The admirable article headed "The Union," in this morning's paper, is from the pen of Mr. B. C. TRUMAN, correspondent of the Philadelphia Press.

Fort Donelson. We learn that there are over 15,000 Federal troops at Fort Donelson and more pouring in.

The Medical Officers of the army at Nashville are respectfully invited to attend the funeral of Surgeon WILLIAM HASSETT, at General Hospital No. 6, this morning, at 11 o'clock.

Godley's Ladies Book for October, Ledger, Mercury, Wilkes' Spirit, Clipper, Pilot, and Louisville, Cincinnati, and New York Dailies can be found at SINGERSON'S News Depot, under the Sewance House.

More Bridge Burning.—We learn that Stone's River Bridge on the Lebanon road was burned the other night. It is supposed to have been the work of rebel citizens in the neighborhood, to keep our forage trains from visiting that neighborhood.

SOUTHERN NEWS.

GREAT BATTLE AT CORINTH. Fight Lasting Three Days.

VAN DORN AFTER REPEATED SUCCESS FORCED TO RETREAT.

The Slaughter Unparalleled.

OUR ARMY NOW AT RIPLEY.

From the Knoxville Register, October 9th. [The despatches from the West, which we published in yesterday morning's issue, being imperfect, we republish them this morning, with what additions we have received since.]

Richmond, Oct. 5.—An official despatch from Gen. Van Dorn, dated Headquarters, near Corinth, Miss., Oct. 3d, P. M., says, "We have driven the enemy from every position. We are within three quarters of a mile of Corinth. The enemy is huddled together about town, on the extreme length, trying to hold the position."

So far all is glorious and our men behaved nobly. Our loss, I am afraid is heavy. It is nearly night. Lovell's and Price's troops have our thanks. A courier arrived to-day who says on the 4th our troops drove the enemy from and occupied their entrenchments, but were afterward forced to fall back from town.

Heavy cannonading was heard yesterday from points above here. The fight must have been most bloody. A courier is hourly expected from the scene of the conflict.

Gen. Ed. Price, an exchanged prisoner, son of Gen. Sterling Price, arrived today from Memphis. On the 1st, he reports the enemy about 40,000 strong, with seventy pieces of artillery, strongly posted at Corinth. They are fully posted as to our movements, and anticipated an attack from Van Dorn and Price. Sherman, at Memphis knows these exact whereabouts.

MOBILE, Oct. 7.—A special dispatch to the Advertiser and Register, dated Tupelo, 7th inst., at noon, says: The battle of Corinth was most bloody. Our forces gained repeated successes on Friday and Saturday, occupying the enemy's breastworks and also gaining the town.

The enemy held the field stubbornly on his left until reinforcements arrived, when, on Sunday, they fell upon Van Dorn with overwhelming forces, forcing us to relinquish our position and retreat. The fight continued almost unintermittently during Friday, Saturday, and Sunday.

The slaughter on both sides is described as unparalleled. One of our Generals writes that Maury's Division, composed of Ruffin's, Cabell's, Parham's, and perhaps Moore's Brigades, will not muster altogether more than one Brigade. Cabell's Brigade has lost more than four-fifths.

Gen. Martin, of the Fourth Brigade, chiefly Missisippians, was killed; also, Colonel Briggs of Texas, and Col. Wirt Adams of Mississippi. General Cabell was injured by a fall from his horse. Ten thousand fresh Federals from Bolivar harassed Maury's division, which was in advance in the retrograde movement.

DEATH OF GENERAL JAMES S. JACKSON.

The announcement of the fall of this gallant soldier will sicken thousands of hearts over the land. "Jim Jackson," as he was universally called by his acquaintances, was known almost everywhere, and he made friends wherever he was known. We knew him intimately for years, residing in the same village, and being not only his personal but political confidant, during several feverishly contested political campaigns, especially during the last memorable and excited Congressional canvass in Kentucky, when the Union question was the issue; and bear testimony that a more magnanimous, warm-hearted, lofty spirit never lived upon the earth. He had his faults—too impulsive and vehement at times perhaps—but then few forgiving, and quick but only to repair a wrong but to forgive one. He was full of vivacity and humor, and was the life of the social circle. He had far more than ordinary talents; was quick in his perception, and gifted with astonishing energy. He was as brave as a lion, and utterly insensible to fear. But we cannot at this hour, and with our present feelings, attempt to commemorate the shining traits and virtues of the dead. We have no heart, at present, for the mournful task. When the news came on Sunday evening that victory had gloriously crowned our arms at Perryville, and brought also the tidings that Jackson had captured the triumphant banner with his noble heart's blood, on that immortal field, our eyes were suffused with tears, and our lips quivered with emotion. As the fingers of victory swept the strings of our National harp in notes of triumph, they sounded a funeral strain that thrilled our hearts with sorrow. It was like that mournful melody which blends itself strangely with the sweetest music of the Father's harp. At the beginning of the rebellion, Jackson said to a brother officer, now in command in this city, that he would be willing to die if he could only get to lead one fine cavalry charge. He has done that as well as a patriot soldier's death. He has fallen "with his back to the field and his feet to the foe." Best rest in peace and in honor, oh noble and gallant heart.

And the year which we weep, though in silence it falls. Shall long keep thy memory green in our souls.

TENNESSEE BRANCH OF THE NATIONAL CLAIM AGENCY

CONDUCTED BY HARVEY, COLLINS & BRACE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

CHARLES H. GREEN, Agent, No. 38, Cherry Street, Nashville, Tenn.

THIS AGENCY possesses peculiar facilities for the successful prosecution and settlement of demands against the General Government of EVERY DESCRIPTION, its conductors having had several years' experience in the management of claims before Congress, the Court of Claims, and the Executive Departments at Washington, and being thoroughly acquainted and familiar with the laws and regulations governing their adjustment.

Particular attention will be given to cases arising out of the present war, including the accounts of States, Contractors, and Disbursing Officers of the War and Navy Departments, and for "Collecting, Drilling, and Organizing Volunteers," the reimbursement of which is authorized by an act of Congress, CLAIMS FOR INDEMNITY FOR PRIVATE PROPERTY TAKEN FOR PUBLIC USES, OR FOR DAMAGES TO SUCH PROPERTY, for Horses lost in the service, and the Military Pay, Pensions, and Bounty Land.

We give special attention to procuring Pensions, Bounties, &c., according to Solitudes who have been wounded, contracted ill, or the families of such as have died, or been killed while in the discharge of their line of duty as such during the present war.

Special care will also be given to claims which have been heretofore Rejected or Suspended by the Department or Inefficiently Managed. Prompt attention also given to the collection of Quartermaster's Receipts given for Property taken for the use of the Army, to arranging Accounts with and collecting Claims against the Quartermaster's Department.

All Claims placed in our hands receive our Prompt Personal Attention, thereby securing many which, in the hands of an Attorney at any distant point, frequently prove unobtainable.

Aside from this decided advantage, our daily intercourse with all the Departments enables us in many cases to obtain decisions much more speedily than where all communication and other necessary detail must be conducted through the mails.

To this end, we solicit you to forward to us any or all cases of such character you may from time to time have presented, and, as in our system, we will furnish you with all the necessary blanks, and, when required, instructions.

No charge made in any case unless successful. Address: CHARLES H. GREEN, No. 38 Cherry Street, Nashville, Tenn.

DR. COLEMAN'S PRIVATE DISPENSARY. THE attention of citizens, strangers, and others residing in Nashville, requiring medical aid, is respectfully called to this office, No. 31 Deaderick street, second floor, between Cherry and the Square.

Dr. COLEMAN is an old practitioner of medicine, his various educated experience and extensive success for many years past, in the treatment of various diseases, has induced him to devote his undivided attention to all diseases of this nature. Many cases of the most intricate character have happily yielded to his improved method of treatment.

Primary, Secondary, Tertiary and Hereditary Syphilis, Gonorrhoea, Gleet and all diseases of the genital and urinary organs, meet with no resistance to his remedies.

A female irregular and functional derangement of the womb, and all diseases arising from Gestation and ill managed parturition. Every case of Rheumatism, Dropsy, and all other diseases of the system, and most cases of Spasms, can be cured by a process nearly painless. If either of the latter cases is undertaken by Dr. Coleman, a cure is invariably obtained, as a careful examination always presents the secondary indication of success or failure by his improved method of operating. If either of the latter cases is undertaken by Dr. Coleman, a cure is invariably obtained, as a careful examination always presents the secondary indication of success or failure by his improved method of operating.

Persons either applying in person or by letter (describing cases) on the first symptoms of any acute specific disease, can be cured, in most cases, by the abortive method, in forty-eight hours. This method, however, requires prompt attention, and moderate charges, will govern him with his patients.

No mercury used in the treatment of venereal disease, as he believes in its most cases it produces a worse disease than that it is given to cure. Office hours from eight in the morning till nine in the evening. sep 18, '62-1y
