Whereas, it has come to our knowledge that our superintendent, Brother Howard Harris, who has served us so faithfully for the past nine years as superintendent of Allen Chapel Sunday School, has now severed his relationship with us as superintendent, in order that he may enter into larger fields of usefulness in preaching the Word of God and in helping to uplift fallen humanity.

Therefore, Be it resolved that the teachers and officers entertain the highest esteem for Brother Harris, who by his upright life and Godly conversation has proven to the Sunday school and the community that he was the right man in the right place; and while we regret that we are to lose him as our superintendent, we feel that Allen Chapel's loss is Salina, Kan., gain, in securing the services of such a worthy Christian gentleman. We feel that we voice the sentiment of the entire Sunday school when we say we are sorry to give Brother Harris up, but as he leaves us this week for his new field of labor, we pray God's blessings upon him and hope that success may crown his efforts abundantly, in bringing many souls to Christ. We commend him in the highest to the church and Sunday school of Salina, Kansas.

Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be published in the Rising Son and a copy be given to Brother Harris.

Mrs. Mollie Fowler who has been quite ill is now improving.

Mrs. A. B. Johnson was very sick Sunday.

Mrs. Rosa Lee subscribed for the Rising Son, also Mr. Jordan Hook and paid for it. We hope other young men will do likewise.

Electra Chapter No. 1 is expecting to give a grand reception soon.

Mrs. Catheran Reed was called to Iowa to see her sick daughter.

Mr. Mat Nolan departed this life on the 24th and was buried on the 25th. He was a Christian young man, a lover of the church. He leaves a father and mother and a number of sisters and brothers to mourn his loss. We extend our heartfelt sympathy to the family.

Reverend Barshdale preached three intellectual sermons at A. M. E. church last Sunday, and on Monday night. He is without doubt one of the ablest preachers that we have among us. We think that a man of his ability ought to be sustained by us. We do need more such men as him to proclaim the gospel of Christ. Come again, Brother Barshdale.

The colored people of this city are invited to set a day to make arrangements to fix up their graveyard, which of late has been much neglected. I think it is our solemn duty to do so. We should show our respect for our dead. Horses and cattle are running over the graves and weeds are growing all over the cemetery. Some young men of this city are willing, not only to improve the cemetery, but also spend some money for this grand cause.

Malta Thickly Populated.
Malta is the most thickly populated island in the world. It has 1,360 people to the square mile. Barbadoes has 1,054 people to the square mile.

Will Accelerate Fire-Fighting.
A telescope ladder capable of being extended to a length of 85 feet and worked by means of compressed air was tested recently in Pittsburg. The ladder can be directed at a particular window in a burning building; a fireman lashed to the end of the ladder is shot up with it, and rescued persons need not clamber down, but the ladder can be quickly lowered with them on it.

A Nugget of Philosophy.
It seems to be one of the easiest things on earth to mortgage a piece of land and spend the money in gwise to do circus an' eatin' fried chickens, an' I reckon dis world would come powerful near bein' heaven if de interest on dat mortgage didn't suddenly fall due an' bump a man all over to once an' make him realize dat dis an a vale of tears.

A Mixed-Up Engineer.
A Missouri Pacific engineer of Sedalia reports that the record of his birth is lost, and he is in doubt about his age. Then, too, he has "made up" so much time on his trips between St. Louis and Kansas City that he is probably a year or two ahead of Father Time anyway, and he's all mixed up about it.—Kansas City Star.

Prelate's Witty Remark.
Many anecdotes are going the rounds about the new Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Davidson. Once, as a party of clergy were streaming in to dinner one of the company plausibly exclaimed, "Now, put a bridge upon our appetites." Dr. Davidson replied with swift retort, "Now, to put a bit between my teeth."

Southerners Invite Roosevelt.
President Roosevelt has been invited to attend the unveiling of the monument to be erected at Orchard Knob, on the Chickamauga battlefield, in commemoration of the services of Maryland's soldiers, union and confederate, in the civil war. The unveiling will take place on July 22.

Plants Under the Ban.
The Pennsylvania House of Representatives has before it a bill providing that the war of extermination already waged against the Canada thistle shall be extended to include golden rod, ox-eyed daisies, milkweed, wild carrots and sorrel, all of which are considered pestiferous plants.

Tin Soldiers and Others.
Kruiger's grandson screamed with rage and threw his box of tin soldiers into the street when he discovered that they were English, whereas his grandfather had a fit when he found out that the English soldiers were not tin.—Toronto (Ontario) Mail and Empire.

How to Kill Weeds.
A number of tests made by the Vermont experiment station found that arsenite of soda and the arsenite-soda mixtures are very satisfactory for killing weeds along walks and drives. These can be kept perfectly free of weeds by the use of these mixtures.

Public-Spirited Ohio Citizen.
Benjamin Waddell, a wealthy and public-spirited farmer of Marion county, Ohio, who some time since gave a $50,000 home for children to the town of Marion, is about to expend at least $60,000 in building a home for old ladies in the same time.

Marion Crawford Writes a Play.
F. Marion Crawford has turned aside from novel writing temporarily to write a play, which will be produced next season in London by the English actor, Martin Harvey. The subject of the play is modern.

Helping Out Nature.
A valuable owl in the Central Park menagerie, New York, has for some unknown reason lost all its feathers. It will be supplied with "trousers" and coverings for the claws to protect it from the cold.

Quorum in House of Lords.
There can be no quorum of the House of Lords without the presence of an archbishop, two peers and a prelate being needed to constitute a House of Lords for the transaction of business.

South Carolina's Tobacco Industry.
The growth of the tobacco industry in South Carolina has been phenomenal. The Darlington market alone reports sales of more than 7,000,000 pounds of the 1902 crop.
