

Sincerity Clothes

Everything in Men's Wear
And Everything the Best.

EDWARDS & McLELLAN

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. John Parsons is visiting relatives in Dodson this week.

Mrs. Roy Lee left yesterday for Dodson where she will visit for some time with relatives.

The first meeting of the Malta Woman's club for this season will be held Saturday, October 2nd.

BUY Men's Clothing at a men's store. EDWARDS & McLELLAN

Found—Near the M. E. church a heavy sheepskin lined coat. Owner can have same by calling at this office.

John McAfee of the Minneapolis Paper company, was looking after business matters here Monday and Tuesday.

The first snow storm of the season struck this section last Friday but did not amount to very much, except to make the roads muddy.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Platt and children returned home Saturday afternoon after spending a few days with relatives and friends in Chinook and attending the Blaine county fair.

Ed. LaRue left Thursday evening for Eldora, Iowa, in response to a telegram stating that his sister had died at that place. Only a month ago Mr. LaRue returned to Malta from Bisbee, N. D., where he had been to the funeral of a sister-in-law.

The children of Miss Ada Mercer's Sunday school class gave her a handkerchief shower at her home in this city Friday afternoon after school. Miss Mercer left last evening for the old home of the Mercer family in Minnesota, where she will remain this winter.

H. L. Wolfe, formerly a resident of this city and now practicing law at Malta, was appointed County Attorney last week to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Denis McGrath. Mr. Wolfe's many friends here wish him the best of success in his new position.—Glasgow Courier

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Heffner at the Robertoyre hospital in this city Saturday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Fox left Sunday evening for Flaxville, Montana, where Mr. Fox will be agent for the Great Northern railway.

For sale or trade for horses—One Imperial automobile in good condition. Call at dray office of Mercer & Sons, Malta. 2w22

Charles Whitcomb came down from Helena Monday evening and left Tuesday morning for Zortman to look after his mining interests in the Little Rockies.

Reports from Zortman state that Jim Dozark got the decision in a six round bout that was pulled off in the hills one night the first of the week. His opponent was Jimmy Mullins of Seattle.

Druggist Qually, who has been with the Rexall store in this city for some time past, has gone to Havre to assume a like position in the Murray-Ackerman drug store in that city during the absence of Seth Dibble. Miss Rolive Crabb is the new clerk at the Rexall store in this city.

A number of the members of the local Masonic lodge went to Dodson last Thursday to assist in giving the third degree to a class at that place, County Assessor Lee being among the victims. After the lodge meeting the visiting brothers were entertained with a banquet at the new Pioneer hotel.

Frank Schempp of Cowan, who has the contract of cutting down the big hill north of town so that Lovejoy and Langdon people can more easily get up on the North Bench with heavy loads, is doing some excellent work and when completed the grade will be lowered a great deal and will be of untold benefit to the many Phillips county residents of the north country. Mr. Schempp was awarded the contract for the work by the county commissioners and is making good progress with the work and before snow flies will have finished one of the best stretches of road in that part of the county. This hill has always been a hardship to people of that section and with the lowering of the grade there several hours can be saved by people coming to town from that direction.

Buy your crockery at the Variety.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Secrest and little son are in from the Missouri river country visiting friends this week.

Mrs. Alice Gorton left last week for Portal, N. D., where she will teach school the coming fall and winter.

M. Montgomery left for Chinook Monday morning after spending a few days looking after business matters in Malta.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hicks are the proud parents of a little girl that came to brighten their home Tuesday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Barnes are the parents of a baby girl that was born at the Ebaugh hospital in this city Tuesday of this week.

William Culbert has moved with his family from the Casady dwelling to the McCoy house in south Malta recently vacated by the A. J. Broderick family.

John Shady was quite ill at his home in this city the first of the week but was able to be out again yesterday. The only way to keep John in bed is to hog tie him and rope him down.

Luke Deniff came in from Landusky yesterday and after spending a few hours looking after business matters here returned to the mountains this morning, accompanied by his sister, who arrived Tuesday from Washington.

Charles Hayden returned the last of the week from Grand Forks where he had been to attend the funeral of his sister. Mr. Hayden has made several trips to Grand Forks this year during the illness of his sister and had only reached home when he received summons to the funeral.

If you want to get the latest in sheet music call at the Variety Store.

The Rundle Land & Loan company has let the contract for a new $75,000 three-story building to be erected in Glasgow. The building will be constructed of concrete and brick and will be built by the Northwestern Mill & Construction company under the direction of G. W. Bell of Glasgow.

John Airhart, one of the prosperous Wagner farmers, was attending to business in the county seat yesterday. Mr. Airhart had a splendid yield of grain on his farm this year but had it all threshed before the collectors for the state fair exhibit arrived at his place, so he could not send any to Helena.

Charles Wolfe was quite successful with his string of horses at the Valley County Fair at Glasgow and won a number of the big races. He shipped the bunch to Chinook and after taking in the Blaine and Hill county fairs will wind up the racing season at the big Montana fair at Helena. George, the young son of Mr. Wolfe, is making a record for himself as a jockey and has ridden in every race the horses were entered in this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie C. Johnson of Wagner, were Malta visitors yesterday.

County Attorney Wolfe was visiting friends in Glasgow over Sunday.

Sheriff Shaw was at Saco Tuesday and Wednesday on business matters connected with his office.

The state of South Carolina voted state wide prohibition by an overwhelming majority Tuesday.

Rev. and Mrs. Carl Perrin visited friends at Dodson yesterday returning home on the afternoon train.

Mrs. Don Q. Rathbone and son of Dillon, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Chambers, this week.

Another light shower of rain last evening helped to keep the roads muddy and prevent threshing for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Layton and daughter, Miss Seattle Lateyon, came in from Zortman in the J. Sausman livery car last evening.

G. E. Howe of Wagner, has posters out announcing a large auction sale that will be held at his place north of Wagner Saturday of this week.

Dr. J. W. Richardson is spending a week in this vicinity but will leave the last of the week for other parts of the state on work connected with his office.

Mrs. G. W. Kraam gave a party one day last week for her little niece who is visiting at her home in this city. The little folks had a most enjoyable time.

Miss Elizabeth Dozark arrived in Malta last week and will leave soon for Zortman to visit her brother, James Dozark, whom she has not seen for a number of years.

Deputy Sheriff Riley Brooks came in from Zortman yesterday on professional business. Mr. Brooks states there was about a foot of snow on the mountains when he left yesterday morning.

The temporary wooden structure that was used to support the city fire bell before it was placed on the city hall, was taken down this week by Commissioner Vert. It formerly stood on the lot next to the office of B. W. Brockway.

The Hill county fair at Havre was postponed a couple of days the first of the week on account of rain. The Blaine county fair at Chinook was greatly interfered with on account of rain last week and the last day of the fair was held over until Sunday.

Street Commissioner Vert has been busy the past week marking the poor boards in the wooden sidewalks in the residence part of the city. Bad or broken boards are marked with a cross in blue chalk by Mr. Vert and it is then up to the owner of the walk to have same repaired or if it is not done the work is done at the city's expense and the labor charged up to the property owner.

Everything in Quality
Hardware.

Edwards & McLellan.

Satisfying Sweets

To thoroughly enjoy candy you must feel that it is pure and wholesome. It is not only necessary that it be made from the best materials and under sanitary conditions, but it must also be kept free from contamination while in stock. We sell and specialties. In boxes and in bulk. Our candies are pure, they are clean and they are delicious.

JOHNSON'S BON BONS, CHOCOLATES

Just the kind that will please your wife or sweetheart. Of course, the children like candy too.

MALTA DRUG STORE

"THE REXALL STORE."

J. F. MURRAY, Prop.

James C. Trine of Moccasin, Mont., was a business visitor in Malta the first of the week.

A great many of our townspeople are planning on attending the state fair at Helena next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Wait have moved in from the mountains for the winter and will occupy the Fred Tanner house in the southwest part of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Blumenthal returned Wednesday from Glacier National park where they spent five days taking in the sights at this great national playground.

What is left of the Jay Brown stock of ladies' furnishings will be placed on sale again in the Cavanaugh building on Fifth avenue October 1st, and will be closed out in a rush regardless of cost. This will be a fine chance for anyone in need of anything in this stock to secure some good bargains as this is the last time it will be put on sale and it must be disposed of at this time.

Shoe repairing done more quickly than you think possible—and better.—B. H. Knke.

The ladies of the M. E. church will meet at the home of Mrs. Robert McLain September 23rd.

The auxiliary of the Eastern Star will meet with Mrs. Hanson Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

E. F. Hyatt leaves the last of the week to attend the Montana State Fair at Helena. He will also spend a few days at Alhambra Springs during his absence.

Mrs. Ed. Powell of Dodson, was a guest of her friend Mrs. Mary Jones a few days the first of the week. Mr. Powell was down Monday and took in a day's shooting at Lake Bowdoin.

O. R. Hees of the government survey crew, was in Malta this week looking for a couple of men and took Raymond McCreary and another young man out to the camp with him to help finish the season's work.

For a short time a big reduction on the prices of jugs at the Variety

Good Grocery Service

We make our everyday performance tell the kind of service you get at this store. Our service pleases a host of patrons who know what good service is. If you are not buying your groceries of us, begin now. Let us show you what we can do for you.

OUR "Opportune Brand" Flour

is mighty good flour

It is milled from good hard wheat, absorbs water freely and makes more loaves to the sack. TRY IT ONCE AND YOU WILL USE IT ALWAYS.

Good Coffee

If you are not satisfied with your coffee try ours. We have four splendid blends at 30c, 35c, 40c and 45c per pound. Also see our line of

Dairy Brand

Coffee in 5 and 10 lb. pails at 30c per lb.

We sell HEINZ Baked Beans with Pork and Tomato Sauce in 3 sizes, 15c, 25c 30c per can.

Try a can of "Bloom's Bloom" Tomatoes, per can 10c

Heinz white pickling vinegar, per gallon 65c

When you want something in groceries extra fancy ask for "Fort Snelling" Brand

TRAFTON - DORR CO.

Try a bottle of Heinz Catsup at 25c per bottle.

Sells Everything in Merchandise

We sell Heinz Sweet and Sour Pickles in bulk.