

Nashville Union.

For Freedom and Nationality. S. C. MEYER, Editor.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCT. 7, 1862.

Alarm about the Slaves in Georgia.

The Macon Telegraph of the 30th of September, publishes the following communication in reference to the effect of the conscription law, on the slaves.

Exemptions—The Farmers.

EDITOR TELEGRAPH: Has Congress forgotten to provide any safeguards for the farming interest? Physicians, Druggists, Schoolmasters, Millers, Farmers, Salt-makers, have enjoyed their full share of the national bounty...

It may be thought by our Congressmen—most of them are from the cities—that negroes will work without oversight—that they can be controlled by the women and children...

The fears expressed in the above homespun letter, are just such as, it appears to us, would naturally be felt by all men whose minds were not blinded with a desperate frenzy...

We understand the telegram to assert that fifty-three regiments of Kentuckians are now incorporated in the Confederate service—Macon (Ga.) Telegraph.

AN ELECTIONEERING COLONEL BROTHER TO A SENE OF HIS DUTY.—A certain Western Colonel in Major-General Grant's army, took advantage of a sick furlough to canvass for a nomination to Congress.

Lawyers have a ludicrous habit of identifying themselves with their clients by speaking in the plural number.

A QUEER MOTIVE FOR MURDER.—Crime in England indulges in strange eccentricities. A ploughman named Gardner, was recently hung at Warwick for the murder of Sarah Kirby.

WESTERL.—The New York Evening Post tells a large story of the freaks of lightning in France. A young girl was struck by lightning and changed to a boy.

LEFT HANDED COMPLIMENT.—When Mr. Whitfield finished his live house oration on Kay's Lord Palustration replied that the honorable gentleman's speech was highly creditable to his physical powers.

friends—friends who profess loyalty, and smile, and smile, and yet are not to be trusted—spurns you indignantly from her soil. You are retreating ignominiously.

Washington's Political Maxims.

IMPORTANCE OF THE FEDERAL UNION.

It is only in our united character as an Empire that our independence is acknowledged, that our power can be regarded, and our credit supported, among foreign nations.

But as it is easy to foresee that, from different causes, and from different quarters, much pains will be taken, many artifices employed, to weaken in your minds the conviction of this truth.

From Washington. (Continued from the 6th.) The campaign on the Upper Potomac code with the escape of the Confederate army to the Virginia side.

THE SITUATION OF THE UPPER POTOMAC.—The last appearance of the enemy on this side of the river was a force of cavalry, one regiment of infantry, and seven pieces of artillery.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

Washington's Political Maxims. It is only in our united character as an Empire that our independence is acknowledged, that our power can be regarded, and our credit supported, among foreign nations.

Washington's Political Maxims.

IMPORTANCE OF THE FEDERAL UNION.

It is only in our united character as an Empire that our independence is acknowledged, that our power can be regarded, and our credit supported, among foreign nations.

But as it is easy to foresee that, from different causes, and from different quarters, much pains will be taken, many artifices employed, to weaken in your minds the conviction of this truth.

From Washington. (Continued from the 6th.) The campaign on the Upper Potomac code with the escape of the Confederate army to the Virginia side.

THE SITUATION OF THE UPPER POTOMAC.—The last appearance of the enemy on this side of the river was a force of cavalry, one regiment of infantry, and seven pieces of artillery.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

Rebel Plans. The Grenada (Miss.) Appeal of the 29d of September contains the following article. We reprint it as much for its absurdities as for anything else.

Rebel Plans.

The Grenada (Miss.) Appeal of the 29d of September contains the following article. We reprint it as much for its absurdities as for anything else.

It is almost impossible to keep pace with the advancing movements of the various Confederate armies in the field, so rapid is their progress, so complicated the plans of our able Generals, and so astonishing the events daily attendant upon their operations.

But as it is easy to foresee that, from different causes, and from different quarters, much pains will be taken, many artifices employed, to weaken in your minds the conviction of this truth.

From Washington. (Continued from the 6th.) The campaign on the Upper Potomac code with the escape of the Confederate army to the Virginia side.

THE SITUATION OF THE UPPER POTOMAC.—The last appearance of the enemy on this side of the river was a force of cavalry, one regiment of infantry, and seven pieces of artillery.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

THE REBELS ARE SEIZING PRIVATE PROPERTY of all descriptions belonging to Union men, and have thus confiscated many horses, large quantities of grain, and provisions of all kinds.

Late Southern News.

Very Atrocious. In the rebel Congress on the 29th ult., Senator Squires, of Louisiana, offered a resolution declaring "Lincoln's emancipation proclamation a gross outrage on the rights of private property, and an invitation to atrocious, servile war; and that it should be held up to the execration of mankind, and counteracted by such severe retaliatory measures, as in the judgment of the President may be best calculated to secure its withdrawal or arrest its extension."

We observe that some Union newspapers have ridiculed the proclamation as a mere British ultimatum, an empty threat, which will fulfill nothing. It would appear, however, from the foregoing recital, that at least one Confederate Senator looks on it with serious apprehension, as a measure which anticipated evils call for retaliatory measures severe enough to secure its withdrawal or arrest its extension.

The question whether Sam Houston is dead or alive is agitating the press both of the United States and the Confederate States. He is alive and comparatively well, residing at his place on Cedar Point, a few miles from this city.

The sympathizing organs have all been copying an article from a Richmond paper stating that near ten thousand Federal troops were cut to pieces by Jackson, while crossing the Potomac at Shepherdstown. The Richmond Dispatch of September 26th, says: "The victory of Saturday last, though complete and decisive, has been somewhat exaggerated. The numbers of the enemy who crossed the river were not so large as have been reported, and perhaps not exceeding three thousand men."

The ex-courier of Gen. Morgan into Kentucky six weeks ago is regarded only as a recalcitrant and feeble, and it will be recollected that as soon as that wary officer had explored the way, and returned in safety and triumph, General Kirby Smith's whole command, of which Morgan was a constituent part, advanced along the track he had explored.

STARVING IN NASHVILLE. So reads the telegram, and we are fearful that citizens of that place will have much suffering to endure before the Federal garrison is coerced by starvation into surrender.

CONFISCATION. The Confederate House of Representatives came last Saturday within two votes of confiscating itself. To have come so near it, and then missed was a dreadful pity.

It is believed that simultaneously with Bragg's attack upon Louisville, Kirby Smith with 40,000 men and a hundred cannon will attack Cincinnati, Covington and Newport.

A SOUTHERN TRAITOR. A correspondent of the Savannah Appeal writing from Beaufort, Maryland, September 14th, says that in the battle near Hagerstown, Captain Lane, son of Senator Joe. Lane, of Oregon, commanded one of the rebel batteries. This is very natural conduct for a son of old Joe Lane. His dear friends the editors of the Cincinnati Enquirer, and Messrs. Vallandigham and Conches would like very much to help him. "Well it is a long time that has no turn," and we think that Lane will turn upon the gallows.

THE PETERSBURG (VA.) EXPRESS says that there are at least 25,000 Yankees at Suffolk, Va., and 10,000 at Windsor Station, eleven miles from Suffolk. It thinks that their plan is to march on Richmond via Petersburg, which they can do unless speedily prevented.

CONFEDERATE REVENUE BILL. The Macon Telegraph says that the House has a bill before it, reported from the Committee of Ways and Means levying an income tax of twenty per cent. next January, to be collected in April. It taxes all crops, incomes for business, and investments of all sorts, except Confederate Bonds, ONE FIFTH OF THE TOTAL AMOUNT!

DR. ROSSVALLY HUNG. The Richmond (Va.) Dispatch of the 27th September, says that Dr. Manius Louis Rossvally was hung at Mobile as a spy two weeks ago. We believe Dr. Rossvally formerly figured in this city.

WHAT A REBEL PAPER SAYS OF THE GREAT ITALIAN PATRIOT, GARIBOLDI. The last crusade of this adventurer has come to an inglorious end. Wounded and a prisoner, he will find few sympathizers except in the kindred North, which at one time was eager enough to have him at the head of a Federal Army. The South has seen enough of European revolutionists to understand that they are as selfish and as heartless as the devils when they seek to overthrow, and only intensify the sufferings of the people by fruitless efforts of a change which is unchangeable. We trust we have heard the last of Garibaldi!

A LEARNED PHYSICIAN. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place. He says: "My home is on the Cottage order, with six rooms. Every building on the place are frame, stone or brick chimneys, and have a stove in the place; and can say, without fear of contradiction, there is no better water in Georgia."

No, we suppose not; for a higher J. A. than his proprietor.

Commercial.

MONEY MATTERS. The money market continues dull, but prices are generally higher. The Treasury notes are in demand, and are selling at 100 per cent. The gold market is also active, and gold is selling at 150 per cent.

CURRENCY AND MARKETS. The money market continues dull, but prices are generally higher. The Treasury notes are in demand, and are selling at 100 per cent. The gold market is also active, and gold is selling at 150 per cent.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place.

NOTICE. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place.

NOTICE. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place.

NOTICE. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place.

NOTICE. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place.

NOTICE. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place.

NOTICE. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place.

NOTICE. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place.

NOTICE. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place.

NOTICE. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place.

NOTICE. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place.

NOTICE. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place.

NOTICE. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place.

NOTICE. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place.

NOTICE. A. J. SHERBORN, physician, advertises in the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph, that he wants to join the Confederate army, and would like to sell his place.

Cavalry Volunteers.

THE LAST CHANCE! A FEW MORE RECRUITS WANTED TO COMPLETE THE 1st Cavalry Regiment of the Confederate Army.

Absent Volunteers. JERRY BRADY, THOMAS DONAHUE, THOMAS DONAHUE, THOMAS DONAHUE.

House Servant Wanted. I WISH TO HIRE A HOUSE SERVANT, OR MAN, who is capable of doing all kinds of household work.

Horses for Sale! ONE BAY MARE, one-year-old single harness, a steady and lively driver.

Quartermasters' Certificates. PURCHASED BY CHAS. H. GREEN OFFICE, No. 38 Cherry St. (Up Stairs).

NOTICE! A Notice to be held at the office of the Town of Nashville, Tennessee, on the 10th day of October next.

GRIFFITH & PARSONS COMMISSION MERCHANTS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN

Groceries & Provisions, FAMILY GROCERIES, PLANTATION SUPPLIES, DRIED BEEF,

HAMS, BACON SIDES, SHOULDERS, COFFEES, SUGARS, TEAS,

Mustard, Spice, Pepper, Nutmegs, NAILS, BAGGING, ROPE, TWINE,

SOAPS, CANDLES, MACKEREL, Whitefish, Herrings,

BROOMS, BUCKETS, COARSE & FINE SALT, CIGARS, TOBACCO,

CANDIES, FRUITS, WINES, ROBACK BITTERS, Suttlers' Goods of all Kinds,

Call and See. GRIFFITH & PARSONS, No. 7 COLLEGE ST., NASHVILLE, TENN.

GROVER & BAKER'S SEWING MACHINES FOR SALE. MACHINE NEEDLES For Grover & Baker's, Wheeler & Wilson's and Howe's Machines.

Also, MACHINE OIL, And every thing pertaining to Sewing Machines. All kinds of MACHINES REPAIRED.

Dr. King's Dispensary FOR PRIVATE DISEASES. DR. KING, formerly of New York, is the best doctor in Nashville, Ky.