UNITED BRETHREN CHURCH DEDICATION A SUCCESS

According to announcement the dedicatory services of the United Brethren church in Malta were held last Sunday. Elaborate plans had been made and were carried out in every particular. The day was ideal and the attendance at all the services was all that could be expected, both in numbers and in the fine spirit that was manifest on every hand. Several families drove in from the country, there were several from the other churches of the town, and many friends came to enjoy the blessings of the day and show their interest in the church. Mrs. Grace K. White of Cartwright, N. D., came about 250 miles especially for this dedication. Bishop H. H. Fout of Indianapolis, arrived Saturday in time to counsel with the pastor and trustees and plan for the final work, which was to mark the completion of a building enterprise that is an honor to God and a blessing to Malta and the community.

The day's services began with the Sunday school at 10 a. m. After the opening exercises the regular class work was taken up. All the

OFF TO WAR

Editor Dan B. McGovern Writes Interesting Account of the Start of G. G. From Glasgow.

In the Great Falls Tribune Monday evening was published the following story of the trip of "Our Boys" from Glasgow to Helena. We give it in full as follows:

En route with Company G. N. G. M. Glasgow to Helena, Sunday, June 27.—Valley and Phillips counties' unit of Montana's guardsmen left Glasgow Saturday about midnight for Fort Harrison in response to the call of the president for service in Mexico or along the border. The company is over 100 strong, and physically, morally and mentally will compare favorably with any body of men ever mobilized in the grandest country on earth.

Captain (Dr.) E. N. Layton is in command, and J. P. Stenbagen is first lieutenant. A second lieutenant is to be selected later. Glasgow contributed a majority of the company, and Saco is a close second. Malta has a large contingent, and Nashta is well represented.

The hours before the departure of the boys from Glasgow were given over to a remarkable demonstration by the citizens of that town. It was a spontaneous outpouring of affection, good cheer and Godspeed. Tears closely followed cheers, and there were sobs in voices that wished "good luck." The writer last night completely realized what Bret Harte meant when he spoke of "the great heart of the nation." The great heart of the nation was throbbing with sympathy and understanding with the boys at Glasgow last night, and one was made to feel that every person of the thousand that thronged the station grounds was with the soldier boys heart and soul, and that the good wishes and the hand-claps were not a show, but the sincerest manifestations of love, hope and encouragement from our own dear friends—the best people on earth.

The little town of Saco also turned out en masse, although the hour was about 1:30, to say good-bye to her boys and all the boys. Malta also had a crowd out to cheer the company on its way—at 2:30 in the morning. This company may never see any actual warfare; it may get no farther than Fort Harrison. In any event, some will doubtless return home soon. But whatever its destiny, and whether fate be kind or cruel, the hearts of the boys of Company G will ever glow with warmth at the remembrance of the moving kindness of the friends at home.

My God bless 'em, every one.

George Campbell, besides raising beans this summer on his ranch north of town, is whetting whiskers at the Cooper & Stine shop during "Shorty's" absence hustling votes.

Dr. Kromer, eye specialist of Helena, will again be at Malta July 12-13, at Great Northern hotel. If you need glasses come and see me. Broken lenses duplicated. Consultation free. At Saco July 14.

FIFTH AVENUE GROCER

senior and adult classes were assembled in one class and Dr. Brewbaker of Dayton, Ohio, gave them an address on the lessons of the quarter. By the time Sunday school closed the church began filling with worshippers, and a good every seat was taken for the morning service. At 11 o'clock the service began, the choir sang well, and the sermon by Bishop Fout was a masterpiece of eloquence and sublime interpretation of the scriptures. At the close of the sermon a statement was made regarding the finances. The total cost of the property, including the parsonage, was $6,300. Of this amount all had been paid except $2,250. Then followed a season of blessing and worship. The Ladies' Auxiliary pledged $700; the Sunday school $200. Then followed five pledges of $100 each. Some $50 pledges were made, several $25 and smaller amounts until the total pledges amounted to $1,750. The congregation sang the doxology and the benediction was pronounced. After the photographer took the picture of the congregation. They were led to the dining room in the church, where dinner was served by the ladies of the church.

At 2:30 the children gave an interesting program, at the close of which Mrs. F. W. Hall sang a beautiful solo, "Face to Face." Mrs. Paul R. Flint presided at the piano. The selection was rendered most beautifully, and was appreciated by all. Following the solo, Dr. Brewbaker gave a masterful address on "How to Build Up The Sunday School." Dr. Brewbaker is general secretary of Sunday school work in the United Brethren church and was formerly pastor of a large church in Pennsylvania which had a membership of about 2,000, and a Sunday school enrollment of 1,600.

The evening service at 8 o'clock, was begun with a selection by the choir. Dr. Brewbaker spoke again, after which a chain of prayers were offered. Bishop Fout then preached the evening sermon, after which he stated the amount of the morning pledges, and asked for the remaining $500. This amount was soon pledged and with hearts filled with gratitude, the house was formally dedicated to Almighty God.

The United Brethren church was organized in Malta one year ago last November, and has made substantial progress since its small beginning. The society has a beautiful property well located and worth at least $2,000. The Sunday school has an enrollment of 94, and the membership of the church is 68.

The congregation is earnest, consecrated, and faces the future with larger plans for the Kingdom of God.

The celebration in Malta this year promises to be one of the best ever put on in the city and a general invitation is extended to the people throughout the country to come to the county seat and enjoy the day. An excellent program has been prepared which is published in another column in this issue and everything done for the comfort of those who attend.

Last year Malta did not celebrate the National Birthday, but the efforts of the citizens will be doubled to make the day this year one long to be remembered. Make an effort to be in Malta the Fourth and enjoy the day.
