Allen Chapel A. M. E. Church, Corner E. First and Elm Sts. Rev. R. S. Jenkins, D. D. Pastor.
The spiritual, intellectual and financial tide runs high in Allen Chapel, the many visitors are elated with the great service, which makes the most magnificent brick edifice on the corner, the center of attraction for the great church going populace of the "Panther City." The Sunday school was well attended and much interest manifested in the lesson. Mr. Will Davis, knows how to interest a Sunday school with his easy style of drawing the masses and holds them spell bound with the magnetism of his resourceful mind. The church service was fully up to the standard. The introductions were many and the brief addresses of the visitor were very pleasing, viz., Rev. A. L. Dotson, preached a great sermon, Dr. G. B. Young, ex-presiding elder received a most hearty welcome, also Prof. A. S. Jackson, General Commissioner of Education in the A. M. E. church, Lieut. W. N. Evans of Bryan; Rev. Abraham, L. Griffin of Athens; Private Leon Conly of Kyle; Private Fred Boston of Tulsa, and L. C. Hollis of Conroe, each one spoke briefly but interestingly and enraptured the large congregation with their bric-a-bracs, in their selected sphere. The most excellent choir rendered some of its choicest selections and it was the sweetest music of the season. In the election of a delegate to the Bioclerical College, W. D. Donifer was elected, his address is 1114 E. First street; Mr. Donifer has some aspirations. Elvis E. Gunn, at 1158 Evans avenue was chosen alternate to Mr. Donifer. Next Sunday will be another great day. Dr. C. B. Young, our friend and worthy ex-presiding elder will spend the day with us. Collection Sunday $202.16.
All are invited, our most cordial greetings and warmest welcome await all.

Private Dan Chatman, 317 American Tr., C. D. 92, Division, has arrived home safely from France, after being in the service of the nation 11 months. His friends gave him a glad and hearty welcome. He brought several souvenirs of beautiful French home and has much to say of his experience over seas. Dan says ammunition is as dangerous a handling as fighting in the open trenches, and that his life has been risked many times. He has never been wounded or punished for any mis-conduct.

MADAM ELIA B. MOORE'S DALLAS GIRLS RECEIVES AN AROUSING OVATION BY SHOW LOVING PUBLIC.

True to the advertisement that had been previously heralded broadcast over the city, Madam Elia B. Moore's presentation of the Dallas Girls was received under showers of ovation. After a continuation of pains and care-taking efforts the work of this master mind was exhibited to the music loving public of the city on Monday night March 17, with striking effect.

The Dallas Girls is a combination of five local girls, who have for months been drilled in parts by professional instructors. The dancing having been under the exclusive care of Prof. Wm. F. Sledge, the soft shoe dancer. All told the Company shaped into a first-class organization. The opening was gorgeous, as special scenery and drops were contributed to make the opening such as it was.

Miss Shirley Mae Cox and Carrie Miller were very graceful in their dancing, Miss Gertrude Williams will be heard from soon, Miss Velma Lowe, singing, sobrette was very loudly applauded; Miss Doshie Meyers comes in also for a lion's share. The entire performance was first-class in every way and well worth the price. The staging was gorgeously and magnificently arranged and reflects credit upon the producer.

LAWYER FORTUNE RUNNING HIGH.
Great Outpouring of Voters Welcome the Candidates, Wednesday Night, Corner Central Avenue and Cochran Street, Hon. W. E. King Address—Candidate Speak

All records in the present political campaign were broken last Wednesday night, when old timers counted the crowd of men and women which assembled at corner Central Avenue and Cochran Sts., to hear the opening gun of the present city struggle under the direction of the Colored Section of the Good Government Association. Campaign Manager, A. S. Wells and his scouts had levied a heavy tribute on the attention of Colored voters with his endless flow of literature and as a result men were there from all parts of the city. The band of patriotic music and rhythmic music in syncopated time. The small boy, the natural attendant of a brass band was there and helped to enliven the occasion, but the greater part of the audience by far was made up of men from the ranks of the great fighting masses, the men who yearn for the time to come when Dallas will be a better place in which to live and move and have their being.

They came out to hear the issues discussed. They wanted the light in order that on Tuesday, April 1st, they might vote for good government. Promptly at 8:00 o'clock, Hon. A. S. Wells called the meeting to order announcing its purpose. Among other things, he said: "Fellow Citizens, it is my great pleasure to announce that you have been called here to hear a full discussion of the acts of the present City Officials, believing that when you shall have known the truth, you will vote the Good Government Association ticket from stem to stern. Mr. Lawtner has made himself the Mayor of all people, and his entire ticket has won the approval of every man in the city who is entitled to vote. I now take pleasure in introducing to you, Hon. W. E. King, the veteran editor of the Dallas Express, who will address you on this occasion."

Mr. King said: "I have come here tonight upon the invitation of Mr. Wells and his committee to detail in your very presence the record of the present city administration. According to our law the duty devolves upon the citizenry of Dallas to call or recall its city officials every two years. It is altogether proper, that before making choice at the ballot-box, that the records of the men in office as well as those who aspire to office shall stand searching investigation under the calcium light of free discussion, to the end that the people may intelligently cast their ballot."

I submit that the Lawtner administration is ready to stand the acid test. Going into office two years ago, with practically the solid Colored vote against it, among the first things done by Mayor Lawtner, was to send for a number of prominent Colored men, among them: Dr. Hamilton, Dr. Dyson, Prof. Starks, Rev. A. S. Jackson, and inquired to know of them what he could do as Mayor, to help the Colored people.

He was told and then he said, "I want your co-operation for the next two years in the effort to make Dallas a better city in which to live, and don't forget that I intend to be the Mayor of all people."

How well, Mr. Lawtner has worked to extend the benefits of government to all the people is history, and he has the thanks of all right thinking people.

True to the advertisement that had been previously heralded broadcast over the city, Madam Elia B. Moore's presentation of the Dallas Girls was received under showers of ovation. After a continuation of pains and care-taking efforts the work of this master mind was exhibited to the music loving public of the city on Monday night March 17, with striking effect.

The Dallas Girls is a combination of five local girls, who have for months been drilled in parts by professional instructors. The dancing having been under the exclusive care of Prof. Wm. F. Sledge, the soft shoe dancer. All told the Company shaped into a first-class organization. The opening was gorgeous, as special scenery and drops were contributed to make the opening such as it was.

Miss Shirley Mae Cox and Carrie Miller were very graceful in their dancing, Miss Gertrude Williams will be heard from soon, Miss Velma Lowe, singing, sobrette was very loudly applauded; Miss Doshie Meyers comes in also for a lion's share. The entire performance was first-class in every way and well worth the price. The staging was gorgeously and magnificently arranged and reflects credit upon the producer.

COLORIZED CITIZENS ASSOCIATION STAGES BIG MEETING AT CRABTREE HALL IN OAK CLIFF.
Speakers of Dallas also Present. Arousing Meeting Held.

Nearly two hundred colored citizens of the ninth ward assembled at Crabtree's Hall on East 10th street for the hour and a half meeting of the Citizens Association ticket.

Every man present, but with one exception, pledged unqualifiedly their support to the Citizens ticket straight. Among the speakers to have taken an active part in the campaign were: Mr. Jordan, G. L. Boswell, Dr. Wm. Hames, Rev. Walker, Rev. Paul, Guas Greer and Clarence C. Martin. Chairman Geo. L. Boswell acting master of ceremonies, introduced the following visitors from the city: E. W. D. Welch, J. H. Dixon, Chairman of Colored Citizens Association of the city, V. S. L. Booker, Wm. P. Wallick and J. A. Austin. The visitors were called upon to express themselves, each being limited to 5 minutes, owing to the lateness of the hour and the lengthy program the committee had prepared for the evening.

The Citizens Association ticket was heartily applauded and the membership foresees an overwhelming colored vote. Tickets for Mayor and the full Citizens ticket.
