No. 152,
District of Pennsylvania, to wit:
BE it remembered, that on the seventeenth day of September, in the twenty-first year of the independence of the United States of America, William Mitchell, of the said district, deposited in this office the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as author, in the words following, to wit:

"A new and complete system of book-keeping, by an improved method of double entry, adapted to retail, domestic and foreign trade; exhibiting a variety of transactions which usually occur in business. The whole comprised in three sets of books; the last set being a copy of the second, according to those systems most generally in use, is given in order to exhibit, by a comparative view, the advantages of the system now laid down. To which is added, a table of the duties payable on goods, wares and merchandise imported into the United States of America. The whole in dollars and cents.
"By William Mitchell."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, intitled, "An act for the encouragement of learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned."

Fourth-street, Philad. 14th October, 1796.

On Saturday, the 22nd instant, at 6 o'clock in the evening, will be sold by Public Vendue, at the City Tavern, (if not before disposed of at private sale)
An Elegant House, No. 78,
In Walnut street;

WHICH is twenty-five feet front by one hundred and seventy-one feet deep, with a lot adjoining, 20 1-2 feet wide by 72 feet 8 inches deep—(This lot is back of the house occupied by George Willing, Esq.) The house is completely finished in every respect. It is fifty feet deep, has two large parlours, the front one 24 feet, the back one 22 feet by 18 1-2 feet; a handsome drawing-room 24 1-2 feet by 24 feet. The rooms below, the drawing-room and chambers adjoining, have mahogany doors, and these, as well as the rooms above them, have a communication with each other. The height in the first and second stories is twelve feet, and have iron cornices, and nine rooms up-stairs besides the garrets, which are divided into three rooms: a good kitchen, wash-house, milk and bathing-houses, a large ice-house, a pump in the yard, and a three feet three inch alley that leads into Fourth-street. The cellars are laid with lime, and floored with two inch plank, and plastered. The yard is well paved and the house is clear of ground-rent. Two brick stables in Walnut-street, with two coach-houses, one of them will hold two carriages the other one. The smallest stable has room for three, the largest for four horses. It is 21 feet front on Walnut-street, by 30 feet 3 inches deep. They have excellent lofts over them. The building is arched and laid with lime and two inch plank, and will hold about one hundred pipes of wine; is clear of ground-rent, and has the privilege of an 11 and 1-2 feet alley that leads into Fifth-street.

Also, a large, Brick Store, 33 feet front on Fourth-street, by 50 feet deep, which might, at a small expence, be turned into a handsome dwelling house, having been so contrived in the building. It has a yard, 48 feet 6 inches deep, by 24 feet wide; has a rain water pump, and other conveniences, and the cellar is laid with two inch plank, and is now rented at 40 dollars per month. This building is subject to a ground-rent of 11 3-4 dollars per annum. Purchasers before the sale may apply to the subscriber,
