Wm. Thompson of Wagner spent Saturday in Malta.

Wanted—1000 Ladies and gentlemen to visit the Bon Ton.

Have you seen the fine line of pipes at the Bon Ton?

Mrs. Clarence Brockway of Dodson is visiting with relatives in town this week.

Young man, if you want the wool suit that's all wool, better see Kilduff.

Mrs. George Jones and little niece, Kathleen, of Spokane, are visiting the Tucker family.

The Ladies Aid Society will be entertained on Thursday afternoon at the hospitable home of Mrs. John Survant.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tauax have moved to Malta for the winter so that the children may attend school.

You can buy good Rutabagas or Cabbages for only 1 1/2 cents per pound of Joe Lafond. Cabbages trimmed off nicely.

Miss Peck is now ready to take orders for Xmas gifts. Anything in the Christmas line not in stock will be promptly ordered.

Stock Inspector Tom McDonald was in town two or three days during the week so says the Montana (Hinsdale) Homestead.

Kilduff has the finest quality all wool Blanket. Nothing better made.

Attorney C. H. Stevens is at Glasgow where he is one of the attorneys in an important case being tried in this term of court.

Hon. Thos. M. Cummings, stockman and politician of Fort Benton, transacted business in town the latter part of last week.

On next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock Rev. I. A. Rader will preach a Children's sermon. It is earnestly desired that the parents send the children to this service, as well as the Sunday School. Every child in Malta will be welcome here. Parents come out to the morning services and bring your children.

To use Chase & Sanborn's Teas and Coffee is a sure indication that you understand the science of right living.

Stock Inspector McDonald was here Friday and caused the arrest of Adam Eschenbacher a farmer, who had killed a beef and brought it to market without exhibiting the hide. Mr. Eschenbacher was simply ignorant of the law and had no idea of committing an offense punishable by law. There are old timers in this country that forget or fail to bring in the hide when they kill cattle for sale. The law is all right and at one time very necessary, more so than now, when wholesale rustling and selling of beef was practiced. Eschenbacher was fined $100 for not knowing the law. This should be a warning to all who kill beef for sale that they should bring the hide with them if they wish to avoid being arrested.—Culbertson Republican.

One evening, when the city clerk's office was full of men seeking registration, an Irishman asked to be registered. He received the usual blank, with the request that he sign his name. This he succeeded in doing, after a painful effort.

Suspecting that this was the extent of his accomplishments, an onlooker called out to the clerk:

"Try him on another name! Let him write yours."

"Deed, I'd never dare!" said the Irishman, quick as lightning. "Sure, 'twould be forgery!"—Youth's Companion.

No Mystery.

"Son, why don't you marry Emily? You have been attentive enough to her."

"Father, I will never marry Emily. There is an insuperable bar to our union."

"What mystery is this?"

"No mystery. Only I asked Emily and she won't have me."

A $100 Typewriter for 17 Cents a Day!

Please read the headline over again. Then its tremendous significance will dawn upon you.

An Oliver typewriter—the standard visible writer—the $100 machine—the most highly perfected typewriter on the market—yours for 17 cents a day!

The typewriter whose conquest of the commercial world is a matter of business history—yours for 17 cents per day.

The typewriter that is equipped with scores of such conveniences as "The Balance Shift"—"The Ruling device"—"The Double Release"—"The Locomotive Base"—"The Automatic Spacer"—"The Automatic Tabulator"—"The Disappearing Indicator"—"The Adjustable Paper Fingers"—"The Scientific Condensed keyboard"—all

Yours For 17 Cents a Day!

We announced this new sales plan recently, just to feel the pulse of the people. Simply a small cash payment—then 17 cents a day. That is the plan in a nutshell.

The result has been such a deluge of applications for machines that we are simply astounded.

The demand comes from people of all classes, all ages, all occupations.

The majority of inquiries has come from people of known financial standing who were attracted by the novelty of the proposition. An impressive demonstration of the immense popularity of the Oliver Typewriter.

A startling confirmation of our belief that the Era of Universal Typewriting is at hand.

A Quarter Million of People are Making Money

With

The OLIVER Typewriter

The Standard Visible Writer

The Oliver typewriter is a money maker right from the work "go!" So easy to run that beginners soon get in the "expert" class. Earn as you learn, let the machine pay the 17 cents a day—and all above that is yours.

Wherever you are there's work to be done and money to be made by using the Oliver. The business world is calling for Oliver operators. There are not enough to supply the demand. Their salaries are considerable above those of many classes of workers.

"An Oliver typewriter in every home"

That is our battle cry today. We have made Oliver supreme in usefulness and absolutely indispensable in business. Now comes the conquest of the home.

The simplicity and strength of the Oliver fit it for family use. It is becoming an important factor in the home training of young people. An educator as well as a money maker.

Our new selling plan puts the Oliver on the threshold of every home in America. Will you close the door of your home or office on this remarkable Oliver opportunity?
