman's lips and is indisputably pretty. She will prove a charming addition to Missoula society.

Mrs. Judge Marshall celebrated her birthday yesterday by a dinner to her numerous relatives here. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Jenkins, Mrs. Rich, Mrs. Hendricks, Mrs. Hall, the Misses Capitola Jenkins, Rich, Late Rich, Stroughton, Pearl Jenkins, Reeves, Hall, Alice Reeves, Anna and Emma Marshall, Katie Reeves, Messers. Charles Hall and Tom Rich, Judge Reeves and Master Charles Marshall.

There will be but one more club dance before Lent. Last night's dance was fairly well attended and thoroughly enjoyed. The music, though reduced to five pieces, was good. Some confusion was caused by the absence of the usual placards for the next dance and its announcement "viva voce." One or two of the dances were encored after the usual custom but an attempt to encore a Jersey—the only one on the programme—the floor committee announced that it was against the rule. As it was, the programme was a little short and some extras had to be introduced.
