

MATTERS OVER THE RIVER.

SANITARY PRECAUTIONS.—The Sanitary Committee of the Council has taken the precautionary steps in the matter of notifying house-keepers and property holders, that they must, by the first of May next, have all nuisances, filth, garbage, etc., removed from their premises; and become so stagnant that it will be filled up, and their places otherwise kept clean. If it is not done by the time specified, the city authorities will have it attended to at the expense of such property owners. This measure should be carried out to the utmost extent, for there are many places absolutely filthy, and calculated to engender disease. Should the cholera make its appearance in Camden, they would contribute largely to the virulence of that scourge.

CLEANING THE STREETS.—The process of cleaning the streets has again commenced. Workmen are engaged in scraping the dirt up in little heaps; but the practice heretofore has been to let it thus remain until the wind and passing vehicles scatter it about again, making it fit for another scraping. If the Committee would see that it was carted away as soon as scraped the work would be done in a more satisfactory and more agreeable to the taxpayers.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon a man named Frank Gillett, an workman employed at the depot of the Camden and Amboy Railroad, met with a sad accident, by which one of his arms was broken.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.—Yesterday Justice Cassidy held a man and his wife to bail in one thousand dollars, to answer at Court the charge of a violent assault and battery on a man named Armstrong.

CITY INTELLIGENCE

[For Additional Local Items see Fifth Page.]

BOARD OF TRADE.—The stated monthly meeting for April was held last evening. The President, Henry C. Callahan, was in the chair. Vice-President Merrick occupied the chair. Mr. George L. Busby, from the Committee appointed to urge upon the Legislature the change of the legal rate of interest to seven per cent., made a final report. The Committee had twice visited Harrisburg in pursuance of the duty of their appointment. At their first visit the bill had, without opposition, and with every prospect of final acceptance, gone to a third reading in the House; and with every reason to expect its passage in the Senate without serious opposition, they had returned and reported favorable progress. They had also the encouragement of a favorable reception of the proposition by the Governor. They were, however, unexpectedly disturbed in this expectation by the presentation of a new bill, proposing to confer upon the banks of the State the right, under certain conditions, of charging seven per cent., and restricting its operation to them alone.

Conceiving this to be in every way impolitic, and an invidious distinction, they proceeded a second time to Harrisburg to urge upon the members the passage of the bill originally proposed. They had failed to accomplish their object, though the proposition met the approval of all the representatives of mercantile constituencies, and of those from border localities, where it is more distinctly felt the drain of capital to the neighboring States of Ohio and New York by their higher rate of interest; but the few of those who represent the interior and agricultural sections left the enactment of such a law should operate to call in mortgages, and to enhance the rate of interest on permanent loans on farms and other real property, prevailed on the defeat of the measure.

The committee, however, believe that progress has been made; that the conviction that traffic in money should be perfectly free, like all other trade, is gaining ground; and that it is to be expected that at some day in the future, not far distant, the proposed bill will be expected to become a law.

The committee asked to be and were discharged. A communication was received and referred to the Committee of the Month, in reference to a bill now before Congress having for its object to secure the admission of qualified and deserving boys, upon equal terms with the apprentices in the navy to the Naval Academy, thus breaking down that barrier of caste which has already been swept away in the army, but which heretofore has been maintained in the navy, to the restriction and exclusion of all but the aspirants of the common sailor. The Committee of the Month were announced to be Messrs. Wheeler, Townsend, and Thornton Brown.

BRIDGE OVER THE SCHUYLKILL AT SOUTH STREET.—The Chief Engineer and Surveyor has received a copy of an act of the Legislature, approved April 6, 1866, to "authorize the construction of a free bridge over the Schuylkill at South Street." The first section of the act names as Field, John H. Holmes, A. J. Drexel, C. H. Clark, John Welsh, A. E. Borie, J. K. Findlay, H. M. Phillips, M. A. Dropie, William B. Mann, John L. Lawson, John Leigh, William Perry, M. McCaw, John M. Smith, J. C. Brown, William J. Pollock, Charles F. E. A. M. Eastwick are created a commission to build said bridge across said river at south street, and are hereby required to commence the erection of the said bridge within twelve months from the passage of this act; and it is further provided that the said Commissioners shall have full power to create a loan, not exceeding $600,000, payable by the city of Philadelphia forty years from the date of said loan, negotiable at not a less rate than five per cent. per annum, and certificates thereof shall pass by delivery as in cases of negotiable paper, and that no certificate shall be issued for a less sum than $100.

The other sections of the bill are as follows:—Section 2. That said Commissioners shall deposit all moneys arising from the sale of the aforesaid loan of $600,000 with the Treasurer of the city of Philadelphia, and the President of said Commission shall have full power to draw checks counter-signed by the Secretary of the same and approved by a majority of the said Commission, and the money shall be expended for no other purpose than the construction of said bridge.

Section 3. That so much of section fourth of an act passed April 18, 1861, entitled "An act to incorporate the Lombard and South Streets Railway," as allows the Lombard and South Streets and the Darby Railway Companies to use the said bridge, be, and the same shall be, repealed; and that so much of section first as limits the cost of said bridge to $250,000, and so much of section second as authorized the creation of a loan of $250,000, are hereby repealed.

Section 4. That in case of the failure of any of the within named Commission to serve, the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas shall have full power and are hereby required to supply such vacancies, and in case any vacancy shall occur in said Commission after their acceptance; the remaining members of the same, or a majority thereof, are hereby authorized and required to fill the same within thirty days after such vacancy occurs, and upon their failing to do so within that time, then the Judges of the Court aforesaid are authorized and required to fill such vacancy within thirty days after the refusal of said Commission to fill the same: Provided, That if the Council of Philadelphia shall, before the first day of July, 1867, enter into contract and commence the erection of a free bridge over the river Schuylkill at South street, then the powers of said Commissioners shall be vested in the Councils of Philadelphia.

EXHIBITION OF PLANTS.—At a monthly meeting of the Horticultural Society, held last evening at the Hall, Broad and Walnut streets, there was a fine display of choice plants. Some luscious Cocks strawberries attracted much attention. As the season advances the monthly displays of the Society will become more and more interesting.

TEMPERANCE.—We desire to call special attention to the advertisement of the Philadelphia Temperance Society, and advise every one who believes drunkenness to be a vice to attend the meeting to be held to-morrow evening.

DEDICATION.—The Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan Boys Home, situated at No. 305 S. Fifth street, was formally dedicated on Monday evening. After appropriate devotional exercises on the part of several clergymen, Mr. Francis Wells, a member of the committee, delivered an explanatory address in reference to the origin of the Institution, and also of the great interest taken by Miss McHenry, who raised the funds necessary to effect the design of its founders. This patriotic lady in a couple of months was instrumental in raising the handsome sum of $24,000, sufficient to purchase and fit up the Home. It will accommodate about one hundred orphans.

The building has a front of thirty-nine feet and a depth of one hundred and eighty feet, with a large yard, which has been fitted up as a play-ground. The first story is divided into two school-rooms and a library. The remaining upper stories will be used as sleeping apartments. The bathing accommodations are excellent. It is expected that fifty pupils will be received into the home in the course of a few weeks, for which, by act of the Assembly, the State will pay two dollars per week for each. The balance for the maintenance of the orphans will have to be made up by voluntary contributors. This is an Institution which will probably be well supported, as it should be. Sometimes it is called the Lincoln Institute, which may perhaps lead to confusion, as the Lincoln Institute was organized by the wounded soldiers in the military hospital in Christian street, above Fifth, shortly after the assassination of President Lincoln.

COOL PROCEEDING.—On Monday afternoon a burglar entered the residence of Joseph McConigle, at North Sixth street, in the course of a jointing building, in which workmen were employed, and ransacked the drawers of one or two of the bedrooms, and very probably would have succeeded in doing damage, had it not been that the daughter of Mr. Rankin, in coming out of her room, disturbed the villain, who deliberately walked past her and remarked that he was going to fix the roof. She believing what he said to be true, and taking him for one of the workmen of the jointing house, allowed him to pass, and did not discover her mistake until entering the chamber of her brother, where she found things in a very confused state. There was no one in the house at the time except herself and the servant. She immediately gave the alarm, but the thief had flown and taken with him a small pocket-pistol, the property of Mr. William D. Rank. It was also discovered that the same thief had paid a visit to the house of Mrs. John Gibson, but the family being in the sitting-room, he did not succeed in getting anything. House-keepers cannot be too careful in regard to locking up their premises and keeping a careful eye upon strangers who may visit their premises for real or assumed purposes, as robbers of the kind mentioned are everywhere, and place almost hourly in all quarters of the city.

A LONG EXEMPTION.—Alderman Beiler last evening gave audience to a sailor named McConigle. He has lately left the United States service, where his duty was faithfully done. In December, 1864, he worked for Mr. Dolan, at the Keystone Knitting Works. At the hearing that gentleman testified that several bags of clippings and waste, valued at about sixty dollars per bag, were stolen from the mill. Two of these bags were sold from the house where the sailor resided, in Second street, above Jefferson. An intelligent colored porter, who removed the sacks, corroborated this fact. They were sold to a dealer in Philadelphia, who admitted the purchase, but could not identify McConigle as the man who made the sale. The latter admitted the disposal of the clippings, but said there was no thief, the bags being brought to the house by a man named Daniel D. Hickey. $500 bail for his appearance at Court was asked, and promptly tendered.

THE HOSE CARRIAGE WON BY THE VIGILANT.—The hose carriage voted for at the Fair of the Vigilant Engine Company, which was won by the Vigilant Engine Company. During the twelve days of the Fair the open ballots numbered for the Vigilant 3825; Columbia Hose Company 968. The sealed ballots, on the last night of the Fair, were opened by the Vigilant, 2225; Columbia, 698. Total for the Vigilant, 6100; for the Columbia, 1656. Majority for the former, 4444. Chief Engineer Lytle was the judge, and the ballots were opened by himself. The following speech was made by him, and the carriage was received on behalf of the company by Mr. Joseph Bonham. About $2000 were netted to the Fair by the votes on the hose carriage. Yesterday the carriage was hauled through a portion of the city by the members of the Vigilant, preceded by a full band of music.

FIRE.—An alarm, shortly before three o'clock yesterday afternoon, was caused by the burning of the roof and portion of the three-story brick building corner of Front and Margaret streets, occupied as a dwelling by a lady named Ann Da Costa, whose loss on furniture will amount to about $200, which is fully covered by insurance in the Germania Fire Insurance Company. The building belongs to J. DeCoursey, and was damaged to the extent of $300. Insured in the Hand-in-Hand Fire Insurance Company.

A FREE NIGHT SCHOOL FOR YOUNG MEN.—The "Social Union," an association formed during the past season by a number of benevolent gentlemen and ladies, for the moral and social improvement of young men in the northern section of the city, have opened a free night school at the new hall, at No. 640 N. Sixth street, where the elements of a common-school education will be taught, free of charge. The spirit shown by the members of this association commend it to the earnest attention of all classes of citizens.

NEW PILOT BOAT.—To-morrow afternoon a beautiful pilot boat will be launched from the ship yard, foot of Reed Street Wharf. She is to be named in memory of the late lamented Henry Cope of Philadelphia. Her cabins are fitted up in exquisite style, the whole being lined with rosewood, polished like marble, relieved by delicate moldings of white and gold. Her benches and companion ways, the framings for the mast, etc., are of solid walnut, four inches thick.

ON A STRIKE.—The coal shippers at Port Richmond gave notice that on and after Monday, the 16th, they would reduce the wages of the trimmers to 25 cents per hour. The workmen, with suitable respect, refused such reduction, and are now on a strike. A meeting of the trimmers was held yesterday, and they adopted resolutions pledging themselves to use all proper means to prevent the reduction.

BOLD ATTEMPT AT LARCENY.—A few days since a gentleman-looking fellow stepped into a store on Eighth street, and after procuring a number of costly goods in a number of places, he then, when through, deliberately picked up the heap and walked out. Fortunately the proprietor of the store entered just in time to stop him, and after taking the goods from him allowed him to depart.

TO CLOTHIERS.—Our purchases for this season having been delayed, waiting the expected decline in goods, we have now on hand the largest and best-assorted stock of clothing in Philadelphia, purchased for cash exclusively, at the very lowest rates of the season, which enables us to realize a fair profit and sell at prices less than the cost of same goods in most other establishments. We can supply clothiers doing a fine city trade, with goods adapted to their sales, at prices so much lower than the cost of their present stocks, that, by making an average of the whole, they will be enabled to dispose of their goods at prices covering the average cost, and even paying a profit.
