Honey Grove, Sept. 29.—The people of this place were all smiles to welcome the Rev. Mooney back after an absence of a few days at Point, Texas, where he has been conducting a meeting. He preached Thursday night at Spence Chapel A. M. E. Church, and Sunday found us all coming through the rain to hear this great pastor. Subject was: "Christ our Refuge." He is an Evangelist of some renown. A pastor who does things. Mrs. Mattie Burnough and Mrs. Leatha Shom from Dodd City worshipped with us Sunday. Rev. Demon, the blind preacher, preached at the Baptist church Sunday. He is a great speaker. Rev. Mooney said the great need for men and women who were true and tried was here, and if we felt strong and able we should help to fight the battle of the weak and bring them to the throne of God and its equivalent. Rev. Mooney said the Dallas Express was a great paper and deserved the support of the Colored people of this city. The Reverend advised the people to raise what they needed for their immediate consumption on their own farm and back yard. Live closer to God, believe in ourselves and our brother and prosper; read more and send our children to school to learn. Dallas Express and said he would not must laugh at defeat, must let each failure be a stronger determination to make good. Rev. Mooney was in Dallas last week shaking hands with friends. He will be urged to return to Point, Texas, another year. He surely loves the Dallas Express and said he would do something for it wherever he goes. May the Lord bless the young man in his fight onward. B. B. Burnough, Telephone, Texas.

Mineral Wells, Sept. 29.—Notwithstanding the inclement weather, S. S. was well attended. At 11 o'clock services were good. Pastor Sutton was called to Dallas to funeralize one of his members. Rev. Sheppard preached Sunday morning. B. Y. P. program was good. Rev. Redmond, District Missionary, preached Wednesday and Thursday at Bethel. Mrs. Viola Williams of Bryant visited Mrs. Carter and Sutton. P. E. J. W. McKinney of the C. M. E. church was here Sunday holding his last quarter of the year. Rev. Allen, P. C. The quarter was a success. Rev. Talley closed his 10 days' meeting Sunday night. He will baptize several Sunday, October 2nd. Rev. Johnson was at his post Sunday night. Mr. C. A. Fisher and wife are preparing to leave for El Paso, where they will make their future home. On last Tuesday, Sept. 29, 1921, Mr. C. L. Picha of Bremond, Texas, and Mrs. Parlee Scates of Tyler, Texas, were united in matrimony at the home of the bride's daughter, Mrs. P. E. Jackson. Rev.

White Pock, Dallas, Sept. 29.—Services were well attended at both churches Sunday. Rev. C. C. Christian and his members were in their rally Sunday; raised the nice sum of $70.00. This entertainment given by the sisters of Rev. Glasgow's church, cleared a nice sum of $6.00. The community will miss the Tarpley girls who have gone to town to spend the winter. Mrs. Laura Bryan is still sick, improving slowly. The community was shocked at the accident that happened to Mr. Lee Bledsoe. He was crossing the Cotton Belt railroad, a passenger train struck him and carried he and his buggy cushion of the busy in which he was riding several paces from the crossing and in which he sustained a fractured shoulder and skull. After the discovery by the trainmen that there was an accident, they stopped the train and took Mr. Bledsoe on board and carried him to Dallas and sent him to the Baptist Sanitarium, where he succumbed Sunday night about 1 o'clock. His remains were taken in charge by the Crawford Undertaking Co. He was a member of the C. M. E. church. Funeral services were held Tuesday evening at 2 o'clock. Van Alstyne, Sept. 29.—Services were good at all churches Sunday. The Rev. Ford announced that he would send in his report on the 1st, 3rd and 4th Sundays and he wanted the paper sent to him. The members of the Christian church went out on their annual outing last Thursday night. There was a large number present, which took three trucks to carry them. After an hour or so they pitched and anchored at Weston, Texas, our sister town, and witnessed an enjoyable time. Miss G. M. Wilson, the most celebrated soprano since left last Thursday for her school opening, which will be on the 5th of October. Miss Wilson is employed in the office of the president of Texas College at Tyler, Texas. This is acknowledged to be one of the South's finest schools. Miss Onal McBride was able to go home last Friday; she lives in Wichita Falls. She is also a student of Texas College. Mrs. Mattie Powell is visiting relatives in Abilene, Texas for a few days.
