ARE THE

LEADING GROCERS in CENTRAL KENTUCKY.

GLANCE at their handsomely equipped and well stocked store in the very heart of Lexington's throbbing commercial center, and an inquiry about prices will convince everybody that it is to their advantage to trade there.

Much has been said in the papers of late about THE BLACK MAN'S BURDEN.

They give him all he can carry for little money.
BEFORE you buy elsewhere remember that they never fail to carry a large stock of Fresh Fish, Chickens, and oysters in season. Their line of Canned Goods, Dried Fruits and Staple and Fancy Groceries, Cigars and Tobacco,

Is up-to-date and will be
SOLD FOR PRICES THAT TALK for themselves,

CASH will work wonders. They have a special price on the very best Coffee in the market. If you are a wise person looking for a store where you can buy everything in the grocery line at the most reasonable prices you should call.

Saturday, January 27, 1900.

George DePrad is not a Frenchman.
Elder Bowen of Millersburg was in the city last week.

James R. Page and Mary H. Harris were married by Magistrate Graves January 18.

Mrs. Hattie Byrd who died at Covington on this week was brought to this city for burial.

Mrs. A. W. Redd who has been in Covington for several weeks past has returned home.

Rev. W. L. Johnson of the Congregational Church is a wide-awake pastor and intellectually up-to-date.

It is reported that Mr. Henry Tandy has left the Methodist church and joined the Seventh Day Adventists.

Albert Brook and Flora Matthews and Daniel Williams and Lou Whalley secured licenses to marry last week.

F. C. Caldwell says some one stole his night-hawk mare from her stable in the rear of 26 Eddy street Saturday afternoon.

Susan Steele, aged 40, while peeling potatoes Thursday at her home, 167 Dewees street, fell from a chair to the floor dead.

The funeral of Mrs. Sallie Washington was conducted by Rev. S. P. Young at the residence of Mr. Lewis Shores, 121 Upper street, Tuesday.

West's Big Minstrel Jubilee of fifty people will be at the Opera House Tuesday, January 30. A spectacular feature will be the "Storming of San Juan Hill."

Mr. Elijah Chinn of Cincinnati was in Lexington Wednesday and Thursday on a visit to his father, Isaac Chinn, who is very sick at his home, 419 North Market street.

Miss Sarah J. Jones, the white lady barber, has moved from South Broadway to the Clarendon Hotel Building, as is attested by some neat cards she has had printed in the Standard's job department.

George Boatright and Will Lacey, just entering their teens, love nice, fat chickens. They are accused of raising some—from the roost of Charley Tyler. They are under bond to the Circuit Court.

Prof. J. E. Wood, the Danville educator, known to many in Lexington, is an aspirant or Delegate from the State-at-Large to the National Republican Convention at Philadelphia. He stumped Kentucky last fall.

Mrs. Ellen Daniel of 10 East Fifth street gave birth to a fine baby boy at 10 o'clock Thursday morning. The fact that the new-comer was a son, instead of daughter, was a glad surprise to the family and friends.

Mrs. Priscilla Walker has arrived home from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Sallee, at Detroit. Her son, Charlie Walker, who has been at school in the Michigan metropolis, previous to his illness, returned home with her. He has already improved.

Alex White, aged about 28, shot and wounded Dora Bradley, his mistress at Nicholasville Monday, and then blew out his own brains. He had been living with the woman peaceably for several years but of late became insanely jealous of other men. He died as the fool dieth.

Fred Shreve, 17, drove a hog worth over $4, belonging to his employer, James Simpson, to the city and sold it, pocketing the money. Stealing a hog worth $4, and over, is a penitentiary offense; under that amount is only petit larceny. The same applies to a calf over and under $20.

Minister W. F. Womack of the Constitution Street Christian Church requests all members in good standing to report their names for re-registration tomorrow.

—Rev. George W. Bolling of Elizabeth town will be in Lexington next Monday to assist Rev. S. P. Young in his revival services at the First Baptist Church on Dewees street.

Henry Davis has a wife who neglects to close a door, as many another careless woman does. He chastised her rather roughly and his mother-in-law, an appendage which every well-regulated family ought to have to prevent life becoming monotonous, had him arrested. "Now he is sorry that he spoke."

The meeting of the Married Ladies Social Club, which was postponed on account of the death of Mrs. Lizzie Young, sister of the President, has been set for Monday night, February 12, at the residence of Mrs. Priscilla Walker, 53 Campbell street. A full attendance is desired as the election of officers will be a part of the business.

Brutus Clay and George Gay will manage another Concert and Cakewalk at Ladies Hall on next Tuesday night, January 30. Masters Pius Perkins and the twins will again illustrate the poetry of motion to breathless spectators, and they won't be small taters either. Songs by West End Quartet and strains by East End String Band. Admission 10 cents. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Carwell.

Gill Gordon will manage a hop and cakewalk at Ladies Hall Monday night, January 29. Master Lovester Taylor will lead, and Dicer will be ready to walk against anyone. Music will be furnished by Casey's String Band and there will be fine refreshments. The Klondike girls will be there but they will not be as cold as that region. A handsome cake and two bottles of wine will be awarded; prizes can be seen in Straus' window. Admission 15 cents. Jerry Lewis will be ticket seller and James Gay floor manager.

Russell School, each grade separately, have been looking into the camera of a photographer this week. All these pictures should be preserved for future generations. It will be interesting to the child of forty or fifty years hence to tell of the time when grandpa and grandma attended Russell School. Prof. Russell, his corps of able assistants, and most of his pupils, may then be taking their last long sleep. Upon the back of each group should be written the date of taking and the name of each person.

Marshall Taylor, 15, black, and Tom Nichols, 14, white, have been arrested for taking lead and brass fixtures from the Lexington Plumbing Company and copper wire from Davidson's bicycle doctor shop Sunday. Monday night detectives arrested Ed Peyton and Lee Lewis for taking $35 worth of copper from the Kentucky Copper and Iron Works; also Ed Hall and Frank Johnson for taking brass fixtures from the old steam fire engine stored in the abandoned work house. These Negro boys must want to go to the Reform School. They may not find it such an attractive place as some may think.

Porter Jackson, farmer, says two ladies have lately come to him for coffins, confusing his name with that of Porter & Jackson, undertakers and livermen. Six years ago, when the firm first started in business, an old lady approached the young man on the street, saying "Allow me to congratulate you, my boy, on engaging so extensively in your new business." The individual name can not well be changed except by act of the Legislature, but the firm might be reversed to Jackson & Porter, especially since the resident member, although the junior, is so popular and energetic.

Elder Samuel Buckner of Bourbon county is probably the oldest Negro preacher in Kentucky, says the Paris News. He joined the Christian Church under Elder John Rogers who baptized him. He has heard Alexander Campbell, Barton Stone, and other noted ministers, who have preached at Cane Ridge Church in bygone days. Elder Buckner is between 80 and 90 years of age and is the father of 11 children. He still preaches when the weather is not too bad for him to fill an engagement. He was raised by Walker Buckner's grandfather. Elder Buckner says he never was in court but once and then as a witness.

Hurrah for the Pythians!

At a regular session of Blue Grass Lodge No. 11, Knights of Pythias, held Monday night January 15, a resolution was unanimously adopted giving the Standard all of the printing for the Lodge for a period of one year. The Standard returns thanks, and in this connection desires to state that it has a splendidly equipped job printing office, as well supplied with first-class material as any in Lexington. There is no reason why the other Lodges of the city should not emulate the action of Blue Grass Lodge. Build up your race enterprise. Our job patronage comes almost wholly from Negroes, or does not come at all. The more printing you bring to this office the better able we will be to defend your rights in the Standard, the organ of your race.

Maceo Club Entertained.

Miss Susie Leyton of Ohio street opened her home to the Maceo Club and its friends Friday evening of last week. The officers of this popular social organization of the younger set are W. W. Wallace, President; Henry Guthrie, Secretary; and Eddie Slaughter, Treasurer. Other members present were J. O. Showes, Will Merritt, Ben Richardson, Will and Rob Roland, Will Harden, Gaz and Sant Showes, Gar and Ed Jackson, Charley and Jake McCoy, Frank Williams, Hensley and L. Hill. Their girl guests were Susie and Ella Leyton, Ella J. Shoes, Sarah Bridges, Katie Carter, Sue E. Martin, Mattie Graham, Nettie Brooks, Nellie Wilson, Martha Carneal, Mary Sight and Mary Curd. Refreshments were served just before midnight.

Little Sparrow Lodge.

At the last regular meeting of the Little Sparrow Juvenile Lodge officers were elected to positions as follows:
Maiden Princess—Mary A. Tatman.
Financial Secretary—Ella J. Shoes.
Recording Secretary—Vinnie Hayes.
Treasurer—Emma Price.
Youthful Master—Shelton Tatman.
Chaplain—Ella White.
Marshals { Simmie Adams.
 { Frank Lindsay.
Supporters { Connie Harris.
 { Ernest Matthews.
Inside Doorkeeper—Dow Russell.
Outside Doorkeeper—Willie Fisher.
This useful organization is a branch of the powerful and popular United Brothers of Friendship and Sisters of the Mysterious Ten. It is beneficial to boys and girls and has a large and increasing membership. The regular meetings are held the fourth Monday in each month. The newly-elected officers will be installed at the February meeting.

LOVE IS BLIND

To all the faults of the loved one in everything but untidy or soiled linen. A dainty man draws the line on that—but not the clothes-line, for she lets us draw that. To look immaculately neat and presentable, and have your collar, cuff or shirt irrepreschable in color—or lack of color—and finish, bring it to

A Good Point About Our FOOTWEAR

If there is one thing above another for which Bassett's Shoe Store is known it is the reliability and worth of our footwear.
We have no room for shoddy shoes, together with cheap workmanship—the kind that always gives trouble to the purchaser.
Our footwear is more carefully made in every particular—the material is carefully selected—the making is carefully done—the designs are artistic and up-to-date.
This kind costs a little more in the beginning, but is much cheaper in the end. But our prices are reasonable and it always pays to inspect our goods and get our prices.

Men's Shoes

Of proper weight for cold-dry wearing. High grades makes—but not priced. $3 is enough to pay.

Women's Shoes

Seasonable sorts. Ours offer sure protection against cold sidewalks and the cold of the winds. Many styles, many kinds.—$1.50, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00.

Boys' Shoes

The kind that will stand all kinds of thumping and banging. Send in the boy himself; we'll serve him honestly as we would you. $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00.

Girls' Shoes

Neat, pretty, well-built, made for service and for good looks. They are easy to wear—and easier to buy. $1.50, $2.00, $2.50.

Other shoes

See ones for toddlers' toes—warm felt and cloth ones for older feet—are here in plenty. "Everything in footwear tells it all in brief."
