

AMUSEMENTS.

ARCH STREET THEATRE.—Naomi is a version of Mosenthal's Deborah. It is much nearer the German version than Mr. Daly's, but we prefer Mr. Daly's, which may not be as classical, but which is far more effective.

NEW CHESTNUT STREET THEATRE.—Henry Dunbar attracts each night more and more. The admirable acting of Mr. Clarke, Mr. Mordant, and the genius of Miss Union have all made the deepest impression on the public.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE.—This evening Mr. Clarke will give the Heir-at-Law, with other entertainments.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—THE LAST OF THE MUSICAL MONTAGNES.—The only thing that is pleasant in the announcement of Mr. Leonard Drew, is that the opera season commencing on the 29th is to be the last. We were charmed with the old artist, and we expect to be charmed with the new ones.

AN ATTRACTIVE COURSE.—The Social, Civil, and Statistical Association of the colored people of Pennsylvania have arranged for a brilliant course of six lectures, to be delivered at Concert Hall.

STRANGERS TO BE TAKEN IN.—Mr. F. S. Chandra, an admirable character-actor, appears at the New Arch Street Theatre on Monday next, as "Sam"—a part that he has played successfully for months in New York.

SIX PRISONERS ESCAPE.—They Use Wooden Keys and Saw Their Way Out.

From the St. Joseph (Mo.) Union, of Feb. 7. About 2 o'clock yesterday morning, some of the prisoners confined in the County Jail made an attempt to escape. They succeeded in so doing, to wit: Henry Cobb, charged with murder; Clement Erd, larceny; P. Morris, W. Bander, N. Mercher, and K. Miles, charged with horse-stealing. The prisoners had made arrangements to escape, and at midnight wooden keys, which they had manufactured out of broken off of the keys, opened the doors of their cells, and notwithstanding the locks had been closed with plugs of lead, they succeeded in getting all the cells open, with the exception of the one occupied by True Young, the lock of which had fastened to their keys, and they were forced to leave him. After getting out of the cells the prisoners made their way to a window situated in the rear of the jail, where they saw one of the iron bars in two, and thus made their exit. To prevent being heard, they tore up their blankets and made muffs for their feet, so that no noise was made while they were at work; and after they had been gone some time Young called loudly to the Sheriff, who occupied a room in the jail, that six birds had flown. Upon an investigation it was found that the six above named were absent and their cells empty.

Masonic. His Excellency, Governor James L. Orr, was duly installed into the office of Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of South Carolina, on Monday evening, February 12. The ceremony took place at the Masonic Hall, in the presence and with the assistance of Brother A. G. Mackay, Grand Secretary, Brother A. T. C. Pierson, P. G. M. of the State of Minnesota, and other distinguished Masons.

The steam railroads of Massachusetts received $13,274,000 last year, and the net earnings were $3,872,000. The amount of dividends paid was $2,278,000, of whom 21 were killed; tons of freight, 5,277,000.

The Nebraska Legislature adjourned on Monday, after passing resolutions commending the President's policy, and bills providing for a geographical survey of the territory, and making liberal provision for the encouragement of emigration.

A correspondent of the Worcester (Mass.) Spy predicts dull times for the book and shoe trade in Massachusetts during the next two or three days, and is preparing to do a heavy business, have suddenly collapsed, and the prices of work as well as of goods have a downward look.

In Iowa, according to the last official report, there are 1171 school districts, 6572 sub-districts, 217,388 scholars, and 9230 teachers. The average compensation of male teachers is $7-91 a week; of women, $5-70 a week.

Under a law of Rhode Island which prohibits the sale of goods by sample without a State license, a poor clergyman at Providence who was trying to sell religious pictures, was lately arrested and compelled to pay a fine of fifty dollars and costs. The Legislature is trying to amend the law.

Mr. Edwin Adams is playing an engagement at McVicker's Theatre, Chicago. He appeared there first as "Richard III," and is now playing "The Merchant of Venice," and although his delivery is not perfect, nor wholly pleasing, he is much superior to many 'staves' who claim far more lustre than he.

A gold cross and chain have been dug up at Clare Castle, Suffolk, England, supposed to be the one presented originally to Tewkesbury Abbey in 1225, and alleged to contain portions of the flesh, blood, bones, and hair of certain saints, a part of the beam to which our Lord's cross was fastened, and a piece of stone from Mount Calvary.

The following Internal Revenue Taxes, returned by the principal manufacturers of Cabinet Organs, Harmoniums, Melodeons, and similar instruments, for the months of October, November, and December, 1865, are of interest, as showing the amount of business done:—

LATEST NEWS FROM MEXICO.

Surrender of Papantla to the Imperial Forces.—Mazatlan Held by the Guerrillas.—Roads Infested by Guerrillas.—The People Disarmed by Imperial Order, Etc.

NEW ORLEANS, February 14.—Advices from the City of Mexico to January 27 state that the Imperialists had gained a great success in the surrender to them of Papantla by the Liberal Generals Murias and Alaloe. The city acknowledged the Empire, the principal officers to go abroad if they wish.

From Mazatlan and Sinaloa the news is unfavorable to the Imperials. Crona holds all the mountain passes, and the Imperial forces are too small to break them. In Michoacan the Liberals were defeated and driven out.

The latest dates received at the City of Mexico from Santiago and Monterey are of January 15. All the roads to Monterey are infested by guerrillas. A number of leading merchants have returned there and resumed business among them.

The well-known Melon, son-in-law to Vidaurra, is in Chihuahua.

The Imperial authorities have issued an order deterring the people, except with special license, from leaving the city, promising to give him "the freedom of the city." The plaintiffs in their complaint demand the letter or its value, which they aver was $2500.

Two or three years ago an antiquarian, named John Allan, died in this city, leaving this autograph letter, and about $40,000 worth of books, papers, and valuable relics of the olden time.

Mrs. Stewart, daughter of Allan and executrix of his estate, placed the letter with his other effects in the possession of Bangs & Merwin, to be sold at public auction.

On the 14th of January, 1865, near 125th street, in the city of Mexico, the letter was returned to the auctioneers, and asked to have the contract rescinded, which request was refused.

Meantime the city authorities learned of its whereabouts, and made a demand of it from the auctioneers, on the ground that it was their property, and had been wrongfully taken from their possession.

The jury, after a long deliberation, rendered the following verdict:—"We find for the plaintiffs, and assess their damages for the detention of the letter, and assess the value of the letter at $2050."

In the United States District Court, in Brooklyn, yesterday, before Judge Benedict, Nelson J. Stewart, found guilty of counterfeiting fractional currency, was sentenced to pay a fine of one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned in the Penitentiary at Albany for ten years.

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

The Weather, Business, Stocks, and Markets.—Curious Law.—Criminal Matters.—St. Valentine's Day.—The Gallian (Paris)—Theatricals, Etc.

The weather is fine to-day, and there is more activity in business circles. The stock market opens strong. Gold is weak at 134. There is not much doing in merchandise and produce, and prices generally are falling more favorably to buyers.

A case that elicited considerable interest was tried yesterday in the Supreme Court Circuit, before Justice Foster and a jury. The action was brought by the Mayor and Commonalty of this city against De Witt C. Lent, E. R. Bangs, A. W. Merwin and another.

The gentlemen last named composed the firm of the well-known book auctioneers who did business under the name of Bangs, Merwin & Co. The action was for the purpose of recovering the possession of an autograph letter, written on the 2d of May, 1785, by General George Washington, and addressed to the Mayor and Common Council of New York.

The letter purports to be an answer to an invitation tendered to Washington to give him here—the Mayor, etc., promising to give him "the freedom of the city." The plaintiffs in their complaint demand the letter or its value, which they aver was $2500.

Two or three years ago an antiquarian, named John Allan, died in this city, leaving this autograph letter, and about $40,000 worth of books, papers, and valuable relics of the olden time.

FOURTH EDITION

JOHN MINOR BOTTS ON RECONSTRUCTION.

SOUTHERN LEADER TURNED RADICAL.

Our Special Despatches.

WASHINGTON, February 15. Hon. John Minor Botts is before the Reconstruction Committee to-day. He is the author of a publication which has just appeared anonymously, entitled "Political axioms to solve the perplexed problem of the status of the States and the people of a State lately in rebellion."

He maintains that, secession being unconstitutional, the ordinances of secession were null and void, and consequently no State has been out of the Union; that the Rebels made themselves aliens, and can only be restored to the rights of citizens through the established laws of naturalization, after five years, probation; that no reprieve or pardon can be constitutionally granted before the party or parties have been tried and convicted according to law; therefore, all pardons heretofore granted to those lately in rebellion have been premature, and are null and void.

That all attempts at reconstruction in many of the States, through misplaced confidence and the unappreciated magnanimity of the President, have not only failed, but are unsafe as a precedent and dangerous to our institutions, and should be commenced de novo.

The suppressed Editor. H. R. Pollard, of the suppressed Richmond Examiner, was at the White House, this morning, seeking an interview with the President to endeavor to get permission to resume the publication of his paper.

He professes ignorance of the cause of the suppression of the Examiner. Order from General Foster. General Foster, commanding the Department of Florida, has issued an order revoking the restrictions heretofore placed upon the sale of arms and ammunition by the military authorities.
