

W. R. ASBURN, D. D. Chicago, Formerly of Virginia.

Dr. Asburn will preach the Famous Six Sermons at Munger Avenue Baptist church, on Munger street, near the Colored High School, Rev. W. M. Lofton, pastor. To hear these sermons is to hear the very best, it is said that no man has ever come to Texas with a more vital message for the race.

Each night will be special, for all of these sermons are captivating and elevating to the most critical hearer, a special choir will furnish music, and each auxiliary will have special mention and have part on the program each evening, so it will be best for the public to miss none of these meetings.

Friday night the subject will be "God's Call to the Race," and we are sure it will pay every Colored person to come and hear for yourself. Don't forget the date, June 24th to June 27th, 1919.

Independent Baptist Church,

Rev. P. R. Humber, Pastor, Sunday school opened on time by Supt. Johnson. Lesson, subject, "Prayer." Motto text—In Nothing be Anxious, but in Everything by Prayer and Supplication with Thanks giving, Let Your Request be Made Known Unto God. This lesson was beautifully discussed by the teachers and scholars and much benefit was derived therefrom. Central:

Prayer, a Privilege and duty and not an obligation. Lesson reviewed by the pastor. Miss C. A. Griffin was present and spoke encouragingly to the school. Banner class No. 12, reported 65 cents, total collection $4.65. At 11:30, the pastor spoke along the lines of entertaining the Sunday school Congress, after which he took for text, Gal. 1:5, subject Christians Stand Fast in the Liberty.

The Sir Knights and Daughters of Tabor were unable to form the march to the church for their annual Thanksgiving on account of the continual rain, but met at the hall and Rev. C. L. Humber delivered the sermon and a nice repast was enjoyed by all. A crowd was present. Loyal, true and brave are coming in. Tabor stands for true men and women. Let us continue to march on.

Bethel Notes.

Rev. M. L. Covington, Pastor. The inclement weather Sunday didn't hinder all of Zion's travelers. Sunday school was sublime with Supt. Harris leading. Lesson subject "Prayer" was well taught.

After Sunday school that orator and scholar, Rev. C. L. Humber drove the lesson of "Prayer" home to our hearts in a great way in a brief sermon.

Come again, Reverend, our doors stand ajar. Visitors have a standing invitation and a cordial welcome at all times.
