

THE DALLAS DAILY HERALD.

CONSOLIDATED WITH THE DALLAS DAILY COMMERCIAL.

DALLAS, TEXAS, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1883.—VOL. XXX. NO. 80.

ESTABLISHED 1848. PRICE FIVE CENTS.

SANGER BROTHERS.

1883. SPRING. 1883.

ADVANCE SHIPMENTS OF OUR SPRING STOCK!

And We Can Show Them This Week

New Styles in Gentlemen's Hats, Soft and Stiff.

Gentlemen's Neckwear, Fancy and Plain; Gentlemen's Half Hose, Plain and Striped; Gentlemen's Shirts, White and Colored.

NEW ARRIVALS OF

Cashmeres, in the New Shades; Embroidered Nun's Velling Suits, in Evening Shades; Summer Silks, in New Styles; Fancy Satins, Damasked Seersuckers and Dress Ginghams.

An Elegant Line of

LACE BED SETS, WHITE AND ECRU.

TABLE BLANKETING—SOMETHING NEW.

Full Lines of Embroideries, Torchon Laces, Hoop Skirts, Ladies' Underwear, Ladies' Neckwear and Children's Shirt Waists.

NEW CARPETS!

NEW STRAW MATTING!

NEW MEN'S SHOES! NEW LADIES' SHOES! NEW CHILDREN'S SHOES!

In addition to the few items mentioned above, we are daily receiving, both by express and freight, full assortments of goods in

Each and Every Department!

And in a few days we will be able to announce that our stock is thoroughly complete for the coming Spring.

BARGAIN SALES STILL CONTINUE NOTWITHSTANDING ARRIVAL OF SPRING GOODS.

1883. SPRING. 1883.

SANGER BROTHERS.

TINY TELEGRAMS.

Closed Books.
New York, Feb. 21.—The executive committee of the Western Union Telegraph company, has closed books for the transfer of capital stock until March 1st.

Resumed.
PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 21.—The stove works started work to-day with new men. The moulders have been on a strike since January 1st. This gives employment to a large number of men and boys.

Got in His Work.
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—Donald Smith, a fugitive buried in the potter's field, had swindled the dissenting ministers of the Friends' society, of Edinburg, and other organizations, out of $130,000.

Confessed.
CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., Feb. 21.—Fleming B. Lewis, hack driver, arrested for robbery of the mails on the 8th inst., has confessed and returned money amounting to $2,400, except $50, which he had spent.

Why They Failed.
CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—The assignee of the failed grocery firm of W. T. Allen & Co. roughly estimates the liabilities at $30,000, and the assets a like amount in stock and accounts. The failure is attributed to small capital and slow collections. There are also known to be some personal disagreements among the partners.

Not a Democratic Victory.
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 21.—The vote at the election yesterday was very light, nearly 70,000 less than the presidential election. John Thompson beats Cobb, the democratic and committee of One Hundred candidates, for police magistrate, by over 8,000 majority. The new select council stands: Republicans, 27; democrats, 5; doubtful, 2.

The Mississippi.
MEMPHIS, TENN., Feb. 21.—The river to-night is thirty-four feet three inches, and above the dam line. Many thousand sacks of corn reported ruined in New Madrid bend by the rising of the water, which has also flooded the sunken lands of the upper St. Francis river, and has caused suspension of the work on the line of the Kansas City, Springfield & Memphis railroad.

Destroyed by Fire.
CHARLESTON, S. C., Feb. 21.—The steamship Moro Castle, of the Clyde line, running between New York and Charleston, was totally destroyed by fire this morning. The officers and crew had barely time to escape with what clothing they happened to have on. The Moro Castle was to leave for New York to-day, and had received one-half of her cargo, consisting of cotton, naval stores, etc.

Total loss on the vessel is estimated at $300,000; on cargo, $70,000. Insurance unknown.

That Disaster.
NEW YORK, Feb. 21.—The coroner this morning selected a jury to investigate the cause of the fatal school disaster yesterday. Crowds to-day visited the place and discussed the terrible affair. Many are loud in their denunciations of clergymen in permitting the staircase, which they say has been in a frail condition for a long time past, to remain without being properly strengthened. Those injured will recover.

The bodies of the dead will be brought to the church of the Most Holy Redeemer to-morrow morning, when the funeral services will be conducted.

Examination of the records of the building department fails to show that a report on its condition had been made, from which it is inferred that the examination had been made and the place deemed to be in good condition. Inspection shows that the doors were only two and a half feet wide, and opened inward, facing on the end benches, so as to allow no passage-room, and with an aisle narrow and blocked with stoves, exits everywhere opened in the dark and narrow hallway.

The Situation at Louisville.
LOUISVILLE, Feb. 21.—Since daylight the river has been falling at the rate of an inch and a half per hour. Many houses that have been overflowed are beginning to show up, with liberal coatings of mud, both inside and out. The owners are busy cleaning them out, and in a week business on the river front will be resumed. The damage to the cut-off dam was estimated at $30,000 by the city engineer, to-day. Other public works, in the same locality, of less magnitude, will suffer comparative losses, while below the break in the dam, will have to be pumped out at the expense of the city before the houses can be replaced or cleaned up, while nine-tenths of the inhabitants have to completely refurnish their houses. Without unremitting attention from the charitable the most intense suffering will continue for a week.

Miscellaneous Foreign News.
NO TROUBLE TO CONVICT.
DUBLIN, Feb. 21.—Disclosures of the informers will enable the police to seize the persons connected with the crime. Joseph O'Brien, who pointed out the assassins, was closer to the murderers than Casey, and can give even more direct evidence at the trial.

AN UNITED STATES STEAMER LOST.
HONG KONG, Feb. 21.—The United States steamer Ashuelot has been lost. All the officers were saved, but eleven of the crew were drowned. The Ashuelot was an iron paddle vessel, carried six guns, and 780 tons burthen.

NO FURTHER CONCESSION.
LONDON, Feb. 21.—Debate on Gorst's amendment to the address in reply to the speech from the throne declaring that in view of the confusion of the Irish health laws, no further concession should be made to lawless agitation, was resumed in the commons to-day. Sir Herbert Maxwell, conservative, appealed to the Irish party to explain their attitude with regard to the Kilmainham disclosure.

THE NEW MINISTRY.
PARIS, Feb. 21.—The new cabinet is as follows: Ferry, prime minister and minister of public instruction; Challemeil Lacour, foreign affairs; Waldeck Rousseau, interior; Martin Fovelle, justice; Charles Brun, marine; Welme, agriculture; Harrison, commerce; Cochery, postal and telegraphs; Reynal, public works; Turard, finance; General Thebaudin, war.

DUBLIN DISC.
DUBLIN, Feb. 21.—Since Carey's disclosures many Irish-Americans and farmers it seems are leaving for America. E. Dwyer Grey, owner of the Freeman's Journal, is the chairman of the Irish health committee charged Carey with conspiracy. The first letter of condolence Miss Burke received after the murder of her brother was from James Carey. The Irish National league condemns the presence of carvers dropping police at meetings.

LAW-MAKING LEGION.

Senate: The Advisability of Submitting a Prohibitory Amendment Favorably Reported by the Committee.

House: Mr. Durant Arises to Another Question of Privilege, and Intimates Coming Vengeance.

The Stock in Western Texas Suffered Terribly—Bankruptcy of Beginners is Anticipated.

San Antonio: A Big Poker Game—He Lost Three of His Best Iron Horses.

Tyler: A Wreck on the International, but no Lives Lost.

Waco: He Got that Marriage License After All.

Galveston: The Doings of the Higher Courts.

Fort Worth: Daily Bulletin of Local Events.

Other Interesting Matter by Specials.

Knighteenth Legislature.

SENATE.

AUSTIN, Feb. 21.—[Special.]—Mr. Collins, from the committee on stock-raising, reported favorably the bill to protect stock-raisers and encourage stock-raising.

Mr. Pfeiffer, from the committee on finance, reported favorably the resolution of the capitol board asking an appropriation of $16,000 to protect the capitol building, with a bill providing for the item.

Favorably—The bill to fix and equalize the compensation of tax assessors.

The bill regarding fees of tax-collectors was reported back with a substitute.

Unfavorably—The bill to provide a clerk for the secretary of the board of education, Mr. Davis, from the committee on constitutional amendments, reported favorably respecting submitting to the people a prohibition amendment.

Mr. Harris, from the committee on judicial districts, reported favorably to reorganize the fifth judicial district.

Bills referred: By Mr. Patton—Providing for the sale or lease of railroads and regulating the same.

By Mr. Perry—To require railroads to allow passengers to travel on freight trains where two passenger trains are not run each way daily.

By Mr. Pfeiffer—To provide for the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

By Mr. Jones—To amend the law relating to the organization of school districts in each county, and to amend the law relating to the same.

survey of the state, and for the appointment of a site geologist.

By Mr. Jones—A joint resolution requiring and authorizing the calling of a constitutional convention, to frame a new constitution.

The joint resolution requesting members in congress to aid in preventing the abandonment of military posts on the Rio Grande, was taken up and passed.

The bill providing for making out accounts for frontier defense, to present to the general government, was called up.

The senate being full, and the pending question being on the adoption of Mr. Houston's amendment, Mr. Gibbs moved to amend by adding "not less than 12 cents, nor more than 25 cents." Adopted—20 yeas, 13; noes, 15.

Mr. Gooch moved to amend by providing that "when the tax, together with other available school fund is not less than 12 cents, Mr. Patterson moved to amend by striking out 15 cents and inserting 25. Lost—yeas, 13; noes, 15.

Mr. Chesley moved to strike out 15 and insert 13. Lost—13 to 15.

Mr. Jones offered a substitute for the section providing a tax of not less than 20 cents and not more than 25 cents for schools, provided the legislature may reduce the tax when the revenue is sufficient to run schools six months in the year. Lost—11 to 17.

Mr. Johnson, of Collins, offered a substitute providing for the levy of an ad valorem tax of 15 cents, a poll tax of $1, and one-fourth of the occupation tax, for school purposes. Lost—yeas, 5; noes, 20.

Mr. Chesley moved to amend that the tax levied may be used for the schools during the ensuing scholastic year. Lost.

Mr. Chesley moved to reconsider the vote of the house. Carried—yeas, 13; noes, 13.

Mr. Chesley moved to adjourn till 9:30 to-morrow. Lost.

The question recurring on Mr. Chesley's amendment, it was adopted—yeas, 14; noes, 11.

Mr. Martin moved to adjourn till 10 a. m. Lost.

Mr. Johnson, of Shelby, offered a substitute for the section providing that an ad valorem tax of not more than 20 cents, poll tax of $1, and one-fourth of the occupation tax shall be set apart for school purposes. Lost—yeas, 11; noes, 17.

Mr. Chesley moved to adjourn till 10 o'clock to-morrow. Carried—yeas, 17; noes, 10.

HOUSE.

Petitions and memorials were presented as follows: By Cheweth—A memorial of citizens of Fannin county, praying for a more efficient local option law.

By Harkness—A petition of the commissioners court of Dimmit county, asking a restoration of the civil and criminal jurisdiction of said county.

By Harkness—A memorial against the organization of Richland county, and the Speaker—A memorial from citizens of Ellis county, asking for the passage of a law in regard to the rights acquired by them for sale of school lands.

By Caven—A memorial, increasing the fees of assessors and collectors.

Bills referred: By McKinney—To institute certain actions against railroad companies.

By Merriweather—To more definitely define the north boundary line of the town of Gold.

By Harkness—To restore the criminal jurisdiction of Dimmit county.

Resolutions: By McKinney—A resolution inviting Professor Hoop, of Fort Worth, to deliver an address on the educational interests of Texas to-night. Adopted.

By Cheweth—A resolution inviting General Johnson, of Alabama, to lecture in behalf of the Southern Historical society, on next Thursday evening. Adopted.

By Rosenthal—A resolution inviting General Fitzhugh Lee, of Virginia, to visit the capitol to lecture on the battle of Chancellorsville.

By Foster, of Limestone, offered a substitute authorizing the sergeant-at-arms to permit any respectable gentleman to lecture in the hall when it is not otherwise occupied.

Rosenthal raised the point of order that the substitute was not germane.

The speaker ruled that the point was well taken.

Rosenthal's resolution was adopted.

Brown offered a resolution, reciting that every man has a right to differ in opinion, and that as the session is now drawing to a close, that anyone speaking seeing that he did not command the attention of the house, should take his seat with the exclamation: "Give me liberty or give me death!" Referred.

Durant arose to a question of privilege in reference to what Armistead had said on yesterday, which was ironically: "God bless the citizens of Madison and Leon," and said that he wanted it understood that he would not be held responsible for any and all circumstances after the legislature adjourned.

The bill regulating elections, the provision of which have been heretofore given, was put upon its third reading and final passage.

Frage moved to strike out that part of the bill permitting votes to be counted before the polls were closed. Adopted by a vote of yeas, 11; noes, 17.

Scott offered an amendment providing that the returns shall be delivered by one of the managers of election in person, and reported.

Cramer and Cotton offered amendments making the bill more explicit, which were adopted.

As amended, the bill passed the house.

The committee on constitutional amendments, to whom was committed on yesterday the resolutions providing for local and district school taxes, with instructions to report any separate resolutions, reported as instructed.

The first resolution, levying a state school tax of 25 cents on the $100, was first considered.

Various amendments, increasing or decreasing the tax, were proposed and rejected when the resolution passed to engrossment.

The second resolution, providing for the district system, was next considered.

Cochran offered an amendment correcting the phraseology of the resolution. Adopted.

Grayson, offered an amendment adding the words "at such election" after the words "two-thirds of the taxpayers." Adopted.

Frank moved to strike out 25 cents for district tax and insert 15 cents.

Scott, Nash, Etheridge, Graves and Burns all heartily endorsed the amendment in a spirit of compromise.

Durant opposed anything less than a 25 cents tax.

Taylor said that the minority had appealed to the majority for three days in a spirit of compromise, and they had refused to yield, but now when they found that defeat was inevitable, they appeal to the minority in a spirit of compromise. "As for my part, I am opposed and shall continue to oppose the district system."

Kendall—"I am glad to know that the sentiments of the gentleman from Red river are not echoed throughout this house, and I hope the resolution will not meet with further opposition."

The amendment to insert 15 cents was adopted, and the resolution passed to engrossment by a vote of yeas, 78; noes, 7.

Adjourned until 3 p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

By leave, petitions were presented: By Dowling—From citizens of county, protesting against the lease of the penitentiaries.

By Foster, of Limestone—A petition asking for the creation of Richland county.

By McKinney—To define and reduce the boundary of the city of Galveston.

Frymier and Acker presented petitions asking for prohibition, from the citizens of Houston and Burnet counties.

By Cotton—A petition from the commissioners court of Hamilton county asking the creation of the county of Mills.

The senate bill providing for the compensation of officers, for holding examining trials in felony cases, passed to its third reading after several amendments had been proposed and rejected.

The senate bill regulating the manner of removing and organizing county seats, passed to its third reading.

Senate bill for remunerating E. T. Moore for services rendered the state in bringing against defaulting tax collectors for money due the state by them, was put upon its second reading, when Finch offered the following substitute: Providing that in all suits brought in the name of the state, the district or county attorney of the proper county shall be entitled to a commission on the amount collected as follows: 10 per cent. on the first $10,000, 5 per cent. on all sums from $1,000 to $5,000; provided, that in all suits brought by the attorney-general to collect money for the state, the district or county attorney shall not be entitled to any commission. [The adoption of this substitute would virtually kill the bill.]

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

Finch argued that the bill was unconstitutional, and that Moore was contending for remuneration for services rendered by the attorney-general, and spoke for an hour ridiculing the memorial and the claims upon which it was based.

September, and working at the carpenter's trade strangely disappeared on the 15th instant, since when his whereabouts has been unknown. Shortly before being missed he complained of being sick, and threw up his supper, and when no one else was in the room, suddenly disappeared. His trunk remains at the Tennessee house.

The freight trains at the Gulf, Colorado & Santa Fe railroad, both ways from this place, have been permitted by the company to carry passengers greatly to the accommodation of the traveling public.

C. F. Blanton, from Beville, Texas, is another new-comer to Cleburne.

R. Hardesty, a wealthy citizen of Kansas City, visited this section lately, and while here purchased his son a farm in this county, and young Hardesty makes Johnson county his future home.

Miss Eliza Phillips, daughter of Mr. M. E. Phillips, and sister of Mr. A. I. Phillips, of this city, who has charge of Cameron's lumber business, and the residence of a sister of the bride, in Dallas a few days since.

Waco, Feb. 21.—[Special.]—F. T. De Graffenreid and Miss Lily Graves, of Falls county, who eloped and came here two days ago, and were intercepted by telegrams from the young lady's guardian forbidding the issuing of license, finally succeeded in their object and were married this afternoon.

The stock of J. McDonald, dealer in general merchandise, was attached to-day by St. Louis creditors, and afterwards is other attachments were issued. His assets will exceed the liabilities, and he may resume business.

J. M. Chambers, who was arrested yesterday for horse-stealing, under a requisition from the governor of Illinois, will not be delivered up, as he is under an indictment here for running a ten-pin alley without license.

Ed Hudson and Harry O'Conner were arrested to-day for robbery and a large lot of false keys found in their possession. The city is full of bad characters, and burglaries occur almost every night.

Messrs. VanDyne, Dodge and other officers of the Narrow Gauge, arrived from the east this evening.

Rain and mud again to-day, jam satis.

San Antonio, Feb. 21.—[Special.]—A report has leaked out here regarding a great game of poker, played in New York some time ago between several railroad kings, during which one of the gentlemen, having lost all his pocket-money, offered to put up engines as collateral. Fortune still combed him, and at the close of the game had lost three of the best engines he owned. They are now running on the winner's road in this state, their numbers being 22, 24 and 26, and are valued at $40,000.

J. W. Love, jeweler, assigned to-day in favor of creditors.

Joe Spiner, a well known stock-raiser of LaSalle county, reports cattle dying by the hundreds in that county from the effects of the late cold weather. The water holes are filled with dead animals and every hour adds to the mortality. Several parties who recently purchased cattle at high prices, and embark in the business will be bankrupted, as they were unprepared to feed and shelter animals and have not the means to bide the time necessary to recuperate.

Pigeon mill and cotton-gin at San Marcos, with 10 bales of cotton and a large amount of small grain, burned to-day. Loss, $25,000; no insurance.

Pittsburg, Feb. 21.—[Special.]—Henry Turner, who was shot in a difficulty between C. B. McDowell and himself on Monday evening, died yesterday morning at 8:30, and was buried this evening. C. B. McDowell was arrested on a charge of murder, and a preliminary hearing was held to-day before County Judge M. S. Brown. The state was represented by M. L. Morris, county attorney, and the defendant by J. D. Pettit, esq. Upon hearing the evidence, the court was of the opinion that the accused should be discharged, and so ordered.

Pittsburg has shipped between 9,000 and 10,000 bales of cotton this season up to date.

The Citizens' bank of Pittsburg has recently been reorganized with an increase of capital stock to meet the increased business demands of the place, and is now known as the Camp County bank. S. E. Morris is president and C. G. Davis, cashier. S. E. Morris, G. W. Davis, E. F. M. Wilson, of this place, and R. A. Morris, of Linden, Texas, are the directors.

Bryan, Feb. 21.—[Special.]—The supplementary motion for a new trial in the Albert Bishop case will be heard at Franklin on Friday before A. C. Brierly, special judge. Mr. Bishop has the sympathy of the community.

The estate of William Fletcher Welborn has been purchased by W. L. Orr, of Georgia, who will remove to Texas and take charge of it.

There are several cases of small-pox reported in the Brazos bottom between Bryan and Hearne. There is no sickness at the Agricultural and Mechanical college at Pittsburg.

Cotton is still coming in from Leon and adjoining counties.

Weather pleasant.

TEXARKANA, Feb. 21.—[Special.]—Captain Dixon, sheriff of Miller county, is having the jail enclosed by a high fence to keep outsiders from putting instructions into the prisoners to effect their escape. The cells are being put in good order by Commissioner Mitchell, a job that has long been neglected.

Dr. Beidle, of this city, has just returned from Washington City, where he went to secure a patent for an electric apparatus for treating certain diseases, and during the short time in which he has been experimenting in the city has procured the efficacy of worthy endorsements as to the efficacy of the instrument. Scientific men pronounce it a success.

FERRIS, Feb. 21.—[Special.]—The spring fights commenced at this point to-day. The first in the ring were A. P. Beal and W. V. Chapman, who entered early this morning, and after quite an entertainment for those present, withdrew without the stain of human gore upon either of their hands. The cause of the trouble is unknown, the parties were arraigned before his honor, the mayor, and dealt with according to law.