J. Warren Kerrigan's great Western Photo-play

"The Turn of A Card"

Gambling is always bad, (if you don't win). The man who gambles is always a looser. See this picture and you will be much wiser along these lines.

Don't forget the Cannibals, Thursday and Friday, March 20 and 21

SUNDAY, MARCH 16th, "Two Gun Betty,"

SOME PICTURE

Featuring

"Bessie Barriscale"

And its the greatest western picture we have ever shown and that's saying something. And up to the minute Western Comedy Drama with cowboys, cow girls, bad men, wild women and n'everything.

See her clean-up the "Bad Men," single handed. And she does it. We say she do.

Sunday only, also "Lonesome Luke Comedy."

Don't fail to see the "South Sea Cannibals" Thursday and Friday, March 20th and 21st. Matinee each day, two o'clock sharp.

MARTIN JOHNSON'S

CANNIBALS of the SOUTH SEAS

This production will never be equalled in the history of motion pictures. Positively photographed at the risk of life. Audaciously, original, unconventional—startling pictures of savages naked—treacherous, man killing and frequently man eating.

Selecting brides for marriage, trapped by man eaters, burying the dead alive. Sixty-hour death.

This is the most sensational motion picture ever taken.

New York photoplay fans, packed the "STRAND" THEATRE—New York's greatest motion picture theatre. For two weeks to see this wonderful production.

This Picture will be shown Two Days with Matinee each day.
