

GENTLEMEN!

Please keep the fact in mind that the Clothing House of I. Reinhardt, 704 Elm street, is recognized to-day as the most elegant and complete establishment of its class in the State.

To advertise bombastic absurdities, as to prices and quantities, is a mode of business totally foreign to the leading Clothing House of I. Reinhardt.

Our highest aim is to be standard in all things, to deal fairly and uprightly with our patrons, and to keep pace with the progress of style and fashion in the ratio in which the city of Dallas, as a growing city, has a right to expect of its live and wide-awake business men. We wish it once and for all to be understood by the public, whilst we sell our goods at very low prices, whilst we carry a stock of Clothing, Hats and Furnishing Goods to suit the taste and purse of all classes, larger than any of our competitors, we do it for our own advancement and profit, and not for the purpose of waging a relentless, cruel war against our neighbors.

"We love our neighbors as we love ourselves" (outside of the Clothing trade, for which we have worked hard, and achieved the success our labors deserve) and it is thus: When we try hard to merit the public's confidence by LOW PRICES, FAIR, SQUARE DEALING, and no humbug or blarney, but plain, honest facts, that we are not only advancing our own and the public's interest, but we attract first-class trade from afar, which, but for our efforts, would have found its way to other neighboring cities.

Please keep the fact also in mind, that we carry the largest and finest assortment of Gents' Furnishing Goods in Dallas, comprising elegant lines of Gents' Underwear, in Silk, Linen, Balbriggan and Cambric, White and Fancy Dress Shirts, of every style, and the most exquisite and latest styles of Neckwear. In fashionable Hats we are headquarters. If you will call and examine our goods and prices, rest fully assured you will endorse every word we publish.

In the line of Special Bargains, suited for the present warm season, we have the following goods, in every conceivable size and price:

White Vests, from $0.75 to $4.00
Black Alpaca Coats, from 1.25 to 8.00

Creole Linen Check Suits, Mohair Suits, and all the delightful Light Fabrics made up for Gentlemen's Summer Wear in Serges and Diagonals, at all prices.

I. REINHARDT,

"Grit and Energy Must Win."
The advertisement in to-day's issue of our enterprising clothier, I. Reinhardt, 704 Elm street, is well worth a close perusal, not only for its unique and happy style, but for the plain, honest facts Reinhardt states in his advertisement. We only wish that Dallas could support a hundred new business houses, who show the grit, tact and energy that Reinhardt, the clothier, shows; and our word for it, when you get to know Mr. Reinhardt, you will like him, and his force of polite clerks no less.

To all my old friends and patrons I wish to say that I can and will sell boots, shoes, gaiters, slippers, etc., as low as the lowest. Cheap for cash. I will be pleased to see all my friends, H. Page, 705 Elm street, Dallas, Texas. Boots and shoes made from measure and repairing done on short notice.

In order to close out our immense stock of jellies before the hot season comes on, we have positively marked them down to actual cost, at which we will continue to sell the coming week. Avail yourselves of the opportunity. LOEB & FREIBERG.

To Cure Drunkenness and Prevent Acquiring a Taste for Strong Drink.

use Hughes Bros' cider and champagne cider exclusively. Dipsomania is an acquired disease, and the unfortunate victim is then more to be pitied than blamed. To aid him, benefit the community at large, and cultivate a refined taste, we have recently contracted with one of the largest pomologists in the apple zone for his entire crop to be made into cider by a process peculiarly his own, and upon which he has obtained letters patent, to be shipped to us in large hermetically sealed casks. The cider made from the more acid varieties, such as the Siberian and Hughes' Crab, we bottle and brand Napoleonic Champagne Cider. After bottling it generates its own carbonic acid gas and is not only a palatable but healthful and nutritious beverage utterly free from any intoxicating effect whatever. Our goods are to be found in almost every first-class grocery house and saloon in the state; our cider and champagne cider being the pure juice of the apple and devoid of any intoxicating effect whatever. Merchants in local option towns find it to their interest to handle it. We will furthermore state for their benefit, that to sell our cider and champagne cider does not require any special license nor is there any revenue tax attached to its sale.

The Bull Dog Left.

The bull dog caught him by the seat of his pants, drawers, and all as the irate patrifamilias in high glee yelled, "stick to him, Tige," and away went the seat of the pants, but no so with the drawers, which the brute tugged at in vain but failed to tear. The dog held on with the characteristic of his breed, and as the young man tossed a kiss to his darling and glided over the high plank fence he carried the dog with him, to the consternation of the old man. He had on a pair of C. H. Clancey's double-seated drawers, and on learning it the old man went and bought a lot of them at Clancey's, No. 612 south Main street, besides a lot of shirts and underwear manufactured there at the very lowest prices.

Important Discovery.

An unusual ripple of excitement is occasionally observable on the waters of modern progress when the wonderful genius of a Franklin, Fulton or Edison rises to the surface and startles the civilized world with an immense discovery or invention. It is now discovered that for purity, healthfulness and popularity, Faulk's Celebrated Milwaukee Keg and Bottled Beer beats the world.

Downs & Thomas.

successors to J. W. Barton & Co., 722 Elm street, dealers in groceries and agricultural implements, are exclusive agents in Dallas for genuine Avery plows and extras, of which they keep a large stock at prices and terms to suit the times. They also keep a full line of family groceries, and ask their friends to call and examine their stock before purchasing elsewhere.

The Man Who Deserves Patronage.

One who can't see how to make a living but has a first-class stock of merchandise in a line, and he will be very grateful for the patronage of all those who wish value received for the money they spend. Such a man can be found at "Uncle Charlie's" cigar stand under the St. George.

We receive Pattern Hats and Bonnets daily as they appear in New York at Bauman's, 706 Elm street.

NOTICE.

On May 15th Mr. Leon Caperan and A. Bond & Co. will consolidate and move into the large and commodious store formerly occupied by Jose Mencer, 605 Elm street, where they propose, under the firm name of Caperan & Bond, to do a first-class grocery and liquor business. In the grocery line they propose keeping every thing ever heard of in a first-class grocery, and only of the best quality. The two concerns are well known to our citizens, and by their united efforts in one concern they will be able to offer to housekeepers and others, groceries and liquors of the best quality and at lowest rates.

We Mean Business.
