FAULT-FINDERS.

To a liberal-minded citizen it would appear that the time had arrived when some of our esteemed neighbors adhering to the Democratic faith should cease venting their wrath against the government by criticizing every act of the present administration in the management of the army and navy. Some of these fault-finders would have people believe that a Democratic administration could have conquered the world by this time, taken possession of Cuba, Porto Rico, the Philippine Islands, and even Spain itself, before now; proclaimed peace and given the whole works back to King Alfonso as a birthday present, since his country has contributed so much to bring the United States up to its present standard. The past record of Democratic administrations show they have done such things before; how great battles have been fought and glorious victories won by them right along—in their own minds. Whenever the Union has been threatened by the dark clouds of war, or had other difficulties to settle, a Republican administration has had to shoulder the responsibility every time. In the present war with Spain there has been no need of finding fault. If a transport did not sail at exactly the time announced the administration has been condemned for the delay; or if a Spanish garrison or port was taken by our army or navy, the administration would be criticized for not returning at once to Spain all of the conquered territory, with an admonition to Alfonso to be a better boy in the future. To the victor belong the spoils. Our soldiers have gone forth to battle and whenever they have come in contact with the enemy the result has always been a foregone conclusion and it was over in a short time—all but the rejoicing. Admiral Dewey astonished the world by his brilliant victory at Manila on May 1st; the trick was repeated at Santiago de Cuba by Admiral Sampson's fleet on the 21st of July, convincing the world that the battle of Manila was by no means mere luck. The fall of Santiago and the President's proclamation directed to the commander in chief of the army at that place, concerning its future government, has caused the entire world to comment on the subject. It has no parallel in history. The nations of Europe sent forth a chorus of applause that so much should have been accomplished in so short a time by a nation entirely unprepared for war. It is true this is no war for conquest, but it is costing us millions of dollars in money, besides many of our brave boys in blue have already contributed their lives for their country; our Montana regiment of volunteers, every man a hero, now well on its way to Manila, will follow the example without hesitation. This sacrifice Spain must repay in way of indemnity. And shall our country have no security for such an enormous debt from a bankrupt nation? Most assuredly. The conquered territory shall be a guarantee for any war indemnity that Spain may be called upon to pay. In the meantime they will have ample opportunity to remember the Maine. The government has acted wisely in placing our armies where they could accomplish the most good with a comparatively small loss. There has not been a single hitch in the plans laid out—even Spain realizes that fact. Yet some of our own citizens will strike a discordant note by throwing out slurs of petty criticism against the administration, an act entirely uncalled for and most unpatriotic, to say the least. We may be Republicans, Democrats, Populists or any old thing we see fit in times of peace and crack a few jokes at each others' expense, but when it comes to war with a foreign nation we are all citizens of this great Union and our one duty is to stand by the government and let every one of us contribute his share to preserve the honor and dignity of our nation.

Will Calhoun furnishes the readers of The Mail with another one of his interesting letters from Chickamauga Park, Tenn., where he, and the other Montana cavalrymen, are encamped in response to the President's call for troops. He says the Montana boys are held in high esteem by the people generally, though the latter were a little surprised that the Western troops did not have the "wild and woolly" long hair, of which so much is read in the Eastern press. That part of the letter is especially interesting which relates to the presentation of a handsome silk United States flag by Senator Thomas H. Carter and the other Montana representatives in Congress. When the fact was expressed by Mr. Carter that he knew the boys would "return with the flag untarnished by the hands of the Spaniards," our correspondent informs us that each man gripped his carbine more firmly and said to himself, "We will!" And it can be depended upon that the Montana representatives will show by their acts of valor that they are the equal, if not the superior, of any body of like number of men in the world. Watch the Montana boys when they get to the front!

No, this is no war for conquest. But it is not a war in which Uncle Sam intends to allow any opportunity to slip whereby to compel those directly responsible for the cost of this war with Spain to pay for it, if she has got enough possessions, for which she has abused and misruled and robbed long enough, to pay for it. If our democratic political "issue" inventors object, in the language of Partick Henry, "If this be treason, make the best of it." The American flag will never be lowered by Republicans where once planted, on any soil, because a few old grannies in the Democratic party are afraid and superstitious.—Dillon Tribune.

The Hawaiian Islands are now a part of the territory of the United States and will be taken possession of as soon as the Philadelphia can be dispatched from Mare Island navy yard to Honolulu. This will give fresh cause for grief to Grover Cleveland, as it will add new territory that may be considered as contributing to the ex-President's undesirable States. But it will not become a State until it is prepared for statehood by familiarizing its population with the flag which ex-President Cleveland had hauled down at Honolulu during his administration.—Livingston Enterprise.

With No. 1, Vol. X, the Red Lodge Picket announces a change of ownership. Mr. W. A. Lewis, who for a long time has been its able manager, retires and Mr. Walter Alderson, who is well known to the journalistic craft of the State, steps in his place as editor and manager. The Red Lodge Picket will from this time on be a Republican paper, believing that the best interests of all the people can only be advanced by the perpetuation in power of the present party. This is the proper spirit and a step in the right direction. We welcome the Picket in our ranks.

Colorado is the only place on earth where a flag hangs 1000 feet above the earth. There is a place in the mountains in the southern part where it does. On a wire stretched a half mile over a canyon, from one mountain to another, floats the beautiful stars and stripes 1000 feet above the earth.

No wonder the Democrats do not want the United States to acquire any more territory, that party having amply demonstrated that this country is already too big for them to run.—Benton River Press.

Kaiser Wilhelm is, no doubt, very fond of acquiring naval and coaling stations in the far East, but he may have to eat a Philopena with Dewey before he gets one at Manila.

DEATH OF MRS. DUNBAR.

The Well Known Lady Passes Away at an Early Hour This Afternoon.

Mrs. Elizabeth A. Dunbar died at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Wilson this afternoon after a lengthy illness. Her death has been expected for some time, and she had been hovering between life and death for several days past. As soon as it was evident that she could not survive, her son, Frank Dunbar, was telegraphed for at Bannack. He arrived during the week and was a constant attendant at the bedside of his dying mother, in company with his sister, Mrs. Frank J. Wilson.

Mrs. Dunbar had been a resident of Philipsburg for fourteen years, having been born in Toronto, Canada. She lived in a number of eastern states, and emigrated to California when a girl, going to Nevada afterward, where she was married to H. N. Dunbar. From there the family went to California and thence to Montana, where she lived up to the present time.

The deceased leaves one daughter, Mrs. Frank J. Wilson, and a son, Frank. She was a member of the Presbyterian church and was a woman of high character, loved and respected by all.

The funeral will take place from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Wilson at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Dunbar survived her husband but a few months, he having died in Arizona recently, where he went in search of health.

ITS FINAL DIVIDEND.

The Merchants and Miners National Bank Settling Up.

Much to the mental relief and satisfaction of President A. A. McDonald of the Merchants and Miners National Bank of Philipsburg, that institution is now paying the final dividend to its depositors with interest of an average of 7 1/2 per cent on all dividends paid. Less than a year ago, on July 28, 1897, a notice posted on the doors of the bank announced that payments had been suspended and the bank closed pending an adjustment of its affairs. In a short time a receiver had been appointed by the comptroller of the currency and that gentleman took charge. The payment of a dividend of 25 per cent was soon announced, and after awhile another payment of 35 per cent was made. Not wishing to sacrifice any of the bank's assets and unwilling to cause disaster among the community by enforcing collections, it was decided that assessments should be made upon the stockholders. An assessment of 80 per cent was accordingly levied, which all stockholders promptly responded. Mr. A. A. McDonald holding one-half of the entire capital stock. The result is already known and the depositors are being fully paid. This is an exceptional fast record and speaks well for Philipsburg and Granite county. A meeting of the stockholders is called for August 18th, when the assets of the bank will be placed in the hands of a trustee, and no doubt the stockholders will not fare so badly after all when a final distribution is made among them. Receiver Swiggert deserves much credit for the manner in which he conducted and directed the bank's closing career, and as to President A. A. McDonald too much cannot be said for his untiring efforts to see every depositor paid in full, an example which some other defunct banks may pattern after.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOLS PICNIC.

The Different Sunday Schools Unite in a Grand Outing and Celebrate Their Annual Picnic in Cliff Canyon, a Most Picturesque and Beautiful Spot Near Town.

This morning about 9 o'clock two band wagons loaded with happy little people and gaily decorated ladies, together with an endless variety of good things composing the bill of fare, departed for Cliff Canyon, for their annual Sunday-school picnic. Several trips were made by the band wagons to convey all to the grounds, while scores of private conveyances joined the procession, and a gay and happier lot of little ones it would be hard to find. The usual wind and thunder storm accompanied by a heavy rain arrived on schedule time, and unhappily marred part of the program. However, luncheon was over and everyone present had already had a day's enjoyment and fun. The festivities being concluded, the happy crowd dispersed and departed for their homes, having witnessed one of the gayest events of the season.

—Joe Heilman, of Stone, is in the city today.

—Will Latay and Theo Smith are spending a few days on Rock creek fishing.

—Ald. W. E. Albright, of Stone, was a visitor in Granite county's metropolis today.

—Mrs. John Murray, after a lengthy visit in Butte, returned yesterday to her home in Tower.

—Supt. and Mrs. Werner Ziegler, of the Granite-Bimetallic Co., are visiting Butte this week.

—Leave your orders for moving safes, pianos, household goods, etc., at J. A. McKenna's cigar store, John R. McKenzie.

—C. A. Davidson, wholesale grocer of Butte, has been in the city for several days on one of his regular visits to our merchants.

—F. H. Coy, formerly N. P. express agent in this city, arrived on today's train from Butte on a visit to his old stamping grounds.

—A marriage license was issued today by Clerk of the Court A. A. Fairbairn to Clarence C. Spencer and Amy Brown, both of Philipsburg.

—The Girls' Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. W. T. Allison Wednesday, July 27, at 2:30 o'clock p. m. A full attendance is requested.

—Miss Roxie Thompson entertained a number of her friends at Anaconda last week. Among those present was Mr. Ward Beley of Philipsburg.

—Mrs. David Longhin and family contemplate removing to Butte soon to join Mr. Longhin, who is employed in that city. Mrs. Longhin expects to remain in Butte permanently.

—County Superintendent of Schools Miss Mary Smith departed yesterday for Garnet, where she will visit the schools in official capacity. Before returning Miss Smith will make a short visit to her home in Helmsville.

—J. F. Lauer has purchased an interest in the Granite livery stables and the business will hereafter be conducted by Lauer & Gillis. These two gentlemen are well known in this community and no doubt will get their share of the trade.

In another column of The Mail appears the advertisement of H. I. Weinstein & Co., bankers. Like all staunch banking institutions, it will be noticed, they pay no interest on deposits, having ample funds of their own to carry on their business.

—Services at the Methodist church next Sunday at the usual hour. Subject for the morning service: "Pro-valing Prayer." A revival sermon for the evening service. This is the last evening service before the pastor goes to conference. All are cordially invited.

—Thos. Botschedior is engaged this week in building a new picket fence around the court house yard. The grounds are being leveled, cleaned of rocks and rubbish, and presently the county will have a lawn. Commissioner Featherman will be toastmaster at the lawn party.

—Master Edwin Doe was having his first hair cut at F. M. Nowak's tonorial parlors yesterday morning. Edwin did not seem to relish the performance very much and no doubt in his opinion Mr. Nowak don't know how to cut little boys' hair at all. However, he is pleased that it will be some time before he will be obliged to endure such torture again.

—Hazel McDonel entertained a number of her friends at her home Saturday afternoon at a lawn party. An enjoyable time was had. Games were played, after which a delicious lunch was served. Those present were Bertha and Alice Wharton, Katie Marky, Lizzie and Florence Cole, Dwyer and Harold McDonel, Maude Hammond, Virgie Yenter and Hazel McDonel.

—The Fire Brigade has made satisfactory arrangements with the owners of the Firemen's hall property and will continue in their present quarters. The farewell dance which was announced to take place on July 27th has been indefinitely postponed on that account. This announcement will no doubt disappoint some of our young ladies and gentlemen who looked forward to the evening's enjoyment, but the fire boys are much gratified at the turn things have taken and will put matters right later on, and it will not be a farewell dance either.

—While returning from the dance at Granite on horseback last Saturday morning, Neil McPherson met with what came near being a very serious accident. He was riding along at a good rate when his horse fell, throwing him to the ground and he struck on his head just above the right temple. He laid in an unconscious condition for nearly two hours and was finally brought to his senses by a passerby and he then proceeded to his home in Parkerville. Aside from being stricken unconscious by the fall and a few bruises, Neil is still himself, but you can bet he will not soon forget this horseback ride down the grade from Granite.

AT AND AROUND MOOSE LAKE.

Moose Lake, July 18.—There occurred in Copperopolis about a week ago commonly called a "scrap" between Germany and Scotland. The ring was only twelve feet square. Rules of the "scrap" hit where you can; bite, scratch—noting barred. Rounds lasted until the combatants were out of wind. In the first round, Germany got in several upper-cuts. In winding up, Germany got one of his fingers in the buzz-saw of the Scot and came very near losing it. All in all the referee considered it a draw and all bets were declared off.

Mal Linehan is in the 'burg this week.

Mr. Strom, of Georgetown Flats, was at Moose Lake last Sunday.

Young Leonard, of Anaconda, a friend of Thos. McGraw, came out to spend a few days with Mr. McGraw. Mr. Leonard is so taken up with the company that he thinks very seriously of giving up his position and moving here.

Harry Coleman and partner, Philipsburg men, are sinking a shaft near the lake. The intention is to go to bedrock in the hopes that they will find pay dirt for their labor.

The Howell boys have returned from their 4th of July trip and have gone up to their mines in Mers gulch.

The Hopkins family moved to Anaconda on the 14th. Mr. Hopkins is coming back to camp and stay all summer.

A. S. Nelson and Thos. Nelson, from Georgetown, spent a week here fishing and prospecting.

Messes. Roach, Rodgers and Engleking, from Silver Lake, were here this week, inspecting the copper camp and vicinity.

Mr. Brown, a Missoula mining expert, was up to the copper camp this week and also looked around the lake.

There are quite a number of men in the copper district who are going over to the headwaters of the Bitter Root this week.

The weather has been very warm at and around Moose Lake for the past few days.

A number of new strikes are reported as being discovered in the copper district. —"Seniority."
