R. COLEMAN 22 T. B. MADISON 2

Such was the Record of the High and Low Score at the Gun Club Shoot, June 19th.

R. Coleman as a professional trap shooter but he had to scratch for his life Thursday, to prevent some of the amateurs getting in his class.

It was a double shot event and most of the men did some excellent shooting.

In the first half R. Coleman took first place, W. J. Shannon came second, L. Coleman third, W. E. Ewing, fourth and H. Strickland made an unlucky thirteen. T. B. Madison through mistake bought a box of black powder, was barred from the squad after he had made the first shot. He however entered the second squad and immortal two. Madison remarked its easier to sell the earth than it is to break clay pigeons. A great many spectators were present including several Indians. They enjoyed the sport and expressed a desire to become members of the club. The score made was as follows:

R. Coleman, 22; W. J. Shannon, 20; L. Coleman, 19; H. Jackson, 17; Joe Henry, 15; H. Strickland, 13; W. E. Ewing, 16; T. B. Madison, 2; Dr. P. M. Sunday, 16; J. R. Jordan, 12; W. C. Patton, 13; D. W. Whitaker, 9; A. Adams, 17.

In the second event some of the contestants scores were raised and some were lowered. We only print the score of the first shoot.
