

PROPOSALS
By WILLIAM COBBETT,
For importing the following periodical publications:

1. The British Critick;
2. The Anti-Jacobin Review and Magazine;
3. The Gentleman's Magazine;
4. Le Mercure Britanique, or The British Mercury.

The British Critick is a regular Review of all the works published in Great Britain; it is conducted with great impartiality and ability, and of the numerous publications of the kind which do now appear, and which have appeared in Great Britain; it is universally allowed to be the best.

[Price 50 Cents.]

The Anti-Jacobin Review and Magazine is as its title seems to indicate, rather more confined, as to the nature of its subjects, but it certainly is not less calculated for extensive utility. This work is divided into four departments: 1. Original Criticism—2. A Review of the other Reviews—3. Occasional Essays, in prose and verse—and 4th. A Monthly Summary of History and Politics. Every six months it has a Supplement, containing a review of foreign works, not forgetting those of America. The Anti-Jacobin dwells less on subjects which are merely literary and scientific, than on those which have a more immediate influence on society. With a bold and manly hand, it corrects the blunderings of error, traces the intricate windings of misrepresentation, and strips off the mask of hypocrisy. The avowed champion of the church and the state, it spurs the enemies of neither, whether open or secret; and, scorning the puffballous defensive, upon which the friends of truth have too long rested, it carries on a continual and vigorous offensive warfare against anarchy, immorality, and irreligion, and thus establishes by its uniform conduct, its right to the title it has assumed.

[Price 50 Cents.]

The Gentleman's Magazine, a work stamped with the approbation of three score years, consists chiefly, of communications from antiquaries and cultivators, and of original essays, in verse and prose written by the most learned and ingenious men in the kingdom, and embracing by turns, almost every subject interesting to man. The miscellaneous part of the work is followed by a selection of authentic foreign and domestic intelligence, including official reports, state-papers, and an abstract of the proceedings in parliament; next comes a very copious obituary, being not merely a list of deaths, but a valuable series of biography; to which is added, a Meteorological Diary and Table, a Bill of Mortality for London and its environs, a table of the average prices of corn, and of the stocks, for every day in the month: So that this work must ever be an entertaining and useful companion, not only to those who are of the learned professions, commonly so called, but to the merchant, the farmer, and, in short, to every man, whatever may be the subject of his study, or the object of his pursuit.

[Price 40 Cents.]

Le Mercure Britanique, or British Mercury; by Monsieur Mallet Du Pan.—This work, of which one number is published every fortnight, in French and in English, commenced in August 1793, and is continued with increasing spirit and celebrity. It is both historical and critical; it contains a summary, and is the repository, of all the important events, established facts and public instruments, which relate to the present era; it investigates points of fact, of politics, and national rights; it extends its view over all the nations of Europe, examines the conduct and discloses the motives of their respective courts; it is in short a brief and comprehensive history of the times, equally remarkable for the elegance of its style, the profundity of its remarks, and the soundness of its principles.

[Price 50 Cents.]

These four works comprise every thing useful in the periodical way. Gentlemen may subscribe for all, or for either of them. The first order is intended to be sent off on the 1st of May next; the three following numbers will be received at New York in two months upon an average after their publication in London; so that those which are subscribed for on or before the 1st of May, will be received in September; after which they will with very little irregularity, come to hand once a month, the importer having made such arrangements as cannot fail of securing punctuality on the part of his correspondents.

Subscriptions will be received from any part of America, by J. W. FENNO, Philadelphia. No advance is required. The prices are but five cents a number higher than in London.

Fifty Dollars Reward.
RAN AWAY from the Subscriber, on the morning of Saturday the 19th instant, a mulatto Servant Man, named Wilks, but commonly called John; he is about 23 years old, 5 feet 8 inches high, slender and knock-kneed; he is a dark mulatto, has thick bushy hair, which he commonly wears plaited and turned up short behind; his face is thin, but appears more so from having large whiskers; he had on when he went away, a round hat about half worn, white muslin cravat, a brown second hand coat with fashionable metal buttons, a black felt waistcoat, with a white one underneath, pantaloons of a greyish cloth with buttons at the ankles, striped cotton stockings and shoes. He may have changed these clothes, but it is not likely, as he has left all his others behind him. I am told a servant of General Ridgely's, with whom he was intimate ran away on Sunday morning; it is not improbable but they are together. Wilks is from Chester-town on the eastern shore of this State, where he lived with a Mr. Jeremiah Nichol; who told him to me. I have good reason to believe he has gone to Philadelphia. The above reward will be given to any person who may lodge him in jail at that or any other place, and give me or Mr. Joseph S. Lewis of Philadelphia notice of the time.
He is an excellent hotel servant, and if in Philadelphia will probably offer himself to hire in that capacity.
