FOR SALE,
BY MATHEW CAREY, No. 118,
Market-Street,
An Essay on Slavery,
Designed to exhibit in a new point of view its effects on morals, industry, and the peace of society. Some facts and calculations are offered to prove the labor of freemen to be much more productive than that of slaves; that countries are rich, powerful and happy, in proportion as the laboring people enjoy the fruits of their own labor; and hence the necessary conclusion, that slavery is impolitic as well as unjust.
PRICE 25 CENTS. dcf
February 15.

PHILADELPHIA.

TAKEN FROM ACTUAL SURVEY.
IT is with pleasure that the publisher has to inform his subscribers and the public in general, that the plate is now under the hands of the engraver, and in greater forwardness than was at first contemplated. At the same time he begs leave to remind them, that subscription papers are still open at most of the noted book-stores in the city; and that he hopes from the whole of them to be enabled to form such a respectable catalogue of names, as will do a credit to the work, as well as afford a reasonable encouragement to the undertaker. Those who are desirous of further information are requested to call on

(NO. 60)

District of Pennsylvania, to wit:

Be it remembered that on the twelfth day of April in the eighteenth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Benjamin Davies of the said district hath deposited in this office the title of a map, the right whereof he claims as proprietor, in the words following, to wit:

"A Ground Plan of the City and Suburbs of Philadelphia, taken from actual survey; containing an exact description of all the squares, streets and alleys in the City and Liberties; of the situation of all the principal public buildings; of the rivulets, and as much of the Canal as lies within the compass of the draft, by H. P. Folie: published by the Proprietor, Benjamin Davies."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, entitled an act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned.

Treasury Department,
Revenue Office, April 16th, 1794.

Communications by post or otherwise, will be received by way of information at the Office of the Commissioner of the Revenue from persons willing to supply iron Cannon, Cannon Ball, and Shells, for the fortifications and Ships of War. The fitness of the founders in smelting, in preparing and mixing the metal, and in casting and boring the cannon (which are to be cast solidly) will require to be particularly stated.

Similar communications will also be received from any persons willing to supply live oak and red cedar timber for the construction of the ships of war. Different plans of procuring and supplying the same may be proposed. The convenience of the situation in regard to navigation, and the state of the timber whether already fallen or hereafter to be cut, will require to be noticed.

All the necessary particulars in regard to the several articles which are wanted, will be specified in contracts intended to be grounded in part on the information, which is hereby sought.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

WHITEHALL, March 11.

IT appears by dispatches which were received yesterday by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, his Majesty's principal Secretary of State for the home department, from Vice-Admiral Lord Hood and Lieutenant-General David Dundas, dated St. Florenzo in the Island of Corfica, the 21st and 22d of Feb. 1794, that the tower and garrison of Mortella surrendered on the 10th of that month; that the strong redoubt and batteries of the Convention were taken by storm on the 17th, after a severe cannonading of two days, that the same night the enemy abandoned the tower of Forneli and two considerable sea batteries dependant upon it; that on the 19th they retreated from St. Florenzo to Bastia; that previous to their retreat one of their frigates was sunk, and another burnt in the Gulph; and that the town, forts and port were taken possession of the same day by his Majesty's land and sea forces.

The loss of the British consists of 13 killed and 39 wounded, besides six sailors of the Fortitude killed and 56 wounded, from the fire of the fort Mortella.

Congress of the United States.

IN SENATE,

Friday, April 18, 1794.

A message from the House of Representatives by Mr. Beckley their clerk:

"Mr. President—The House of Representatives have passed "a resolution to continue the present embargo on ships or vessels in the ports of the United States, bound to any foreign port or place," in which they desire the concurrence of the Senate"—And he withdrew.

The resolution was read.

A message from the House of Representatives by Mr. Beckley their clerk:

"Mr. President—The President of the United States hath notified the House of Representatives, that he this day, approved and signed the following acts—"an act to authorize Ephraim Kimberly to locate the land warrant issued to him for services in the late American army," and "an act for the relief of Leffert Lefferts and others"—And he withdrew.

Mr. Bradley reported from the committee to whom was referred the consideration of the laws passed in the Territory of the United States north-west of the river Ohio, from July to December inclusive, that they be referred to the next session of Congress; and the report was adopted.

The Senate took into consideration, "The resolution to continue the present embargo on ships or vessels in the ports of the United States, bound to any foreign port or place."

On motion,

It was agreed to amend the resolution by striking out all the provisos, as follow.

"Provided that nothing, in this resolution, be construed as intended to contravene any rights or privileges arising out of treaty or treaties between any foreign nation and the United States: And provided also, that the President of the United States be authorized to permit the sailing of any vessel for the sole purpose of lodging in the courts of vice Admiralty in any of the West India Islands, appeals from sentences or decrees of the said courts, whereby vessels or cargoes claimed by American citizen or citizens, have been condemned; Provided, that bond with sufficient security be previously given, that such vessel shall not directly or indirectly carry on any commerce whatsoever during the voyage."

On the question to concur in the resolution as amended.

It passed in the affirmative.—Yeas 17—Nays 10.

The yeas and nays being required by one fifth of the Senators present—

Those who voted in the affirmative, are,

Messrs. Brown, Burr, Butler, Edwards, Frelinghuyfen, Gunn, Hawkins, Henry, Jackson, Izard, King, Langdon, Martin,
