Trade Mark: GOOD SERVICE

Fort Worth, Texas, Jan. 9.—Mr. Oliver Augusta, better known as "Dad Oliver," succumbed to the pains and tortures of paralysis last Saturday night, Jan. 4th, 1919, after an illness of two or three weeks. He was stricken one day as he came to his place of business. Dad Oliver's restaurant. For many years, he has ranked as a first rate restaurant keeper. He was a member of Key West Lodge No. 5, K. of P., a splendid citizen, and died in full triumph of faith. He leaves one daughter. He was buried from Allen Chapel A. M. E. church, Rev. R. S. Jenkins, officiated.

Bakers Mission A. M. E. Church.
The prayer meeting service held at Mrs. Joe Jackson on Wayne St., resulted in the conversion of her husband. Mrs. Jackson is ill and the prayer band called to pray with her the above results.
Rev. J. P. Linn, pastor and a good band of his members participated. Mrs. Jackson is very sick.
Mrs. Ella Cooper and Master Almon Lewis of Italy are guests of Mrs. F. D. Cooper. Rev. E. M. Johnson filled his post last Sunday at Blooming Grove and preached a glorious sermon.
Birdie B. Lewis is visiting relatives in Italy.
Mrs. L. W. Whitfield is daily expecting the arrival of her husband from France.

Morning Chapel C. M. E. Notes.

Sunday Morning Chapel was at her best. Promptly 9:30 Supt. Langston and his staff of teachers opened the Morning Chapel Sunshine school. This being the first Sunday morning in the new year, the Sunday school was flooded with Sunshinists ready to begin the new year on time.
The pastor preached a powerful sermon and administered the Lord's supper assisted by Father Dotson and Pulgan.
The Epworth League was the big noise in the afternoon. Eager to begin the new year on time, the leaguers were found at their post promptly at 6 o'clock. Epworth League has taken on new life. The efficient staff of teachers to take care of the large number of new leaguers under Mrs. M. D. Franklin will render a special program Sunday evening at 6 o'clock.
Visitors are always welcome in our service.

M. H. SPENCER, Pastor.
PROF. J. T. LANGSTON, Supt. Sunday School.
EMORY C. SMITH, Sr., Pres. Epworth League.

Sergeant Kelly Wyatt of Ft. Smith, Ark., was the guest of Miss Elmore Linville. Sergeant Wyatt finished his course at Nashville, Tenn.
Saturday evening, Miss Linville entertained him with a theater party after the show, they were served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Williams, 1108 W. 7th street, who also gave a dinner Sunday in honor of him. Sunday afternoon was spent in listening to a great sermon at the Second Baptist church delivered by Rev. J. H. Winn. Sergeant Wyatt left for Camp MacArthur, Monday night, where he has been in service.

Rev. R. S. Jenkins, Pastor.
The pupils of the Sunday school enjoyed a feast, three turkeys, box of apples, a box of oranges, a box of candies, white walnuts, almonds, pecans, and cake, this feast was held last Sunday from 10:30 to 12:08 o'clock noon.
The church services were well attended, Rev. J. T. Smith, preached at 11:00 a. m. The league had a great meeting at 6 p. m. at 7:45 the pastor preached, subject, "The Unlimited Power of God," and it was indeed a great sermon. But wait, let us tell you, next Sunday will be a red letter day. At 11 a. m. the Flag of service will be lowered and the Eleventh star will be turned to gold, and raised by soldiers released from the service. A program and the pastor will preach subject "God's Battle vs. Our Battle." Collection $57.37. Four persons joined the church, viz: Private E. E. Scott of Camp Logan, Mrs. N. J. Hodge, Mrs. Thulia Adams and Mrs. Rosetta Edwards. Sunday is our rally day watch the great work go on to a glorious triumph. A junior missionary society, has been organized by Mrs. M. E. Thompson. The officers elected are as follows: Mrs.

CORSICANA.
Corsicana, Texas, Jan. 9.—The influenza seems to be on a second round here, in some families, there are three and four persons sick in bed. In referring to Mrs. Griffin last week we should have said that she is able to get around in the house and not that she is able to do home duties. There have been several funerals here recently among them were a little son of Mr. Ed R. Nelson of Marlin, Pvt. Andrew Thompson, son-in-law of Mr. Wm. Rodgers, shipped here from Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio, and Mrs. Rebecca Holmes an old resident of this city. She was 65 years old and had been a member of the church for 35 years. She died Jan. 1 and was buried last Sunday from the First Independent Baptist church, Rev. A. L. Moore, officiated. Some of the Express readers who are on the sick list are: Mr. Jerry Johnson, Mrs. H. H. and Mrs. Ed Wood. A colored man is in jail at Ennis for inducing a school girl here to run away, with him. They were caught in time, however to save the girl.
