Arrivals of Passenger Trains. NASHVILLE & CHATTANOOGA—7:30 A. M.—4:00 P. M.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

For Circuit Judge. We are authorized to announce A. G. McDUGGAL as a candidate for Judge of the 12th Circuit.

Union street has, for many years, been considered the street of Nashville. It has had almost every kind of house on it.

It is understood, says the Southern Recorder, that the Banks of Georgia will advance eight millions of dollars, if so much should be required.

Reported Capture of a Confederate Spy.

The Washington telegraphic correspondent of the New York Times, dated December 4th, says:

A Confederate spy, who has been in the habit for a long time, as he himself acknowledges, of visiting our lines for the purpose of obtaining information for the Confederates.

Mr. B. SHEPARD is the agent for the sale of Haas & Fox's coal. His office is on College street, next door to M. & E. F. Cheatnam.

Wanted.

We wish to employ a clerk of mature age, well qualified, and of steady habits, to keep the Books of the Commercial Hotel.

Closing Out.

BELL & ANKERS, Wholesale Grocers, Nos. 13 and 15 Market street, have in their warehouse a large stock of the Brantley's, Wines, Whiskey of every brand.

Attention, you that have corns on your feet.

Attention, you that have corns on your feet, now is the time to be well and to have sound feet. So if you have corns go at once to Rains and Brown's, South side of the Square, Nashville, Tenn., and get the Japan Remedy.

"Government Notice."

We have this day been appointed agents of and for the Confederate States of America for the purchasing and packing Hogs and Cattle, in and for this and the Kentucky district and all of Kentucky.

For Rent for 1862.

An elegant store-room on Church street, next door from Vine, now occupied by Corzani as a Confectionary Store.

Important to Tax Payers.

Collector's Office. Nashville, Dec. 4th, 1861. Y. K. payers of the city of Nashville are notified that the tax for 1861 for the benefit of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad, has been levied by the Collector.

Corporation Tax payers who have thus far neglected to settle their taxes for the present year.

Call at the INSURANCE OFFICE of W. J. MARK, on College street, if you wish your property insured in old and reliable Southern Insurance Companies.

The Radicals of the North are jubilant at the prospect of the speedy abolition of slavery by the Lincoln Congress.

THE BEGINNING OF THE END.—Never were these words more appropriately used, than in reference to our important and full Washington dispatches, which show even on the first day of the session, the representatives eager to commence an attack upon the root of our national evils.

FOUND.

And in another article the same paper says: THE EXTINCTION OF SLAVERY.

Now indeed is the Old Dominion divided, and issue joined on the great question of this age. In the Convention in session in the rebel capital, a body hard at work destroying the liberties of the people, it has just been gravely decided that "Slavery is an effectual barrier to antagonism between capital and labor."

It is understood, says the Southern Recorder, that the Banks of Georgia will advance eight millions of dollars, if so much should be required.

The South Carolina Negroes Not Seditious About "Human Freedom."

[From the New York Journal of Commerce.] The newspapers have published most exaggerated accounts of the coming in of slaves at Port Royal.

FOR THE WAR!!

I AM BY AUTHORITY RAISING A REGIMENT For the War! It is to be hoped that the struggle will be short, but whether long or short, it is now evident that the people of the South will have to fight it through, or consent to become the obedient slaves of Northern despotism.

I will gladly accept the applications of such companies as are willing to devote themselves to the cause of our Confederacy until its independence is recognized. I will furnish good arms and all that the regulations allow.

Those desiring to join the Regiment will address me by letter or telegraph, or apply in person at the place JOHN C. HUGEL & SON, Aid to Gen. Pillow. dec9-3w
