Centipede a Fly Killer.

The centipede is found pretty much all over the world. The species common in the United States Scutigero foreceps, was reported over twenty years ago as devoting the nights to killing house flies. Later an observer detected one in the act of capturing a butterfly much larger than itself. The insect remains concealed during the day under doorsteps or window frames, or in any crevice sufficiently large to hide its numerous appendages.

Jolly Little Chipmunk.

The place the chipmunk fills is small and inconspicuous but his sylvan "chirrup" plays a minor strain in the wordless diapason which the mighty blue soul of nature is forever singing in her forests; solemn and consoling to heal earth's scars; jubilant and glad for the free of heart. Intoning ever some clear sweet note of mystic melody for those who listen, to awaken a dreaming bliss or to thrill an untried fiber into quivering life.

Life Much as We Make It.

No person is ever condemned to a small life. Many are assigned to small circumstances, but our lives may be as large as we want them to be. For the only limits of life, are aspiration, sympathy and interest.—Selected.

One Advantage of Education.

We have always believed in the high possibilities of the movies, and more particularly since a charming girl told us she had found you could hold hands just as well at an educational film as any other.—Grand Rapids Press.

FARM Bargains

The demand for cheaper farm lands has caused us to extend our activities to other territories, and we have succeeded in securing near Norfolk, Virginia about 50 places that are remarkable bargains.

These farms are all within 10 to 25 miles of Norfolk, in an excellent community, on highly improved hard surface roads, near good churches and schools, and are equally as good as the higher priced North Carolina farms.

We have opened an office at Fentress, Virginia, 20 miles this side of Norfolk, in charge of Mr. John E. Corey, who will be glad to show you any of these properties at any time you desire. Take the Norfolk-Southern train at Elizabeth City, first informing Mr. Corey that you will be there, and he will meet you in his car and show you these properties, giving you time to catch the next train to Elizabeth City.

Mr. Corey or our home office will be glad to furnish you any particulars.
