

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT SUPPER TABLE SERIES

NUMBER LXIII. BEST FOR MENTAL DISPERSES, AND A CURE FOR HYPOCHONDRIA, HY-POCHRY, OR ANY COMPLAINT OF A HY ORDER.

ALMANAC AND DIARY. SHORT METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS FOR THE WEEK.

Monday, 9.—Great excitement in Frankford. Gold said to exist in our man's collar. The deception was too transparent when it was discovered to be anything.

THE GREAT POPLAR DEMONSTRATION. Opening of the Wood Pulp Works at Manayunk, and Speeches by the Wood Pulpers.

WOOD PULP DINNER. Bill of Fare. Snapper, Pulp, Straw, THE Manayunk Shad, Falls Catties.

After the cloth was removed, which the waiters did as soon as they saw how unsteadily the glasses of colored liquid were passed across it, the "pulpers" began to make speeches.

Pulp Jones was called upon for a speech. He spoke of the paper making business in this country as rapidly on the increase; he had made a little paper once that got into an Alderman's hands in Roxborough, and it cost him $75-00 to get it out; it was valuable to him on account of having his autograph on it, and he was anxious to keep these things in the family.

Pulp Jencks, the President of this Poplar Company, made a few remarks. He said that the Poplar Company endeavored to meet a want long felt by all classes. Poplar trees are neither useful for shade nor beautiful to the eye, and any inventor that would make one into a newspaper, even a New York Herald, could not be called a small thing.

Pulp Jencks was here offered a piece of Toast, called "The Press of New York," by our Mayor, which was accepted by Pulp Tilton, of the New York Independent.

The Independent was not made of wood, but its editors were (immense cheering) much pleased to see the progress made towards cheapening literature, and he believed the time was coming when that paper would be furnished to all of its subscribers for $2-00 a year in advance.

The Series Editor of the Supper Table having been discovered drawing a cork by the Mayor, was called upon by that worthy to exhibit to the pulps a specimen of his drawing, which he did by taking two more bottles and repeating the operation, after which he made the following sketches in chalk on the back of one of the sleeping pulps:—

SKETCH I. THE EVENING TELEGRAPH in its popular state.

SKETCH II. THE EVENING TELEGRAPH in its transition state.

SKETCH III. THE EVENING TELEGRAPH in its popular state. After the exhibition of these works of art we left, but the meeting continued until they were all finally asleep.

A GREAT CURIOSITY NOW ON EXHIBITION AT OUR OFFICE.—In a box of cigars imported from Bremen, as the label outside indicated, we found the inside lining to be an old copy of the German Democrat, published up Third street. Can any Heller explain this?

PRENTICE insists that there ought to be an Extra-Tradition Law, by which MARTIN FARQUHAR TUPPER, if he continues to write verses about this country, may be brought over here for a trial. Our only objection to such a law is, that it might lead to an Extra Edition of Tupper's works.

What is the matter? The egg hatching machine for sale! "Some 1000 juvenile cocks and hens," we are told further on in the advertisement, are waiting to throw off the yolk. If not taken out they must die the death of the musty. As a last resort we would advise the placing of a hatchway over the door.
