OAK CLIFF PROGRESS.

The Oak Cliff Railway Engine Arrives -- Street Grading, School House, Etc.

Improvements are booming in the new suburb on the high and beautiful plateau southwest of and overlooking the city.

The free-school building is a handsome two-story structure, surpassing any in the city, the wood work of which is now nearing completion.

Mr. Armstrong, of Marsalis, Armstrong & Co., has just had his walk graded and paved in beautiful style and will commence building a handsome dwelling as soon as the ground is terraced. His lot is on Grand Avenue.

Messrs. T. L. Marsalis and L. W. Clark will put down cement pavements in front of their properties on Grand Avenue similar to Mr. Armstrong's.

The water works will be completed to-day and to-morrow a 6-inch stream will be turned into the lake to add to the natural supply from the springs. The stream will be kept on from the sand-pipe until the lake is full. The supply from the springs will more than equal the evaporation, and Spring Lake will be a beautiful body of live fresh water, covering eight or ten acres.

The street grading force was increased thirteen blasters this morning at the north end of Grand Avenue where the street will be finished through the big rock hill. The force of teams for hauling rock to the maddening force on the other end of the street is also largely increased here will be a great deal accomplished this week on the streets.

The engine for the elevated road arrived this morning, and it's a little daisy. Small neat and substantial. This new engine with the three handsome wine-colored coaches will be put on the now completed Dallas & Oak Cliff Railway to-morrow.

When Oak Cliff is a year old, Grand and Lancaster avenues will be as handsome and attractive boulevards as there are in Texas. Everything in Oak Cliff is being done on a broad gauge plan.

District Court--Grand Jury.

The district court reconvened this morning at 9 o'clock, and the assignment of civil non-jury cases for this week was called, and a few orders were taken in some unimportant cases. The court then proceeded to impanel a grand jury, and the following was the result: S. P. Emerson, foreman; W. G. Bryan, W. J. Rhodes, J. M. Stratton, O. P. Bowser, Sid Tucker, H. R. Newman, Frank Sliger, T. M. Worthington, Robert Miller, J. S. Phillips, E. W. Cameron. The judge charged the jury as to their duties in looking sharp after the violators of the law. The charge is pronounced a very able one, special in no particular, but urging the grand jury to detect and bring to the bar every species of law-breakers--every law should be observed. Court was then adjourned till to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock.

Waller is Here.

Mr. C. V. Waller, the Elm street druggist, just wants you to try one of his fine cigars, and if you want a toilet article or any prescription compounded his experienced clerks will prepare them for you in short notice and in the most skillful manner. Call on him for Drugs, Fancy Articles and Cigars.

AT THE FAIR.

Preparations for the Opening.

About four hundred men and a score or more of ladies are hard at work in and about the great exposition building preparatory to the opening on Thursday of the State Fair and Dallas exposition. The man who visits the grounds now for the first time since the new improvements began will find the buildings and grounds wonderfully transformed. The main building is nearly doubled in capacity, and the new machinery hall is larger than the old one.

In addition to these improvements--The geological department under Prof. Cummins, larger and more varied and interesting than ever occupies a new octagon house built for the purpose, and there are other new rooms for specialties.

Among the exhibitors in the main building, Sanger Bros., Padgett Bros., E. Bauman, and Hughes Bros. Co. are more advanced than the rest, having their splendid exhibits well under way. Lewis Bros' beautiful sextagon walnut show case is ready to receive fine shoes, etc. Walker's China Hall has a good space fast approaching shapely form.

In the machinery hall the first thing that attracts the eye is D. M. Clower & Co.'s electric light machinery. They have a splendid exhibit in this line, and will light the grounds and all the buildings with some new improved dynamos.

There are a number of ladies industriously arranging a beautiful exhibit of ladies' handiwork, which far surpasses that of last year.

TOM GREEN COUNTY.

From the far West comes a Tom Green county delegation, Messrs. Frank Lerch and H. McGregor, jr., of San Antonio, with a special car full of fine specimens of building stone, agricultural products, and nearly all kinds of fruits, including peaches, pears, plums, grapes, and the first apples grown in that county. The HERALD hopes there will be many other counties represented here in this way.

Robbers Well Whipped.

Last night while the congregation at the East Dallas Baptist church were listening to one of the cow-boy's excellent sermons, a thief or thieves helped themselves to the whips from the vehicles hitched about the front and side, in all about eight or ten. Just how they will proceed to dispose of their booty is a problem for the police.

Marriage Licenses.

C. C. Hill and Annie Chasler, N. C. Ray and Marian Dees, Jas. H. Chosier and Susan J. Arthur, J. W. Moore and J. C. Hargrove.

Suit for Divorce.

Catherine A. Carter has filed suit against her husband Frank R. Carter, praying for a divorce. Were married Dec. 31, 1881, lived together about six months, when plaintiff alleges she was abandoned by defendant.

Attachments.

Last night Maroney Hardware Co. filed two separate attachment suits against Henry & Bro., of Fannin county, for $1,116.95 and $511.85, respectively.

REINHARDT & CO.,
THE LEADING

BOYS' CLOTHIERS.

I. REINHARDT & CO. Men's Department.

Will permit any merchant in Dallas to sell Clothing, Hats or Furnishing Goods as low or lower prices than they will. Reinhardt & Co. are not built that way. Basing their claims for patronage on the broad principle of always giving the best for the least, they have fairly flown beyond the reach of competition. Imitators may try to imitate, calumniators may use calumny, and the envious may give vent to their spleen, the truth stands out as brilliant as the unclouded noonday sun that

I. REINHARDT & CO.

Sell Goods for lower prices than anybody. Guarantee every article or garment they sell. Do the largest business in the State of Texas. Show the Finest Clothing in the United States. Retail Hats at Wholesale Prices. Name but one price, that is the lowest. Treat millionaire and mechanic equally polite.

Have the Finest Store and Stock in Texas. Cheerfully refund money to dissatisfied patrons. Willingly exchange any article they sell. Send goods C. O. D. with privilege of examination. Hammer prices down to the lowest living prices. Carry a stock ten times larger than other houses. Make prices for qualities lowest in the State.

Make honesty the foundation of all their dealings.

These are some of the elements that attract trade to our great store. We do business on business principles, and ask the custom of no one on the whining or whimpering plea of sympathy. If we do not sell you goods for less money than other dealers don't trade with us.

I. REINHARDT & CO., Elm and Murphy Streets.

Here we offer a line of goods which in point of excellence exceeds anything ever offered the good people of this city. Suits made from a character of goods which heretofore could only be obtained in fine tailoring establishments, and trimmed and made in a style almost equaling the finest custom work, we have in profusion--not one style, but dozens of them. The same may be said of our line of Overcoats. But our goods are not confined to these excellent grades. We have a line of goods, ranging in price from $6 to $12, which in point of honest merit have never been equaled. We sell only that which will give good, honest satisfaction. No matter how low the price, you will find the goods right.
