—Ox Breeches (another pair free if they rip), the best for work or dress, at from $1.25 to $3.50 per pair. C. H. Barnett & Co.

—The Bi-Metallic is a full Havana Spanish hand-made cigar and strictly union and home manufactured is now on sale at all dealers.

—The Horses' Home has no livery stock to care for and pays strict attention to transient horses. At Shilling's old stand. Add Graver.

—If you want a shot gun, powder, shot, caps, wads and loaded shells, either nitro or black powder, go to F. J. Wilson's hardware store.

—C. H. Barnett & Co., Happy Home Clothiers, is the place to buy clothing made to fit and fit to wear, at the very lowest prices for good, guaranteed clothing.

—It is reported that 45 men were discharged at Combination Friday, a number of whom came to Philipsburg that day and departed for Butte and other places.

—Perfumes from Paris, perfumes from Berlin, perfumes from California, perfumes from the Nile. Ladies, stop in and examine our line of perfumes. M. E. Doe & Co.

—Rev. G. W. Jenkins, wife and family, came over from the Bitter Root last Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. G. S. Williams, which occurred the day following.

—Mrs. John Francis, a first-class dressmaker, has opened a dressmaking establishment in the first house on California street, where she is now prepared to do first-class work.

—Everybody wants a fire lighter. It is convenient, and nobody can afford to be without one. It saves its cost in oil and labor in two weeks. Price 50 cents. For sale by D. N. McDonald.

—Do you know the guarantee on "Happy Home Suits? Guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money freely refunded. For sale by C. H. Barnett & Co., Happy Home Clothiers.

—The Phantom social given by the Ladies' Guild at Twoly's hall last Friday night was a success and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed. It was a weird sight to see so many figures all in white.

—If the official count shows F. J. McDonald elected sheriff, it is rumored that Frank Harris will be appointed under-sheriff. Frank would undoubtedly make a good officer, and The Mail cannot see that anybody would have any very great kick coming if the rumor should prove true.

—A new safe for the city council has arrived and will be placed in position. The safe is of the Macneale & Urban make and weighs about 4000 pounds. Its measurements are as follows: Outside, 59 inches high; 45 inches wide; 31 inches deep. Inside, 39 inches high; 32 inches wide; 15 inches deep.

—The Golden Sceptre company of Quigley made an assignment for nearly $300,000 during the past week, and everything is closed down. President Quigley having been reported as having gone to California. Levi C. Johnson has filed an attachment for $24,000 and Fraser & Chalmers for $69,000 since the above confession of judgment.

—By reference to another column a partial table of election returns will be found. They are not complete, as we have been unable to obtain them. They are nearly all in at the office of the county clerk, Dan Arms informs us, but are sealed and cannot be opened until the commissioners canvass the vote, which will probably be done early in the week. The Mail will then present a complete table.

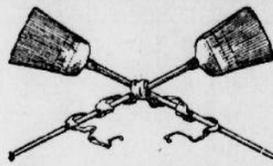

—W. J. Carpenter, the photographer, will open his gallery in the old stand Tuesday, Nov. 11, and will do business there three weeks only before going east. All who wish a fine photo taken had better come in at once and sit for them as this positively will be my last visit to Philipsburg. Remember, that I shall offer great inducements on the new platino and carbon photos while here. They are beauties.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the people of Philipsburg and vicinity generally, to the members of the W. R. C., the G. A. B., the Ladies' Aid society and Epworth League of the M. E. church, we tender our heartfelt thanks for the profound sympathy shown, tokens presented, words of consolation expressed and communicated, and cordial assistance afforded in our late sad bereavement in the death of a beloved wife, daughter and sister, Nellie M. Jenkins Williams. While thus expressing gratitude to all earthly aid afforded us, we sincerely hope and pray that the Lord, in whom we trust and who is our help, will duly reward you all.

G. S. Williams,
G. W. Jenkins and Family.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS.

The State Reading Circle Committee has selected the following books for use during the coming year:

General Culture: "Standish of Standish," by Jane Austin.

Biography: "Geo. Washington," by Horace E. Scudder.

Poem: "The Last Occasion," by Whittier.

American Patriotic Selections: English Classic Series.

Professional: "The Psychology of Childhood," by F. Tracy.

The Northern Journal of Education will devote one-half of its space to the work based upon this book.

The examinations for next year will deal with the first four of the above books. Beginning with "General Culture" at the February examination, the others will be treated at the April, August and November examinations respectively.
