

Tribute to a Hero.

BY W. W. MANER.
Hampton with Hampden, equal heir of glory,
Shall hand in hand go down in living story;
His country's pride shall shine in history's van,
Model of hero, patriot and man;
His name be told by sires to listening sons
Second to none—or none but Washington's!

And close to Hampton's, lit with lurid flame,
See, scroiled in blood, the ruthless Sherman's name!
Immortal, too, by Odin's title won,
Rival and peer of Attila the Hun!
Rape, murder, rapine, wasting fire and sword,
Marked the red path of Sherman and his horde,
And desolation howls wh'er'er he trod,
Withered be Sherman's blood stained wreath
of fame!
Each leaf of laurel hides a thorn of shame,
Oh, name accursed! Woman shall pale with fear,
And good men hiss, when "Sherman" strikes
the ear,
History shall shriek, as on her fatal page,
She huris the hateful thing from age to age;
And Sherman finds all pitiless as he,
Inexorable, just Posterity!
For ye shall live, triad, abhorred of man,
SHERMAN and ATILLA, and GENGHIS KHAN,
Tear from his brow the wreath of glorious deed!
On blood-hound's collar stamp his name instead!
The sacred laurel, meed of hero praise,
Would wither, scorched, upon a brow like his.
Yes, Hampton's conqueror! thy day is now!
To-morrow Hampton's, and the conquered thou!
On Honor's roll, thou art not Hampton's peer.
In glory's lists, 'tis he the conqueror!
Brave Bayard fell, yet lives a matchless fame,
None speak, or speak to scorn, the Bourbon's name,
So, prostrate now, to country, Honor, true
The modern Bayard, Sherman, "pitiless" you.

WIT AND HUMOR.

Some men's minds are so badly tumbled that they can't be made up.

There's no use in distributing tracts among the intractable.

We like not the woman who, when present, is distant.

Some people's virtues are only found on their tombstones.

If your swine have hog-cholera cure them, or else don't cure the bacon.

The prettiest lining for a bonnet is a smiling face.

What is love? A little sighing, a little crying, and a great deal of lying.

The best way to discipline one's heart against scandal, is to believe all stories to be false, which ought not to be true.

Blessed are they that do not advertise, for they will not be troubled with customers.

An exchange asks why do ladies have so great fear of lightning? Why, because they are so very attractive.

A man will always escape failure, in either body or mind, who work six days in the week.

It is an extraordinary fact that when people come to what is called high words, they generally use low language.

Somebody told us the other day that one half the lawyers live without a cause and die without effect.

A man, who got drunk at an election, said it was owing to his efforts to put down "party spirit."

Hours of joy go dancing by with down upon their feet; but those of sorrow drag as heavily as though they had tar on their heels.

There are a few qualifications essential to a good wife, viz:—that virtue dwell in her heart, that modesty play on her brow, that sweetness flow from her lips, and industry occupy her hands.

The bachelor Editor of the News says that "woman is the fairest work of creation." The edition is quite an extensive one, and we think no man should be without a copy.

Men are like hughes—the more brass they contain the further you can hear them. Women are like tulips—the more modest and retired they appear the better you like them.

Life is shortened by indulgence in anger, ill-will, anxiety, grief, sorrow, and excessive care. The vital powers are wasted by excessive bodily exercise in some cases, and want of a due portion in others.

"Ah, me," said a pious lady, "our minister was a powerful preacher; for the short time he ministered the word of God among us, he kicked three pulpits to pieces and banged the in'ards out of five Bibles."

A female correspondent of a St. Louis paper, speaks of a sight she saw lately that made her "smack her lips." It seems a pity that the ladies in that city have to smack their own lips. In this latitude men are always ready to save them that trouble.

Two sons of Erin were standing by a hydraulic press, when one called out to the other: "Jim, I'd like to put yez under and squeeze the devil out o' yez." "Would ye, indade, my boy?" was the answer. "Squeeze the devil out o' yez, an' there'd be nothing left!"

A gentleman advertised for a wife through the papers and received answers from eighteen hundred and ninety-seven husbands saying that he could have theirs. This is a practical illustration of the value of advertising.

An old author quaintly remarks "Avoid argument with ladies. In spinning yarns among silks and satins, man is sure to be worsted. And when a man is worsted and twisted, he may consider himself wound up."

A bachelor informs young ladies that almost any young man whom they could wish to attract by the display of shoulders, &c., in low dressiug, has seen much prettier; and is very apt to make comparisons to their disadvantage.

CHARLESTON PRESBYTERY.—This body has just closed its session at Orangeburg. The Times notices its proceedings. We extract the following paragraphs:

Several important matters came up and were carefully considered; more more important than "the relations of the colored people of the Presbyterian Church," as affected by their freedom. This matter was fully and anxiously discussed with the heartiest desire on the part of all to make any wholesome changes appropriate to their new condition. Various plans were proposed, and patiently and frankly examined. But such was the delicacy and difficulty of the subject, that action on it was at last postponed for six months, in the hope that interchange of views and further experience might enlighten us upon it.

Two important Churches in Charleston—important and flourishing, too, in former days, now sadly reduced by late events—Globe-street and Zion Churches—were united at their own request, under the name of Zion Church, and the care of that eloquent and excellent gentleman, Rev. J. L. Glendon.

A FRIGHTFUL TORNADO AT THE WEST.—The particulars of a frightful tornado which passed over a portion of the Western country on the 20th ult., are given in the Evansville (Indiana) Courier, as related by an eye-witness to the occurrence. The storm was attended by dense blackness, and the air filled with terrific rumblings and roarings. The tornado moved from West to East, and was especially effective in small villages. In some instances, horses were taken up bodily and carried along at a furious rate. Immense trees were torn up by the roots and whole orchards swept away. Some heavy objects were carried to a distance of several miles. Nearly everything that the tornado touched was made useless or completely ruined. One house was taken up and blown to atoms. Many lives were lost and numerous injuries to persons are reported. Out of a family of nine, one was killed and eight are supposed to have been mortally wounded.—The Courier estimates that not less than a thousand persons were killed or injured.

BUSINESS IN CHARLESTON.—In reference to numerous inquiries, we will state that it is the impression of leading merchants that business in Charleston this Summer, although of course, it will not be so extensive as business in Spring and Fall months, will yet bear a very favorable appearance. The merchants, it would seem, are adding on this belief, inasmuch as they are getting in remarkably good supplies of merchandise. Our business men are displaying a commendable degree of energy and enterprise, and we have confidence in their ability to strengthen and increase the trade of Charleston till it shall be equal, if not superior to that flourishing state which prevailed in former times. The newly established Board of Trade are doing much to favor the interests of the city; and we trust that suggestions emanating from that body may meet with the just consideration of parties to whom they may be addressed.—Char. News.

THE EASY BY DEMONSTRATION.—EASTPORT April 15.—Nine armed Fenians captured the English Revenue flag on Indian Island last night. They belonged to the crew of the Fenian privateer, from which they lowered a boat, and proceeded with muffled oars to the spot, actually under the guns of the English war ship Pylades, and within reach at any moment of the picket boats. The flag was surrendered without a shot being fired. It is believed there were no soldiers on the Island.

The United States gunboat Winoski arrived this forenoon and anchored off the town.

Reports from Calais say that ten of the volunteers at St. Stephen threw down their arms in revolt, but were arrested and imprisoned.

A suspicious looking brig was captured last night off the coast by the United States revenue cutter Ashuelot, and was towed into harbor here to-day.

THE TENNESSEE ELECTION.—The election in Tennessee, which occurred on Saturday last, was a most humiliating defeat for the Radicals. The bolters in Memphis and Nashville were re-elected by overwhelming majorities. In Nashville, Major Lewis, the bosom friend of Andrew Johnson, received 1836 votes, while his Radical competitor, Judge O'Brien, received only 475. In the county precincts the ratio was still greater in favor of Lewis. In Memphis, out of about 4000 votes cast, Poston and Walker, bolters, received all but 500. When it is remembered that the present franchise, when it was passed, was supposed to exclude all men of Southern proclivities from the polls, these results must be considered remarkable.

CHANGE OF SCHEDULES.—From a notice of the superintendent of the Northeastern Railroad, after the 16th inst. the Mail and Passenger trains of that road will leave Charleston at 6 a. m., and arrive at 4:45 p. m.

Schedule on the Cheraw and Darlington Road was changed as follows on the 16th inst: Leave Cheraw on Mondays, Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, at 6 a. m.; leave Florence on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at 1:15 p. m., connecting with the trains on the Northeastern Road to and from Charleston, and with the Wilmington and Manchester trains to and from Wilmington.—Char. Courier.

The Supreme Court of the United States having decided the Indiana Military Commission for the trial of civilians to be illegal, and the persons convicted by it having in consequence been discharged, there is no doubt that steps will soon be taken to procure the release of Dr. Mudd, Arnold, O'Laughlin and Spangler, convicted of conspiracy against the life of President Lincoln. The friends of these parties claim the benefit of that decision, and will take action accordingly.

LONDON, Canada West, April 10.—The supposed accomplice in the sevenfold Philadelphia murder has been arrested here. He gives his name as Charles McCutcheon. When arrested he turned pale and nearly fainted. The only discrepancy between the description of the murderer and the appearance of the prisoner is, that instead of having lost a thumb his forefinger is gone. Otherwise there is the closest identity. A further examination is about to take place.

CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA RAILROAD.—The Charlotte Times learns from Colonel William Johnston, President of the Charlotte and South Carolina Railroad, that the work of rebuilding is in rapid process of completion. The bridge across the Catawba will be ready for the trains to pass over by the 10th of May, and the entire track relaid to Columbia—thus making the connection with Charleston perfect.

A private letter from Memphis, Tennessee, under date of 8th instant, says that on the night preceding, a conflagration occurred on Main street, consuming the greater portion of one large block, comprising some of the finest stores in the place. The small box is reported to be raging there fearfully.
