WOMEN TALK OVER ASSOCIATION WORK

Executive Session Held With Miss Maxwell at Y. W. C. A. Home.

BUSINESS SESSION

Reports of Year's Work to Be Submitted and New Board Members Chosen.

Executive session of real stimulus and enlightenment was held at the Young Women's Christian association home on East Cedar street yesterday, when Miss Grace Maxwell, northwest field secretary, talked over problems of association work with members of the board of directors and committee members of the Missoula Y. W. C. A. Sessions were held both morning and afternoon and the ladies had luncheon together in the cafeteria. This evening there will be held the annual business session in the association parlors. Reports of the year's work will be presented and new board members will be elected. A feature of the evening will be an address given by Miss Esther Anderson, secretary of the foreign department, who is here from her headquarters at New York, and an address by Miss Maxwell. All friends of the Young Women's Christian association are cordially invited to attend the meeting this evening.

WILL GET A HAM FROM MRS. WILSON

MADAME JOFFRE.

Mrs. Woodrow Wilson having learned recently that Madame Joffre, the wife of the famous French general now in this country, is very fond of ham, informed the noted visitor while he was in Washington that she wanted to send a ham back to him to his wife when he returns to France. The general graciously declared that the gift would be most acceptable.

WOMEN OF MISSOULA HAVE CHANCE TO AID

Red Cross Chapter Needs Co-Operation of Everyone in City.

OFFICIAL STANDING

Society Not Temporary, but Permanent, Official Organization.

Are you "doing your bit"? That is the question which the recently organized Missoula chapter of the American Red Cross wants to put before every woman in western Montana. The question will be followed by this offer: Through the American Red Cross you may directly serve your country. The Red Cross is not a temporary, private organization; it is an official, permanent society of relief, working in co-ordination with the government. It is the only relief organization which is official. The Missoula chapter has been given the use of the hall in the chamber of commerce building, and women are working there daily now on garments for soldiers and sailors. These garments are being made at the request of the government, according to government patterns. The making of bandages and dressings will be taken up later. Officials of the local organization want the co-operation of every man and woman in the city. They want the people of Missoula to understand that the Red Cross is not an emergency organization, but a permanent institution, prepared to give relief in any great calamity, whether war or flood or wreck or fire. It is the one great relief organization in this country; first on the scene in any disaster. It has been at the front in Europe since the war broke out and now is confronted with fresh tasks by America's entry into battle. Because of the permanency of the Red Cross half the dues from individual members go to the general relief fund and half to the local treasury for use in the purchase of supplies. "Ask interested people to come to the chamber of commerce at any time on any day except Sunday," said one woman yesterday. "The government is asking, through the Red Cross, for every person's aid. Here is an opportunity for every Missoula citizen to help."

LAST TRIBUTE PAID TO MAURICE LLAFFET

Funeral of Young Boy Drowned in River Attended by Many.

REV. BASSETT SPEAKS

Simple Are Services Over Child Whose Death Grooms City.

A great throng of friends gathered at the Lucy undertaking rooms, yesterday morning to pay their tribute of sorrow for the loss of the living presence of Maurice Llafet, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Llafet, who was the first lad to lose his life in Missoula this season, because adequate provision had not been made for boys and girls of the city.

Rev. George Bassett, pastor of the Christian church conducted the service, mindful of the request of the bereaved parents for the utmost simplicity.

Dr. Bassett read part of the last chapter of Revelations and spoke of its personal message.

Mrs. T. M. Pearce and Miss Helen Parker sang "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," and "Oh, Love That Will Not Let Me Go" to an accompaniment played by Mrs. J. M. Swango. Six boys, who were in the same Sunday school class with the dead boy, served as pallbearers. These were Raymond Danielson, Ralph Moller, Harold Grissom, Herbert Townsend, Calvin Pearce and Henry Bailey.

A long line of carriages carried friends to the graveside in Missoula cemetery.

THE DAILY RECIPE

CHEESE AND TOMATO SALAD. Some Cheddar or Gruyere cheese, one-half pound tomatoes, one hard-boiled egg, two tablespoons of cream, one tablespoon of salad oil, two tablespoons of vinegar, seasonings.

Cut the cheese into dice—any that has gone rather stale and hard will serve the purpose quite well, as it becomes softened with the dressing. Divide the tomatoes into quarters or halve the quarters again if the tomatoes are large. Remove the yolk from a hard-boiled egg and pound it up finely with a wooden spoon; add the cream and then the oil and vinegar. Season with salt and pepper.

It is highly important that you give your system a general housecleaning that you purify your blood and cleanse it of all impurities, so as to be prepared to combat the many ailments so common during spring and summer.

A few bottles of S. S. S., the great blood medicine, will purify your blood, thoroughly purge it of all accumulations, renew your appetite and give new strength and vitality to your whole body. The feeling of debility and weakness will immediately disappear, and you will be delighted at the buoyant and vigorous condition that will take its place.

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable, and thousands take it regularly every spring. You can obtain it at any drug store. Write for interesting literature, which can be had by addressing Swift Specific Co., 76 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta Ga.—Adv.

MEDALS FOR WOMEN.

Melbourne, Australia.—Medals are to be issued by the commonwealth government to the nearest woman relatives of soldiers of the Australian expeditionary force. This will be by way of recognition of the war sacrifices made by the women of Australia. The medals will be worn with ribbons and bars. A mother who has given seven sons for the war will be given a medal with a bar for each son. In families where a mother has given a son and a wife has given her husband the wife will be given the medal.

GERMAN YOUTHS ARE TO WORK ON FARMS

Amsterdam, Netherlands.—The newspapers devote much space to a description of the departure of nearly 1,000 children from Berlin to the villages and farmhouses of East Prussia. The children will be used as far as possible on light farm work while they are regaining health and strength under the stimulus of more plentiful farm food.

Committees which have been collecting funds for some time have made arrangements with country people who are willing to take over city children for periods varying from one to four months. Innumerable families in the larger towns throughout Germany find the burden of keeping their children growing heavier. School authorities repeatedly have asserted that undernutrition is seriously interfering with work in the schools, and statistics gathered by the medical supervisors show a steadily decreasing standard of weight and growth in child pupils.

The first party of 1,000 Berlin children left in the early evening on a 15 hour journey under the care of a staff of nurses and school teachers. Their ages ranged from eight to 14 years. Judge Janerick of the district court made an address to the children at the railway station, urging them to be on their good behavior and to work hard in house and garden. "This work will make you strong again," he said, "and you will return to your mothers well and happy."

RELATIVE OF DICKENS.

London.—Miss Georgina Hogarth, sister-in-law of Charles Dickens, and devoted guardian of his children, has just died at the age of 80 years. The best and truest friend ever had by the description Dickens gave in his will of Miss Hogarth, who is so frequently mentioned in Dickens' correspondence after his return from America, when she joined his household as housekeeper. When Dickens and his wife separated, Miss Hogarth remained and brought up the younger children.

FOOD MANIPULATORS FACING PROSECUTION

Washington, May 16.—Special investigators of the department of Justice laid before Attorney General Gregory today new evidence on which they believe indictments of food price manipulators can be based.

Robert W. Childs of Chicago, a special assistant to the attorney general, and George W. Anderson, district attorney at Boston, reported at a conference with the attorney general that they believe prices on many food stuffs have advanced without justification. In some cases they believe this condition due to the combinations in restraint of competition and it is understood they were told by the attorney general to institute grand jury investigation wherever they thought advisable.

FRENCH ASSURE U. S. OF THEIR GRATITUDE

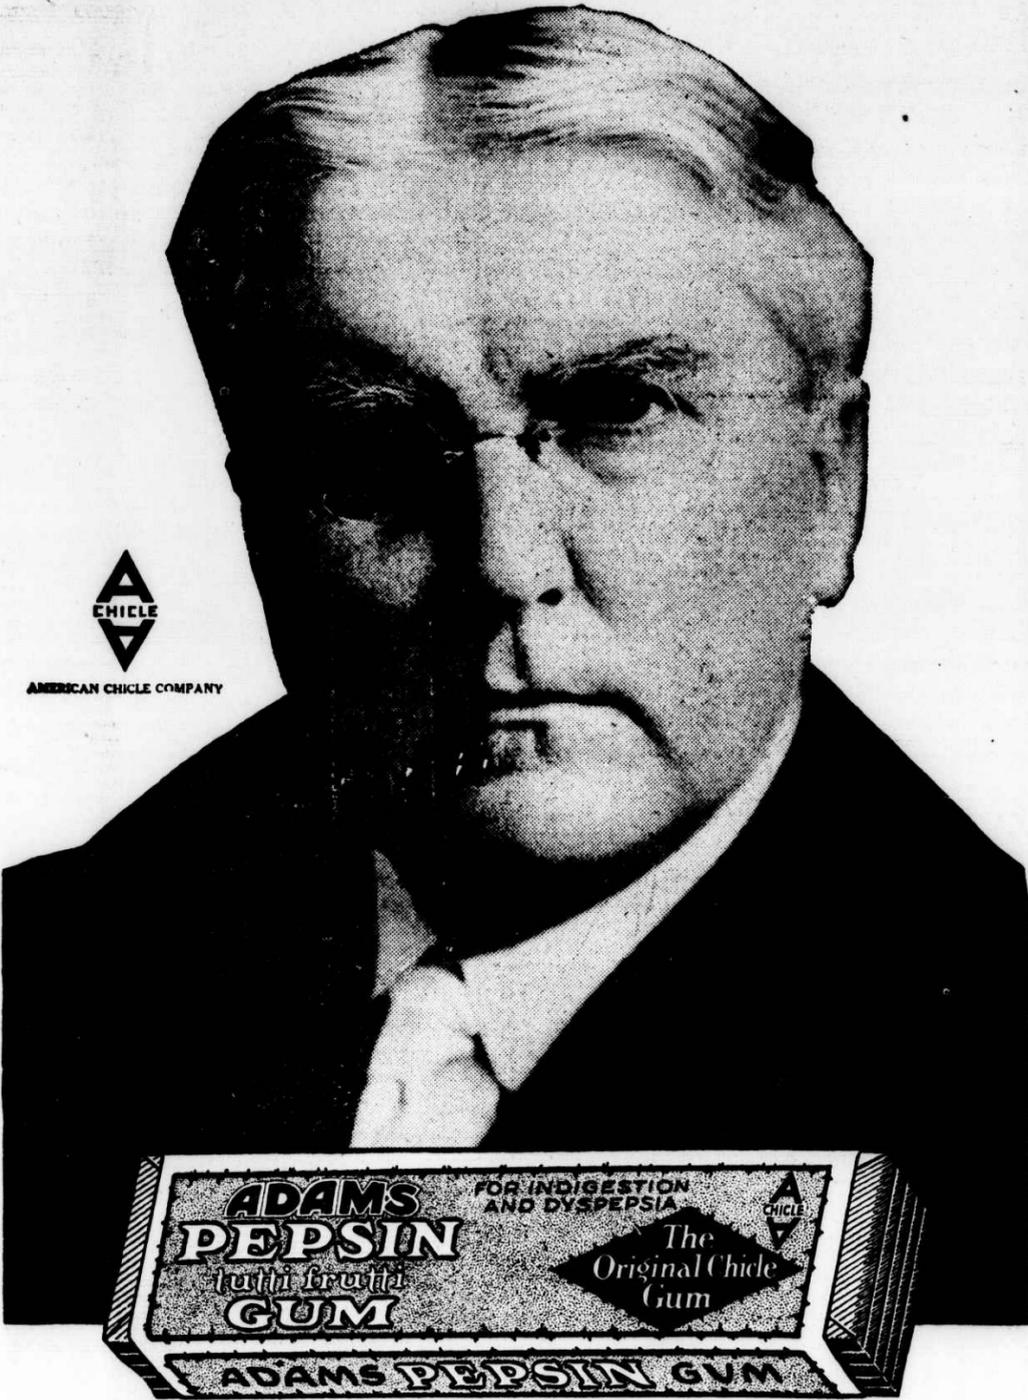

Paris, May 16.—The French nation and the French government express their profound gratitude to the people and government of the United States for the admirable manner in which they received the Minister of Justice Viviani and Marshal Joffre, said Jules Cambon, general secretary to the ministry of foreign affairs, today in discussing recent events and particularly the closing days of the visit of the French mission to America.

TRADE CORPORATION.

London.—The British Trade bank, which has now received its charter from King George, will be called the British Trade corporation. It is expected that business men in the country will be able to extend their foreign trade by means of credit and other assistance from this institution, such as is not granted by established British banks and they will be able to compete on more equitable terms with German competitors who have been financed directly or indirectly by their government in practically all trade operations.
