Sunday was a high day at St. Paul Baptist church. The smallest crowd that ever attended the largest collection ever raised. It seems that every one is in harmony with Rev. Washington. We are planning to build a real church in the near future. Services began Sunday morning at 10 a. m. with our Supt. Bro. Gus Campbell at his post. The crowd was small but we had a good lesson. Class No. 1, taught by T. J. Johnson. Two visitors were received by the pastor, in the person of Sisters Malice Blanton and Williams. Remarks by the Supt. Collection $2.00. Preaching service began at 11:00 a. m. and continued until 10 p. m. with short sermons by the pastor, which were splendid. At 3:20 p. m. we were treated with a splendid program by the Home Mission Society. Program began without announcements. Solo, by Maud Plummer; Paper—Sister Carter, subject, "Mission in the City"; Solo—Jewel Hollins; Closing remarks—Dora Drake; Sermon by the pastor. We have a real pastor a Ranger. He preached two of the best sermons we ever witnessed Sunday. Our assistant pastor, Rev. Nickberry was out of town Sunday at his church. B. Y. P. U. was conducted by Vice-president, Bro. Gus Campbell. We had a good Union Model Union taught by Rev. Pitts Miller. Review by the pastor. Remarks by the president. Our Home Mission sisters are excellent. They can not be surpassed in any way. Do you know they are doing some real mission work in Ranger that deserves credit? They have furnished the pulpit and pastors study with tables and chairs, and their future plans are to dress our pastor up and put a carpet on our church floor. Collection for the day, $5.00. Mrs. W. H. Wilson of Tulsa, Okla., is in town visiting her brother, Mr. Henry Hill. President of Home Mission Society will leave tonight for Fort Worth to spend the week.
