Philadelphia.

A General Meeting of the CITIZENS,
THIS AFTERNOON.

The subscribers having been appointed by their fellow-citizens, to prepare and report an Instrument expressive of the public thanks, for the services which were rendered by the Committee of Health, during the calamity that lately afflicted the City and neighborhood of Philadelphia; and to suggest the measures proper to be pursued, in order to carry the recommendation of that benevolent Committee into effect, deem it their duty again to call the attention of the citizens to a subject so interesting to the community upon principles of gratitude, honor and policy.
At the meetings which have been hitherto summoned, there have not attended a sufficient number of Citizens to express the public sentiment; owing, it is presumed, to a general acquiescence in the plan which has been proposed and published: But as the subscribers cannot think themselves warranted in proceeding further, upon this important occasion, without the express approbation of their Fellow-Citizens—they request a General Meeting to be held at the City-Hall, at 5 o'clock This Afternoon.
It will be remembered, that unless the citizens attend agreeably to the above appointment, the most meritorious services must pass unacknowledged. A numerous class of Orphans will probably be involved in great distress, and even the balance due to the Committee of Health must remain unpaid.
