VICKSCURG, MISS., Aug. 9, 1865.

Dr. John Bull-Dear Sir: I am happy to state to you that I have used your veinable Ossiron Bitters with great benefit to myself, in general debitity and procuration of my system produced by the unhealthy and minamatic influence of the Mississeppi river around Vicksturg, having been with General Grant's army throughout its whole southern compagn. I confidently recommend its use to all persons who are exposed to unhealthy climates.

H. W. Fours,

Azent U. S. Sanitary Committee. Agent U. S. Sanitary Commission LOUISVELLE, Ky., Sept. 16, 1863.

On the 21d of July last, I submitted through an agent of mine, to the Medical Director of the Department of the Army of the Cumberland, a sample of my Ceuron Bitters, for inspection, and requested if, after analysis, he found it meritarious, to cancilon and approve its use among our soldiers.

The following is the Medical Lirector's reply, and also then. Rosecram' permission to ship 350 dosen at once, to Laven sold to soldiers.

June Bull. "I am satisfied that Codron Bitters will do no norm to any one if taken property and in modera-tion. I see no objection to Dr. Buil's being permit-ted to dispose or it to satiers.
