From Saturday's Daily. BORN—At Phoenix, A. T., December 23rd, to the wife of J. H. McNeil a daughter.

Mr. Marlow, of Tip Top, has fitted up a handsome little meat market next door to the Miner's Home, which he will occupy soon in dispensing meats to the carnivorous.

Jim McNeil went down street this morning like a man that weighs a ton, and without stopping to explain his unusual carriage explained it by saying in a very fatherly way: "It's a girl."

We offer our friends out at Mr. Wm. Isaac's the excuse of unavoidable detention last evening from enjoying the pleasure of the Christmas tree with them. We understand that it was a most enjoyable affair.

Prof. Fraumb's favored us today with a few figures from his report of the school term, which we give below:

White No. of boys enrolled... 109
White No. of girls enrolled... 117
Total No. of pupils enrolled... 226
Total No. of days attendance... 9379

One of the finest pieces of carpentry that we have seen of late is the new counter put in today at Peter Brix's saloon by Mr. Byers. It is the natural woods simply oiled and varnished, and the workmanship is perfect. There is nothing in town to compare with it at present.

These cold nights bring the old bachelors to their senses.

Buy your holiday goods at Paul Ruben's; the best assorted stock in town at reasonable figures.

The handsome bar-keeper in town, R. Butler, has succumbed to the arrows of love and was married in Prescott, last Friday, to Miss Swilling, of this place.

The turkey shoot at the Capitol Hotel was attended by lovers of the sight and trigger. Quite a number of turkeys disposed of. The boys proved such good shots that turkeys were captured at low rate.

No matter how advanced in life, Good teeth in either man or wife, Or maid, are a rich prize; And those who would the gift preserve, From SOZODONT won't swerve, Should try it all by wiso.

A very pleasant Christmas party was given last night at the residence of Mr. John Lutgerding, three miles west of Phoenix. Messrs. Joe Moulton and Louis Gazelle furnished excellent dance music for the occasion. A supper was elegantly served at twelve o'clock to twenty-six merry couples, who, refreshed thereby, joyously danced away the remaining hours of the night. For genuine hospitality and sociability commend us to the kind people of this neighborhood.

The friends and acquaintances of Stephen Z. Pierce will regret to learn of his demise which occurred on last evening. He was an old and honored Mason and will be buried by them this afternoon. He was suddenly taken with hemorrhage of the lungs when on the street near his residence, last night about 10:15 o'clock and in a few moments was dead, even before he could reach his door. He will be recognized by many as the Tyler of the Masonic lodge and janitor for the Old Fellows and Hangers of Pythias.

Capt. Hancock and his estimable lady entertained a few friends on Christmas afternoon, among whom the humble scribe of the HERALD was pleased to be numbered. The gustatory portion of the service was made exceedingly interesting by the presence of an unusually large and well prepared turkey and the nameless and numberless etceteras that accompanied the bird on his Christmas tour. The Captain and his wife are pleasant and generous entertainers.

Christmastide has been a jolly time among the Phoenixians. Numerous dinners are reported about town, at least two weddings have been reported and the 'ay wound up by the ball given by the Ladies' Social Club. The ladies have made the success of the season on the occasion. The number present was as large as the hall would accommodate for pleasant dancing, the music was good, the floor smooth, and everybody in the best of humor with him-elf or herself and the world generally, and the supper at Ganz's was first-class as that host knows how to prepare for such an occasion. The ladies have great credit from those entertained for their skillful and careful preparation for the occasion. It is to be hoped that last night's entertainment will not be the last under the auspices of the Ladies' Club.

ation at this place under the auspices of the Baptist Home Mission Society I have a commission and salary from them. My place is to organize a regular Baptist interest here, whether by church organizations or simply as a mission, to result sooner or later in a regular Baptist church. By your courtesy I wish through your columns to earnestly ask truly Christian people who feel an interest in such a movement to give us their hearty co-operation. The needs of the work will be, by the help of the Master, met as they arise. The services are to be held twice each Sunday for the present at the Presbyterian Chapel. The regular weekly prayer meeting is held every Wednesday night at my residence.

Close of the Public School.

The public schools closed yesterday for the holiday vacation. In the afternoon at two o'clock the entire school assembled in the grammar department, where the following interesting program was rendered by the pupils in a manner that indicated careful and efficient training in their school work:

PROGRAM. Greeting Song—By the school. Recitation—"Love lightens labor," Lora Robinson. Recitation—"True Source of Contentment," Ella Rumburg. Composition—"Love," Parkie S. Frambes. Vacation Song—By the school. Declamation—"El Pirato," Jesus Urquijo. Declamation—"A Lay of Real Life," Lindley Orme. Recitation—"My Mother," Annie Brawly. Recitation—"Let Everyone Sweep before his Own Door," Lizzie Rumburg. Declamation—"Betie and the Bear," Cassie P. rter. Dialogue—By a class. Chorus—"By the school. Declamation—"Away from the Wine Cup," Nellie Christy. Declamation—"The Teacher's Dream," Brookie Gregory. Song and Chorus—"Under the Willow."

Recitation—"Papa's Letter," Nannie Christy. Declamation—"The Little Hero," Lewis W. Collins. Declamation—"Life's Battle," Laurence Lemon. Music—Instrumental. Declamation—"An Order for a Picture," Laura E. Coals. Declamation—"The Office-seeker's Platform," Henry Fowler. Solo and Chorus—"The Beautiful Hills."

Declamation—"The Polish Boy," Theo. M. Lemons. Anniversary song. The exercises were then closed by a few remarks from Judge Lemon, congratulating the pupils on their advancement and success in study. The exercises were exceptionally good and we should be pleased to mention individuals did it not appear invidious where all acquitted themselves so nicely.

The parents, teachers and pupils are to be congratulated on the success of the past term of the school. About 225 pupils have been enrolled during the term, and the work on the teachers has been heavy. In this connection we regret to learn that Prof. and Mrs. Frambes have resigned their positions. No greater calamity can befall a school than to be harassed in its progress by a frequent change of teachers. We predict that if the Professor and his lady cannot be induced to remain that the year's work is lost. No new set of teachers can enter these schools and do more than get acquainted with the school and ready to do good work within one term of three months.
