Stickney Gasoline Engines ARE THE BEST

Buy an Engine for 1921

The Stickney Engine is guaranteed for the first five years—will give you as good service for the second five years—and your sons will use it for the next ten years—because the crankshaft is 50 per cent heavier, the bearings 50 per cent larger, the piston 50 per cent longer, the exhaust valve stem 50 per cent longer, the water jacket space 250 per cent thicker and the engine runs with 100 per cent less vibration than any other. Come and I will prove to you that these are facts.

Notice of Contest.

Department of Interior, United States Land Office, Glasgow, Montana, December 30, 1920.

To Edward J. Condon, of Cowan, Montana. You are hereby notified that JORGEN P. SIMONSON who gives Malta, Montana, as his post-office address, did on November 4th, 1914, file in this office his duly corroborated application to contest and secure the cancellation of your homestead entry, serial No. 017330, made Nov. 7th, 1910, for north half Section 11, Township 21 N., Range 31 E., Montana Meridian, and as grounds for his contest he alleged that Edward J. Condon has wholly abandoned said land and for more than six months past has never made any improvement, cultivated or resided on said land as required by law.

You are, therefore, further notified that the said allegations will be taken by this office as having been confessed by you, and your entry will be cancelled thereunder without your further right to be heard therein, in either before this office or on appeal, if you fail to file in this office within twenty days after the fourth publication of this notice, specifically meeting and responding to these allegations of contest, or if you fail to file in this office within twenty days after the fourth publication of this notice, showing the date of its receipt, or the affidavit of the person by whom the delivery was made, stating when and where the copy was delivered; if made by registered mail, proof of such service must consist of the affidavit of the person by whom the copy was mailed, and this affidavit must be accompanied by the postmaster's receipt for the letter.

You should state in your answer the name of the post-office to which you desire future notices to be sent to you.

Notice of Contest.

Department of Interior, United States Land Office, Glasgow, Montana, December 18, 1920.

To Bertie Wagner, of Aberdeen, South Dakota. You are hereby notified that

RICHARD O. MOORE who gives Malta, Montana, as his post-office address, did on July 13, 1913, file in this office his duly corroborated application to contest and secure the cancellation of your homestead entry Serial Number 01062, made June 11, 1910, for SW 1/4, NW 1/4, NW 1/4, Sec. 11, NE 1/4, NW 1/4, Sec. 23, S. 24, Township 21 N., Range 31 E., Montana Meridian, and as grounds for his contest he alleged that the land embraced in your homestead entry Serial No. 01062, or a portion thereof, was not subject to entry under the homestead laws of the United States, and that said entry is illegal and invalid for the reason that said land has been enclosed, cultivated, improved, in the possession of, under the control of, and occupied by said Richard O. Moore continuously, since March 16, 1908, who has since March 16, 1908, in good faith, resided on and made his home thereon, under the bona fide belief that said land was embraced in his homestead entry, and under and by virtue of a valid prior claim thereto; and that said land has so enclosed, improved, cultivated, in the possession of, under the control of, and occupied by the said Richard O. Moore, to your own knowledge, at the time you made your homestead entry No. 01062; all of which will more fully appear from the application to contest and contest affidavit, herein, and to which reference is hereby made.

You are, therefore, further notified that the said allegations will be taken by this office as having been confessed by you, and your said entry will be cancelled thereunder without your further right to be heard therein, in either before this office or on appeal, if you fail to file in this office within twenty days after the fourth publication of this notice, specifically meeting and responding to these allegations of contest, or if you fail within that time to file in this office due proof that you have served a copy of your answer on the said contestant either in person, or by registered mail. If this service is made by the delivery of a copy of your answer to the contestant in person, proof of such service must consist of the affidavit of the person by whom the copy was mailed, and this affidavit must be accompanied by the postmaster's receipt for the letter.

You should state in your answer the name of the post-office to which you desire future notices to be sent to you.

Notice of Contest.

Department of Interior, U. S. Land Office at Glasgow, Montana, December 29, 1920.

To John Haug, of Hannaford, North Dakota. You are hereby notified that JAKOB H. HANSEN who gives Malta, Montana, as his post-office address, did on July 15, 1912, file in this office his duly corroborated application to contest and secure the cancellation of your homestead entry Serial No. 021156, made June 13, 1913, for SW 1/4, Sec. 12, Township 22 N., Range 31 E., and SE 1/4, Sec. 11, Township 22 N., Range 31 E., Montana Meridian, and as grounds for his contest he alleged that the land embraced in your homestead entry, Serial No. 021156, was not subject to entry under the homestead laws of the United States, and that said entry is illegal and invalid for the reason that said land has been cultivated, improved, in the possession of, under the control of, and occupied by said Jakob H. Hansen, continuously since the 8th day of November, 1912, who has since November 6, 1912, in good faith resided on and made his home thereon, under the bona fide belief that said land was embraced in his homestead entry, and under and by virtue of a valid prior claim thereto; and that said land was so enclosed, cultivated, improved, in the possession of, under the control of, and occupied by the said Jakob H. Hansen, to your own knowledge, at the time you made your homestead entry No. 021156; all of which will more fully appear from the application to contest and contest affidavit filed herein, and to which reference is hereby made.

You are, therefore, further notified that the said allegations will be taken by this office as having been confessed by you, and your said entry will be cancelled thereunder without your further right to be heard therein, either before this office or on appeal, if you fail to file in this office within twenty days after the FOURTH publication of this notice, specifically meeting and responding to these allegations of contest, or if you fail within that time to file in this office due proof that you have served a copy of your answer on the said contestant either in person, or by registered mail. If this service is made by the delivery of a copy of your answer to
