

Texas Towns.

Houston, Oct. 6.—Mrs. Willie May Tompkins, 3012 Hadley street, left Saturday for Bay City to begin her school work. Miss Effie Orange who has been spending the summer in Houston visiting her sister, Mrs. Bernice Venter, 409 Richmond St., left last week for her home at Hattiesville, Texas. Mrs. Carrie Gordon returned from Waco, Texas, Saturday where she was called to attend the official Board of the U. K. T. of Texas Jurisdiction. Mrs. Sarah Jane Blanchett, 1003 Ruthven street died last Tuesday. Her remains were shipped to Crockett, Texas. Kelly Williams died last Thursday and was buried Sunday. It is reported that Mr. Bob Roberts, the real estate agent, left Houston a few days ago with two sons, Mr. Ed. Francis died last week. Funeral was Sunday from Antioch Baptist church, of which he was a member. Mr. E. Alaborn returned from Marlin, Texas, last week where he has been in search of health.

Wanted.—More readers for the Dallas Express. Copies for sale at Dorcas Cafe, 715 Prairie St., or Little Queen Barber Shop, 715 San Felipe street, and at Rice's cold drink stand, 2414 McKinney Ave. or see Wm. Archibald, the agent, 422 San Felipe Street. Phone Preston 1480.

Texarkana, Oct. 6.—Texarkana was greatly delighted with a great lecture by Dr. Budannock, a native of Cuba. He said many good things High School Auditorium. Dr. Budannock is well acquainted with the characteristics and conditions of our people despite the fact he is of Cuba. He said many good things and gave much wholesome advice during his discussion. He didn't have much time to tarry in this city, but when he shall have returned, if ever this is possible, he will find the doors of Texarkana open to him. The world, State of Texas and the people need more such men as this accomplished man. Come again doctor, you are as welcome as the flowers in May. C. A. Gray, Reporter.

McKinney, Oct. 6.—Sunday School is progressing at the Free Will Baptist Church with a good attendance. Mrs. H. Graves as its Supt. Teachers are Mrs. J. W. Watty, Mrs. Mrs. Janie Jagers, Mrs. Willie Wilson, Mrs. A. W. Watty. The ladies above mentioned realized a nice sum from a Chicken Supper Saturday night. Miss Mabel Bell is able to be up after several weeks illness. As the reporter entered a barber shop to deliver some papers Saturday, some cowardly sneak thief helped themselves to my papers, which caused me to be short with my regular readers. We are being asked why we must not have any writers; we must say we do not know, unless the people fail to contribute to the news reporter who can't report the happenings unless informed of the same. If you will do this in the future the reporter will do the rest. We would like to have some little boys Saturdays from about 2 to 6 p. m. to sell the Express. Call at Faulkner's Cafe and ask for W. H. Mayo. We are more than pleased with the response for the 100 readers we called for. Read the Dallas Express, your paper. Remember we deliver to your door, rain or shine, if you only give us an order.

Teague, Oct. 6.—Sunday School was well attended at all churches Sunday. Rev. Coleman preached at the First Baptist church, in South Town last Sunday night. Mrs. E. H. Hall of Jewett, Texas, was in town visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Brewer. There were many persons in town last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Rodgers have made their arrival. Many of the city people are attending the Lebaton Association at Salen this week. There is a great demand for the Express on account of the order coming short. It is strange some of the people are turning the paper down at the present price of 5c. when they bought regular at 10c. It is very strange to the agent; however, we thank you for the past patronage and stand ready to serve you in the future. R. J. Brewer.

Caney, Oct. 6.—Sunday School was well attended at the churches Sunday. Rev. R. E. Ewells preached at the 2nd Baptist church. Quite a number of people attended the services at Church Hill and others attended the funeral of Mr. Charlie Winn of Corinth. Hon. H. L. Price is still in Houston in interest of a big Pythian drive. He writes that he is still walking and talking for Caney, though business calls him away. Mr. Jas. Hudson, formerly of Palestine is spending some time in this city. Miss Lula M. Hollis of Nacogdoches is with us now as she began teaching school Monday morning. Public School started this last Monday. Prof. A. J. Jesse, Prof. J. L. Hamilton and Miss L. M. Hollis. There was a large enrollment. Miss Maud Garper is home after spending several days in Kemp, Texas. Prof. J. L. Hamilton spent Sunday beforenoon with parents. Mr. W. C. Price, Mr. B. S. Sneed, Prof. J. L. Hamilton and several others made trips to Jacksonville this week. Mr. George Hamilton is out of town this week. Mr. W. B. Bailey is doing a real cafe business. He bought 6 head of cattle and 4 hogs for his market. The Hamilton-Brass Gin is still busy and Prof. Hamilton is still buying cotton. See J. F. Price for the Express.

Posta, Oct. 6.—Sunday was a fine day and everybody attended services at church some-where. S. S. was fine at Plain View as usual. Rev. S. Garner filled his regular appointment at Plain View. At night he filled the rostrum at Mt. Moriah. He also began his school at Mt. Elm on Sept. 25th, where he was elected for the term as principal. Prof. G. W. Bradford will open school at Iron Hill, Oct. 3rd, as principal. Prof. W. V. Cleaver opened his school at Shady Grove, Sept. 26th, as principal. School will begin at Plain View, Oct. 10th, with Mrs. Ella Christian, as principal. Mr. Alvin Herndon has the leading cotton production this year. We have our eyes on him as a live wire. The cotton crop in these parts are the shortest in the history of the last 25 years. Most farmers are through with the picking and have turned in the fields for pasture. Cotton sold Saturday on the streets here for 19 1-2 cents per pound. Announcements come that the Colored National Woodmen will pull off a grand entertainment at Plain View School house on Friday and Saturday nights, Oct. 14th and 15th. Everybody is invited. Mrs. Lula Coleman who has been confined to her bed for almost a year, succumbed to her illness Thursday, Sept. 29th, and was laid to rest in the Henry Cemetery on the 30th. Mr. Tommy Leonard who has been confined to his bed for six weeks is reported some better. Mrs. Della Cleaver is sick listed this week. Mrs. Mottie Hill is indisposed at this writing. Miss Thelma Kyle is suffering at this writing with an attack of rheumatism. Miss Johnnie Mae Kyle, and Little Miss Alenza Ferguson of Alto, visited the sick in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Kyle on Sept. 25th, and returned home on the 26th. Mrs. Harriett Mannell is sick listed this week. The reporter had the pleasure to pay Rusk a pleasant visit and found most of the people from home. While there he sold several copies of the Express to Rusk people, who are old patrons of the Express. Hello! Hello! Hello! Rusk. Mr. Wesley Cox, and Supt. P. B. Hicks went to Jacksonville on business Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hartley visited Mrs. Joella Hardaway's home folks in Cushing Thursday. Mrs. Joella is still at her old home, on a fortnight's visit. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Fuller and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fuller of Pine Hill graced our streets Saturday Sept. 25th. Mrs. Minerva Fuller visited in the home of her father, Mr. R. B. Johnson, on 25th ult. Don't forget to attend school on the 10th. J. L. Kyle, Rep.

Marshall, Oct. 6.—The big revival at Bethesda is beginning to warm up. Rev. J. H. May is getting busy in connection, a big Bazaar is meeting with success. Mr. J. Q. Robinson does not improve rapidly. The big entertainment at Mallinieu mill goes on. Prof. and Mrs. J. D. Sanford leaves for Ore City to take up school. Good services at Ebenezer M. E. church, Rev. W. D. Lewis, pastor. Uncle Richard L. Lane was able to be in town Saturday. He is real feeble. Mrs. V. A. Grundy is very sick at her home on Bishop street. Mrs. R. D. Barnett is spending a part of the summer in Atlanta. Mr. Wardo Penteo, a Jamaican, died very suddenly at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore. No one knows the duration of his sickness or the cause of his death. It is supposed it was from heart failure. He was unknown. All that was known he was from Jamaican Island and that he had a brother in California, and mother in the Island. He had been working for the good roads. Why not read the Dallas Express, the cheapest and best paper of the southwest, delivered right at your door for two dollars and twenty-five cents ($2.25) per year, or 5 cents per copy. Phone 833—send in your news or phone them in. Delivered to any portion of the town. Let me hear from you. Rev. John H. Hudson was able to be in town Friday, feeling much better. District Court is grinding away on the criminal docket; several murder cases tried.

Jacksonville, Oct. 6.—Rev. T. B. Johnson, pastor Sweet Union Baptist Church held his regular appointment Sunday. Services were good. Mrs. Jane Dees died Sept. 25th. Funeral was held at First Baptist church. Rev. Johnson officiated. She was a faithful member of this church. Remains were laid to rest in the Alexander cemetery. Mrs. Roxie Medlock and family of Jasper are in the city visiting Mr. and Mrs. Abe Clemens. Mrs. Rosie Jinks spent Thursday and Friday in Tyler attending the fair. Misses E. L. Danby, Annie Smith of Grapeland spent a few days in the city, the guest of Mrs. Lena Reins. Mr. Jack Redden and brother were called to Lone Oak to attend the funeral of their sister. Mr. Pat Johnson of Wildhurst was here Sunday visiting his people. Mr. Andrew Herod of Grapeland was in the city a few days last week, enroute to Crandell. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Pierce, a baby girl, Oct. 2nd. Baby and mother doing fine. Services were good at the C. M. E. church. Sunday School was well attended. Rev. J. E. Collins of the Jacksonville Circuit, is grand time at his church. The corner stone was laid by the Masonic Lodge, $124.00 was raised.

Ennis, Oct. 6.—Rev. Horace Jones died Sept. 29th. He was a member of the Fourth Ward Baptist church. Funeral was attended from that church by Rev. Scott, pastor. He was born in 1859, was the father of 14 children. He professed a hope in Christ in his early life some 50 years ago. Seven of his children survive him. He entered the ministry about 41 years ago. And was a veteran of the Civil War in which he saw two years' service. Rev. E. L. Lockett spoke of the faithful works of this great character. Mr. A. O. Rogers will commence his studies in Meharry Medical College, Nashville, Tenn., this coming term. He has gone for the opening. Mr. Rogers is a graduate of Paul Quinn College at Waco, Texas. Rev. Harrison preached for Mrs. Garill's Club at Wayman Chapel A. M. E. church. $50.00 was collected. Services were good at all churches Sunday. Rev. J. R. Richardson moved to Dallas. Read the Express.

Rusk, Oct. 6.—Services at both churches Sunday were good. Rusk High School pulled off a fine concert at Bullard, Texas, Friday night. Rev. Price passed through Rusk and stopped over with Rev. Sweet Sunday night. Mrs. Garrell, Miss M. E. Lat-timer, Miss Beatrice Beachem, Vera Gordon, and George Gipson motored to Nask Sunday. Mr. Jack Kennedy and family motored to Alto. Mrs. McKnight from Tyler, is with Mr. Milton and family. J. M. Pinkston, Jr., is improving from a broken arm. Mr. and Arthur Weems and wife of Dallas were here Sunday, the guests of his mother, Mrs. Hannah Weems. Mrs. Maggie Simmons of Oklahoma friends and relatives. Master Geo. Smith is visiting at Lufkin. The Dum Party given at Mr. and Mrs. E. Hicks was a success.
