Last Sunday, March 30, we were with Rev. C. L. Bryant, the Church of the Living God. Dr. Bryant will spend several days in Gilmer in the interest of the Dickson Colored Orphanage. He is one of the best Bible preachers in the United States. The Church of the Living God in Dallas has a fine building and a large congregation which is loyal to their pastor. He is called on to help the Orphanage. We wish that there were others to do the same.

The donors are as follows:

MASS MEETING.

Sunday, April 13, 1919.
At the Friendship Baptist church, Queen City, Dallas, this will be the ending of the Financial Campaign for the Dixon Orphan children. Dr. F. K. White, the pastor has thrown open the doors of his church at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Sunday, but few pastors have done so. Every race lover and Christian in Dallas should lend a helping hand to make this the greatest event for God and humanity, that has been to Queen City. I appeal to all Dallas, and especially to all Queen City churches and pastors to give what you can to help feed and clothe the little motherless and fatherless children. Ten voices of Orphan children will sing in both services, morning and night. Come early for seats. Dr. F. K. White, will deliver the morning sermon. At 3 p. m. information about the work of the Home will be given by the Supt. Rev. W. L. Dixon followed by a mass meeting of the citizens and friends of Queen City. Rev. I. R. Richardson will deliver an address. Other speakers of white citizens will be present and make short talks. At 8 p. m. Pastor F. K. White will deliver another sermon to the great crowd to be present. $150.00 is the watchword for Sunday, April 13th. Friendship Baptist church.
REV. F. K. WHITE, D. D., Pastor.
REV. W. L. DICKSON, President and Manager Dickson Colored Orphanage.

We were at Waxahachie, Monday night with the jubilee singers at St. Paul A. M. E. church. Rev. J. E. Edwards, pastor. With one night's announcement, the church gave in cash in less time than ten minutes $47.25, while I was getting my children out at the back door to catch the train. They are arranging to have us come back and be with them. Last Saturday at McKinney at 2:30, Rev. W. L. Dickson spoke to 3000 white men on the square. The jubilee singers rendered a program at the close of the speech. $55 was taken up in hats and $565 in bonafide subscription was taken by the Mayor, who spoke in high terms of the work being accomplished.

NOTES FROM MT. ROSE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Dr. Wm. Johnson, Pastor.
Last Sunday was a great day in old Mt. Rose. It was distinguished by the presence of our newly elected pastor, Dr. Wm. Johnson, D. D., of Houston, who came in on Thursday. The Sunday school held front stage position from 9:30 to 11:00. After an inspirational prayer and praise service led the Deacons. Rev. F. D. Booker, who has been serving most admirably at pulpit supply conducted devotionals and introduced pastor Johnson. The pastor sang very touchingly. "He's the one" offered a fervent prayer in which he implored divine blessings upon his absent family. St. John church of Houston, Mt. Rose, and closed with tears in his eyes, by asking God to direct his former parish to a worthy pastor, and lead Mt. Rose to greater success than she even expected. He then announced as his theme, "Jebovah is on the job, that quiet and Watch Him." The sermon was one of the very best to which Mt. Rose has listened in many days. Every eye was moist with tears of holy sanction. Two persons united with our membership at this service. The United Rope Holders had their annual sermon preached by Dr. F. O. Brown of New Zion, and all enjoyed the blackboard demonstration to the scene at 5:30, and let me tell you we had some union. Each group seemed in earnest. "The old reliable" furnished an excellent program, with Mrs. M. J. Henderson presiding. Rev. J. L. Hawkins conducted blackboard demonstration to the delight of all present. Rev. Winston was on the job as usual, and presided during the election of our delegates to the Congress. We take this method of inviting our friends to our special program to be had on the third Sunday evening in this month; at which time our pastor will umpire a "Base Ball Game" in the union. Standing room was at premium at the night service. Pastor Johnson preached another soul stirring sermon, and two members united. Our splendid choir was at its best all day, and pastor Johnson, (who is an accomplished vocalist) was much delighted. We are extremely proud of our new pastor, and believe he will lead us to success in a large way. We invite the public to attend our services and witness pastor Johnson's able sermons. He is a man of broad education, but a dame of fire in the pulpit. His installation is being arranged for and we are all happy. We all look forward to the coming of the pastor's family, as he declares he would not serve where his wife and two children couldn't live. We were much pleased to hear our pastor take high ground on the question of supporting our own race enterprises, making special mention of the Dallas Express and our race insurance Business. This is the kind of pastor Dallas needs, and Mt. Rose feels specially honored to have secured the service of this able exponent of race uplift.

O. B. CLAIBORNE,
J. A. JACKSON, Clerk.

FRIENDSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH.

Sunday school at usual hour. At 9:30 a. m. at 11:30 a. m. praise and covenant meeting. At 3 o'clock Rev. F. K. White baptized at the Salem Baptist church. Returned and B. Y. P. U. met at 6:30 p. m., which was largely attended and we enjoyed an excellent review of the lesson by the pastor, Rev. F. K. White. At 8:00 p. m. we also enjoyed a wonderful sermon preached by our beloved pastor, subject, "The Coming Kingdom," after which we fellowshiped the new members into the church. Every department of the church has started to work for the financial campaign which is to be on the 8th of June, which includes the pastor's anniversary. Rev. W. L. Dixon visited Mt. Moriah Baptist church Sunday evening and night, of which church Rev. I. R. Richardson is pastor. Next Sunday Rev. Dixon and Orphan children are to be present at the Friendship Baptist church.
Mr. S. T. Tolton, a distinguished visitor from Oakwood, Texas, called to see Miss S. O. Washington of Queen City, last week.

COMING Saturday, April 12th

"SNAP JUDGEMENT"

A Big Western Thriller

Featuring "Bill Russell." Also Two Reel Comedy

Sunday, April 13th

Extra Added Attraction, "Laughing Bill Hyde"

A stirring drama of the west-furious gun play follows when two crooks accuse each other of stealing their treasure box and only when they both roll dead over the rocks in an Alaska settlement does the battle end—this is truly a wonderful production.

COMING

Monday and Tuesday--Two Days

APRIL 14-15

Wm. Fox presents Bill Farnum in a fighting production "FIGHTING BLOOD." The story:

Lem Hardy (William Farnum) is sent to prison for a theft committed by his rival.

Prison chaplain interests Lem in the Bible. Lem comes from a long list of fighters and has had little use for Bible. Governor pardons Lem.

Toughs interrupt first preaching service held by Lem after he has become a minister. After terrific fight Lem ejects the toughs from the church.

Blake, who sent Lem to prison, is caught cheating at cards and ordered to leave town.

Gray, who conspired with Blake to lay theft at Lem's door, becomes repentant and confesses his part in the affair.

Blake forces Evie (Dorothy Bernard Lem's former sweetheart, to act as decoy for his gambling rooms in western mining town.

Lem licks Big Bill, mining camp bully, who has prevented Lem from preaching in the saloon.

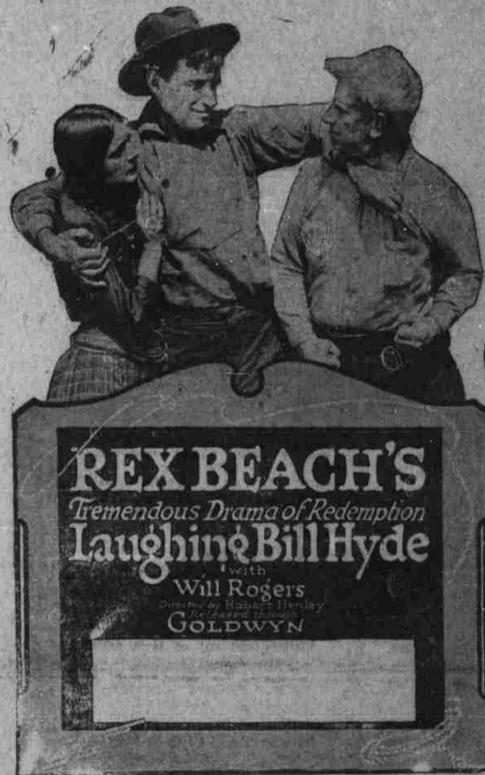

Blake is shot and killed by Gray, his one-time accomplice, in struggle for revolver.

When Lem asks some one to play a hymn during his service in saloon, Evie plays "My Old Kentucky Home," the song she used to sing for Lem years before.

Evie, degraded by life in the mining camp, prays for strength to begin life anew.

Lem takes Evie by the hand and together they start on their journey through life.

This production will be shown MONDAY AND TUESDAY NIGHTS with Matinee each day at two o'clock. No advance in prices. Children, 11 cents; Adults, 17 cents.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 16TH RETURN ENGAGEMENT OF "WM. S. HART," IN "THE RETURN OF DRAW EGAN."

See the bad men of Yellow Dog turn tail. He put a muzzle on the bad men of Yellow Dog, and redeemed his past, and then becomes master of Yellow Dog. HE'S BAD in this production.

Coming—THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, APRIL 17TH AND 18TH

Special Production with
"BILL RUSSELL" "WHERE THE WEST BEGINS."
A six-reel Western Drama. A bright and breezy production.

"WHERE THE WEST BEGINS."

Is a wholesome western drama. The story is of a Eastern lad, who is duly shown by a brisk Westerner—that life is just what you make it.

Russell creates fully enough excitement for the Easterner to say at last the action of the story transpires first in little OL NOO YAWK and later in the great out-of-doors—"THE GLORIOUS WEST." This production will be shown Thursday and Friday, April 17th and 18th with Matinee each day—2 p. m.

We wish to announce that we open on each Monday and Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at two o'clock.
