Among the Churches

ST. PAUL M. E. CHURCH.

Corner Burford and Juliette Sts.
Rev. J. W. Weakley, Pastor.
Services were good all day Sunday. Members and friends are looking forth to the second quarterly conference, which convenes Saturday and Sunday, May 31st and June 1st. Quite a deal of interest was aroused last Sunday in arranging the rally between the men and women of the church. If the women ever were beaten they are sure to be the victors this time. Mrs. Genevieve Billie is leading the men while Mrs. Duncan is leading the women. Both leaders claim that they will win out. The final test will come on the second Sunday in August.

MT. OLIVE BAPTIST CHURCH.

Sunday was a day of much rejoicing, having received a letter from Dr. J. W. Fagan, pastor elect stating that he, Dr. Fagan, accepted the call of the above named church and will be here Sunday, June 1st, to fill the pulpit, the public is invited to come and hear our new pastor. Sunday school was largely attended. B. Y. P. U., also had a good attendance.
Sunday at 11 a. m. Rev. M. P. Ford, the city missionary filled the pulpit, one addition to the church. At 8:30 p. m. Rev. Ford again filled the pulpit. We all can say that our hearts burned within as he spoke to us out of God.
The reporter for the church is sick this week.
SISTER C. JESSIE, Clerk.

NEW MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH.

Rev. Wm. L. Jordan, Pastor.
3521 Roseland Avenue.
At 10 o'clock a. m. members and friends from all parts of the city began to gather at the church for the celebration. Sunday school was good. At 11:30 a. m. the pastor came to us with a burning message from Exodus 3:7 text, "I have seen the affliction of my people and I have come to Deliver Them."
At 4:30 Rev. S. S. Stephens, came with an other sermon, that will hereafter be remembered. On account of rain we had to postpone the corner stone laying. Services were discontinued during the night. Collection $13.00.
ADDIE LEACH, Clerk.

ST. MARK BAPTIST CHURCH.

Sunday school attendance was good. Bro. Ben Hamilton, Supt.
In the morning, Rev. E. Greene, preached a soul arousing sermon. He took for his subject "God Plantation," 92 Psalms 13th to 15th verse. Owing to the heavy rain in the afternoon further services were very poorly attended. Rev. J. R. Knox, our pastor has returned and reports a very pleasant trip. Collections for the day were very good.
MRS. A. M. HAMILTON, Rep.

NOTES FROM ST. ROSE BAPTIST CHURCH.

It seems that God has placed pastor Johnson at the head of affairs here that old M. Rose might come into her own. Last Sabbath our Sunday school was well attended and two were added to this department. The morning service was enjoyed by large crowds which was held at 10:30 a. m. by another one of pastor Johnson's able lectures. He has used as a subject, "Look After Your Business."
May the Lord bless the race with more men of pastor Johnson's type. We were shipped with pastor Johnson at 10:30 a. m. The B. Y. P. U. held front stage at 8 p. m. with a splendid crowd. The Sward Drill as managed by Mrs. Panay Johnson, directress was quite enjoyable. We were getting ready for Memorial Week in August. The pastor was at his best again Sunday night. Two friends were ready, but a large audience heard him. Our splendid choir, which has taken on new life under pastor Johnson's excellent direction, simply tried itself Sunday night. It too, will be heard from at the coming session of the Zion Rest Association.

Deacon O. B. Claiborne has learned how to manage his fine Overland. Deacon L. Coby's job keeps him on on Sundays, and we miss him in the prayer service.
Brother Alexander is among the most happy of pastor Johnson's auditors every Sunday.
Mrs. M. A. Hawkins, who was badly beaten by another woman recently is up and out again, to the delight of her many friends.
Investigation has proven Mrs. Hawkins innocent of any crime in connection with the much regretted affair. The Home Mission Band went "over the top" Monday evening. Forty persons were present and all were strengthened by the Bible Lesson which was taught by the pastor. The Eureka Business College, a new race enterprise for which the pastor is responsible gives promise of much success. It is located at 2613 Elm street. Mrs. Lovie Brown has enrolled, being the first to begin a course in practical stenography. Mrs. Dr. Donnel will soon begin a course in Elocution. If you wish to enjoy a real spiritual treat, hear our pastor Sunday morning. Our delegates leave for the National Baptist Congress in Bessemer, Ala., June 1st. Come along. Reduced rates have been granted and if 15 persons go in a body, Dallas will see us leave in a special car. Come on.

MT. MORIAH BAPTIST CHURCH.

The club of Mt. Moriah Baptist Church is still moving on under the leadership of Bro. Jesse McDonald and his staff of officers. The spirit of the Sunday school and evangelistic strength seems to glow with earnestness as never before. Thirty minutes was allowed for the lesson, and the degree of interest having become so intense the time was extended 10 minutes.
The lesson was very interesting and well defined.
W. A. LOTT, Pastor.

EL BETHEL BAPTIST CHURCH, OAK CLIFF, WEEK OF INSTALLATION OF PASTOR.

Dallas, Texas, May 26, 1919.
The installation services were well attended and profitable. Many logical sermons were delivered.
Visiting ministers who delivered practical and soul stirring sermons were: Rev. D. A. Butler of Mt. Hope Baptist Church, Terrell, McElveen of Macedonia, Dallas; Dr. E. Arlington Wilson of Macedonia, who delivered an excellent and practical installation sermon. Dr. C. C. Harper of St. John, Dallas, and Prof. M. M. Rodgers were interesting speakers.
Pastor D. D. Moore, D. D., preached a great sermon. Collection $393.90. New members are being received in to membership each Sunday; fifteen were added to the roll within the past three weeks.
Plans are now being matured for completion of the new brick structure for the church. The departments of the church are well harnessed and are preparing to do efficient service. Watch for great work later. Mrs. D. Moore is with us and is meeting a hearty reception and welcome from the membership. Visitors are cordially invited, as our church is the "stranger's home."
DR. B. MOORE, D. D. Pastor
R. E. JONES, Clerk.

FRIENDSHIP BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

Rev. F. K. White, D. D., Pastor.
Sunday School and morning services were conducted nicely. Rev. T. L. Molelet has been acting pastor during the absence of our pastor, Dr. White. Mr. M. A. Bena make a short talk to the Sunday School. Mid week services were grand. Dr. White will return from his visit Saturday to be present in the beginning of our financial rally, which will begin Sunday June 1st. Every auxiliary is working hard to raise their respective amounts by the close of the rally.
MISS MABEL HARRIS, Reporter.

As its mother sang it to sleep, and we have watched the white baby under similar conditions as the black nurse sang the same lullaby and fail this is not a reason, but a kind of hint in the way of slight investigation and observation while studying to carry it into the school room. At the Fred Douglas school there is a band of martial music composed of boys in the six grade who play their instruments like little musicians that they are, a credit not only to this city, but to the entire south, boys in knee pants and not strong enough to hold the heavy instruments in their hands in the proper position and yet out of their mouths comes that breath that is transformed in perfect condition of the that instrument taught by Prof. Folk. Go on Douglas lads plenty room at the top.
