THE SIEGE OF SAVANNAH.

The City Closed to the Influx of Refugees.

GARRISON ILLY PROVIDED WITH SUPPLIES.

Further Particulars of the March Through Georgia.

INTERESTING INCIDENTS BY THE WAY.

THE QUESTION OF SUPPLIES FOR THE CITY.

FOR McALLISTER, DECEMBER 19, 1863. My letter of the 17th inst. with the capture of the city of Savannah, and the entrance to the river waters of the Decatur and the investment of the doomed city. In it I have given you a full and complete account of the march of Sherman's army, and of the capture of the city of Savannah, and of the large number of refugees who fled before him and took refuge within the city walls.

THE CANADIAN DIFFICULTY.

MILWAUKEE, Dec. 19.—The following general news items were received today:—

DECATUR, Ga., Dec. 19, 1863. The Government received official despatches from Savannah on yesterday, when all was well, and a demonstration on the city on the 17th. It is reported that the army made a demonstration on Savannah on Tuesday, and was repulsed. It is supposed to have been only a feint, and that the army is now on its march towards the city of Savannah.

THE CITY CLOSED AGAINST REFUGEES.

Another full conference of this kind was held in the afternoon at Savannah, and a night, closed the city to the influx of refugees, and in some instances to the white. A man must have considerable influence or his family will be refused admission to the city.

APPEALATIONS UPON THE FUTURE.

Should Sherman take Savannah in a few weeks, what will be his next move? Is a question proposed by his many friends here, and it is one that is being discussed in every household. Sherman has no military operations on the coast of Georgia, and his march is now a march of inland conquest, his path to victory is not along the river, but through the interior of the State.

DEATHS OF UNION PRISONERS AT CHARLESTON.

The following is a partial list of Union prisoners of war who have died at Charleston, S. C., from August 26, 1862, to December 13, 1863.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, December 21.—There is nothing of interest transpiring in this department. The enemy keeps their fire, but so persistently as formerly, on the Dutch Gap canal. Very few casualties occur, owing to precautions taken to avoid the shells.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 21.—The report of the Central Pacific Railroad Company is published. The California end of the road shows the earnings of thirty-one miles of road for seven months, during which time it has been in operation, to be $100,000 in gold, of which $18,000 is gold and the rest in silver.

TO-DAY'S WASHINGTON NEWS.

Special Despatches to Evening Telegraph.

WASHINGTON, December 23.

The case of Colonel Baker. The Chief of the Army of the Potomac, General Burnside, charged the jury in the case of Colonel Baker, that the arbitrary arrests are unjustifiable unless the officer making the arrest shows his authority. Colonel Baker was found guilty of assault and battery.

THE FRENCH MISSION.

Senator Halle's mission was presented to the President today for the French mission. He is supported by sundry Republican Senators, while prominent ones of the Democratic persuasion are especially jealous. Among the new and possible candidates for the mission the name of General Fremont is brought forward. It is claimed his selection would prove more valuable to us and acceptable to the French court than that of any other public man.

FROM BALTIMORE TO-DAY.

Special to the Evening Telegraph.

Baltimore, December 23. I learn that Mrs. Sarah Hutchins, wife of Thomas Hutchins, who was convicted recently by a military commission here, and sentenced to five years imprisonment in Fitchburg prison, Massachusetts, and five thousand dollars fine, has been pardoned by the President. Mrs. Hutchins was convicted for sending a sword to the Rebel Harry Gilmer.

THE REBELS FLEEING THE REBEL CONFEDERACY—FIGHT OF FIVE TYPES FOR BOSTON.

From the Richmond Daily, December 20. The three prisoners who were caught while attempting to escape the Yankees are still being held by military court-martial, which sits in the State Court House. The two Pennsylvanians, Charles and William, were held yesterday. Though caught by act of Congress, from military service, and not belonging to the regular army, they were held as traitors to the Union, and if convicted will be shot by the Federal Guard. If attempting to go to the enemy in disguise, they are guilty by their own confession, and that place, instead of a popular field, which is in a fair way to be exposed by a trial, that is an offense against the law, and will be punished by persons belonging to the land or naval forces.

THE REBEL COMMISSARY-GENERAL OF PRISONERS.

From the Richmond Daily, December 20. General John H. Winter is expected to reach Richmond today, and he is expected to be the commissary-general of prisoners. He is a new officer to which the general has been appointed, with the rank of major, and is expected to be the commissary-general of prisoners. He is expected to be the commissary-general of prisoners.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

SUPREME COURT AT NEW PARIS—Judge Road. —Ketchum, trustee vs. Gold. Verdict for plaintiff $150. No other case on the list being ready for trial, Judge was discharged for the term and Court adjourned.

THE SHERMAN CASE.

General Sherman's case is now being discussed in every household. Sherman has no military operations on the coast of Georgia, and his march is now a march of inland conquest, his path to victory is not along the river, but through the interior of the State.

THIRD EDITION BUTLER--PORTER.

THE GREAT EXPEDITION.

DISPATCH FROM GEN. GRANT.

Arrival of the Fleet in Cape Fear River.

WILMINGTON AROUSED.

NEW YORK, December 21.—A special dispatch to the Tribune says:—

WASHINGTON, December 21.—General Grant telegraphs that Richmond papers last in state that an official despatch from Wilmington, North Carolina, dated yesterday (Wednesday), at 10 A. M., reports that the advance of the army's fleet arrived of that port during the night. Over thirty steamers are now assembling, and more following.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

WASHINGTON, December 21.—The Republican says:—

The Government received a despatch last night from General Grant at City Point, announcing that the Richmond papers of yesterday morning (the 20th), contain an official despatch from General Grant to Jeff. Davis, dated Fort Fisher, New Inlet, December 21, (Wednesday), reading as follows:—

Despatch from General Grant:—

"The entire fleet of the enemy is in sight, but cannot operate."

"The weather continues bad."

"We are able to hold Wilmington."

REBEL REPORTS FROM CHARLESTON.

BALTIMORE, December 21.—The Associated Press letter from Fort Mifflin says the Charleston Courier of the 16th contains the following:—

A flag of truce was brought up on Thursday last, and four paroled Confederate officers from Fort Palmetto.

The Yankee officers in the report that General Sherman and staff have arrived at Hilton Head. Also, that it was rumored that Thursday, December 18, that Sherman, on Savannah, had been informed of the fall of Fort McAllister, but give no particulars.

Another thousand of Yankee prisoners will be taken down this morning. This completes the exchange, and makes the number turned over by Colonel Hild 11,000.

DEPARTMENT OF THE GULF.

Arrival of Union Prisoners from Texas on the Rio Grande, etc.

CALICO, December 21.—The steamer Pauline arrived from New Orleans on the 14th inst., and arrived at this port today with a few barrels of provisions. The steamer transport, from Galveston, on the 12th, has arrived at New Orleans with three hundred and forty-two ex-Confederate prisoners from Camp Grant, Texas. The men, who were in the most wretched condition, have been supplied with the necessary articles for their comfort by the agent of the Sanitary Commission, General Hamilton and family also arrived at Brown on the steamer Clinton.

Late Matamoros papers state the reinforcements had arrived at Brown, San Antonio is swelling our force there to three thousand, five hundred of whom are regulars. The Rebels make frequent sallies from Brownsville, which is not fortified, and have numerous skirmishes with the Federal troops.

There is no change to report in the New Orleans market.
