"I saved the life of my little girl by a prompt use of Dr. Acker's English Remedy for consumption." Mrs. Wm. V. Harriman, New York.

John Saxton, ex-night watchman of the Anaconda works, Anaconda, but who, for a number of months past, has been enjoying the salubrious climate of California.

Chas. Houck, of Sawyer, Honck & Co., Anaconda, accompanied by Frank Newkirk, introduced some of their fine bicycles in Granite, Saturday.

James McDonnell instructs us here to state that Constable Hall is acting as night watchman during his illness.

Messrs. Grant, Moffitt and Mather, who were rusticated on Rook creek last week, state that the creek is not high and that the trout are fast making their appearance.

Ben Cotton is billed for the appearance of his company in the Knights of Labor hall, Granite, to-morrow (Friday) evening, May 31.

P. McGURK, proprietor of the City bakery, has put in a fine line of confectionery, etc., which makes his store very attractive.

Allen McDonnell came in from the Iron Mountain county, Sunday, to attend his brother, James, now convalescing from the last stage of pneumonia.

J. H. Harris, the druggist, has just completed a neat two-story dwelling house on Granite street, below his store.

E. D. Kent, superintendent of the Granite water works, is making some needed acquisitions to that institution.

James McDonnell has been severely sick during the past two weeks with pleural pneumonia. McDonnell & McDonnell are in receipt of a $500 pool table, which is in service at their saloon.

Adelene, must have been gratified by the crowded house which greeted them last evening to see the "Wait." The feeling was doubtless heightened by the repeated outbursts of applause and laughter which greeted them as the play progressed.
