The McClellan Meeting.

The great McClellan meeting in New York came off on the 10th. In numbers and enthusiasm it probably equalled the expectations of its managers.

Sheridan's Victory.

The war news of Monday indicate that Gen. Sheridan had come up with Early, completely outmaneuvered him and driven him through Winchester.

HON. PORTUS BAXTER.

The St. Albans Messenger writes that Hon. Portus Baxter's health is nearly broken down by his labors for the sick and wounded at Washington.

Operations against Mobile.

For a long time Mobile and Wilmington have been the only two cities on the Confederate coast which have not been at least threatened by the Union forces.

MAJOR REYNOLDS.

Adj. Peck of the 17th Vermont confirms the report of the death of Major Reynolds and says: "Major Reynolds died gallantly. He only fell because he disclaimed to leave."

The New Orleans correspondent.

The Boston Journal writes that Major Porter of Vermont, Provost Marshal of New Orleans, is to be married to a beautiful young Creole named Nina Fremont.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

OUR MESSING HOUSE.—Who does not see better days? Who does not wish it may see better days, and that right speedily?

FRID.—About four o'clock on Thursday morning fire broke out in the church of the Congregational Society in Bennington.

SABBATH SCHOOL MEETING.—There is to be a Sabbath school meeting in the Baptist church at Factory Point on Wednesday afternoon and evening.

LONDONERRY ALL RIGHT.—We mentioned last week that Mrs. Davenport had been rudely repulsed, &c., at a place in Londonerry, while engaged in her work for the Sanitary Commission.

Sheridan's Victory.—The war news of Monday indicate that Gen. Sheridan had come up with Early, completely outmaneuvered him and driven him through Winchester.

MARRIAGE "JUMPER."—Benjamin F. Richardson, a cross-eyed, half-witted, lank, calverous lion of a countryman from "Vermont," drifted into our office yesterday in a singular state of perturbation and bewilderment.

HON. PORTUS BAXTER.—The St. Albans Messenger writes that Hon. Portus Baxter's health is nearly broken down by his labors for the sick and wounded at Washington.

COMMENDABLE PATRIOTISM.—In the discharge of our professional duties we have frequent opportunities to notice the constant and unwearied attentions, the sacrifice of convenience and comfort, and the daily contribution of private funds in the alleviation of human woe as it exists in our hospitals.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—PREPARING TO call of the County Committee the democracy of Bennington County assembled in convention at Arlington on the 10th inst.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Six refugees and twenty-one deserters from the rebel army around here to-day, from City Point. The former left Richmond by stealth, on Thursday night, and came into our lines.

NEW YORK, August 14.—The Herald's Harper's Ferry correspondent of the 13th says: Gen. Sheridan advanced by way of Charlestown and Berryville to Winchester.

THE ST. JOSEPH (Mo.) Herald relates that on a recent Sabbath a party of militia visited a church near Albany, in Gentry County, to obtain horses with which to enter the service under the call of Gen. Fish.

THE LONDON correspondent of the Tribune says that Lady Franklin, wife of Sir John Franklin of Arctic Expedition fame, recently gave a grand dinner to the Southerners in that metropolis, and to many sympathizing Britons.

IT IS WELL KNOWN that the New York Evening Post has assumed a tone of decided hostility to the Administration, since its publisher was arrested and indicted for defrauding the Government in the important and responsible office which he had received at its hands.

THE LAST NUMBER of the Petersburg (Va.) Register has but one merchant's advertisement, and he desires to sell out.

THE SANITARY COMMISSION.—

What is it? A great body of men, long experienced in administration, with hospital knowledge, and army knowledge, and familiarity with the business of transportation, with an imposing suite of offices and array of clerks? Nothing of the kind.

THE DESOLATIONS OF WAR.

A correspondent of the Nashville Union, who has explored the region passed over by Sherman's army says: "From Chattanooga to Marietta there is presented to the eye one vast sheet of misery. The fugitives from ruined villages or deserted fields seek shelter in the mountains. Cities sacked, towns burnt, population decimated, are so many evidences of the fearful guilt that rests upon the chiefs of this most wicked and senseless rebellion."

REBEL AND FEDERAL CURRENCY.—Gold fluctuates in the neighborhood of 260. Two hundred and sixty dollars in greenbacks will purchase one hundred dollars in gold. In Richmond the Rebels will give twenty dollars of their notes for one of ours. At that rate it would take $5,200 of Rebel rags to purchase one hundred dollars in gold. Thus, measured by the standard of values, their dollar is worth about two cents.

AN ATLANTA correspondent says that some of our officers having inquired of a wounded rebel captain who had been taken prisoner, how long he thought Hood would be able to hold out against us, "Well," said he, in that dry manner which one is at a loss to determine whether it is intended in seriousness or as a stroke of wit, "I guess he has enough for about two more killings."

DEMOCRATIC DOCTRINE.—The Milwaukee News says: "If Grant wins a battle, it is in part a triumph over the fundamental law of the government. If Sherman conquers Atlanta, an essential portion of the Constitution is thereafter dead.—If our soldiers win a victory, its glory is lost in the consciousness that a portion of its fruit is a marred and battered Constitution."
