Chinese New Year has commenced last Sunday and the event has been observed and celebrated in regular style by the Celestials of this city. The Chinamen of this city are not much given to the burning of fireworks or to making other noisy demonstrations. Part of their celebration is remembering their friends with small gifts of Chinese nuts and candies and squaring up all their accounts and starting the new year aright. The custom of the Celestials is to begin the new year with a clear balance sheet and in this they are setting an example for the progressive Americans, which, if followed by all, would promote better times in the financial world.

The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employe of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardner, Me. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I get a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines." For sale by M. E. Doe & Co.
