The case of Wm. Showers, who has been on trial several days, charged with having murdered his two grand children, at Lebanon, Pa., was given to the jury last Saturday. During the closing hours of the trial Stephen Showers, son of the accused, testified in reference to letters which his father had written him from prison asking him to swear falsely, so as to clear the old man. The son said he could not take a false oath, even to save his own father's neck.

A bulletin issued by Dr. Mackenzie states that the appearance of the crown prince's throat confirms the previous bulletin issued by the physicians in charge. A small growth has made its appearance on the left ventricular band, and the tumor which formed in October has diminished in size. The other doctors in attendance on the crown prince agreed to the statements contained in Dr. Mackenzie's bulletin. The crown prince, in company with Dr. Mackenzie, spent some time out of doors Saturday.

Assistant Secretary Maynard has written a letter to the collector of customs at New York, in regard to the question whether a schedule tarp might safely be prescribed for all cargoes imported in hogheads, tierces or bags. Judge Maynard says in view of the great variations between the different lots of the same kinds of packages, the department concurs with the collector at New York in the opinion that a uniform rate on hogheads, tierces or bags containing sugar still have the right to claim actual rates.

The international contest between Jake Kilrain, of Baltimore, and Jim Smith, of England, for a diamond belt and championship of the world, took place on the island of St. Pierre, in the river Seine, France, to-day, in the presence of about 100 persons. G. W. Atkinson, referee, performed his duties with satisfaction to all concerned. Smith was seconded by Jack Boldock and Jack Harwood, and was attended by Jim Howes and Dick Roberts. Kilrain was seconded by Charley Mitchell and Ned Donnelly, and was attended by Charley Rowell, Messrs. Fleming and Harding acted as time keepers and umpires. The fight was remarkable for the persistent wrestling of the men. In the fourth round Smith was knocked nearly silly by a terrific smack on the ear. Though Smith had the worst of the falls, he fought splendidly under the difficulty, and was as fresh as Kilrain when darkness stopped the fight at 4:45. One hundred and six rounds were fought, lasting two and a half hours. The fight was declared a draw. In the 10th and last round both were fighting as quickly as at the start when Mr. Atkinson ordered an adjournment of the contest until the next day amid the loud cheers of the spectators, who were delighted with the pluck of both men. In Sullivan's opinion the fight was the greatest witnessed in many years between big men.
