to fill his appointment at General Mt. Zion Sunday, but he sent Rev. A. R. Reese of Crockett, and Rev. Reese surely did preach an excellent sermon, and in addition thereto gave a fine lecture which was accepted by all. If there are any comparison of Christians, we believe that Rev. Reese is in the supulative degree. We learn that Corinth C. M. E. members are still struggling to build, and among other ways they are giving a supper at the Old Zion Schoolhouse tonight, Oct. 8th, and expect to render a literary program on Saturday night before the 2nd Sunday in November for the same purpose. Mrs. D. F. Dailey is among the foremost for said church. Mrs. (Prof) Blanche of Houston, Texas, died Sept. 27th and was buried at Dixon Hope-well cemetery on Sept. 29th. Sold the copies.
