RETURNING THE FLAGS.—The Committee of Arrangements for the celebration of the Fourth have nearly completed their preliminary arrangements. For the purpose of perfecting them they remain in session to-day and to-morrow, from 9 A. M. until evening, at the City Armory, Broad street, near Race. The amphitheatre in the Square will be finished to-morrow, in ample time for all the exercises. The gates leading to the square will be beautifully decorated with arches of evergreens.

General Hancock has issued the following orders regulating the formation of the procession:—

Orders.—The undersigned, pursuant to authority vested in him by the committee appointed to make arrangements for the reception, by his Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth, of the colors borne by our brave Pennsylvania organizations during the war for the suppression of the late Rebellion, on the Fourth day of July next, publishes the following directions for the government of all bodies intending to participate in the parade.

1. The Advance Guard will take position at 9 o'clock A. M., on the east side of Broad street, right resting on Arch street.

2. The procession will form on Broad street, immediately in rear of the Advance Guard, in column in mass, at 9 o'clock, and be prepared to move promptly at 10 o'clock, taking distance by the head of column as soon as the movement begins. Commanding officers of regiments, detachments, and other dismounted bodies, will divide their columns in front of the column, as practicable, a uniform front of eight (8) files, exclusive of guides. Mounted officers not on duty with troops will march in column of fours.

3. The General officers named to command divisions have been selected by the Committee of Arrangements. Their commands will form on the streets hereinafter designated at 8 o'clock A. M., precisely, and be prepared to move into their respective positions on Broad street at 9 o'clock A. M.

First Division.—Major-General S. Negley commanding.—Mounted officers and dismounted officers, not on duty with troops: Washington Artillery and National Light Infantry, of Pottsville; Kingwood Light Artillery, of Reading; Logan Troop of Cavalry, and Allen Light Infantry, of Allentown; will form on the south side of Penn Square; mounted officers on the west side, and the remainder on the east side of Broad street.

Second Division.—Major-General Robert Patterson commanding.—Mounted officers and dismounted officers, not on duty with troops: Washington Artillery and National Light Infantry, of Pottsville; Kingwood Light Artillery, of Reading; Logan Troop of Cavalry, and Allen Light Infantry, of Allentown; will form on the south side of Penn Square; mounted officers on the west side, and the remainder on the east side of Broad street.

Third Division.—Brigadier-General Charles T. Campbell.—Artillery regiments and detachments, in numerical order, will form on Spruce street, east of Broad street, right on Broad street.

Fourth Division.—Major-General D. McM. Gregg.—Cavalry regiments and detachments will form on Spruce street, west of Broad street, right on Broad street.

Fifth Division.—Major-General John W. Geary.—Colors and Color Guards, excepting those which accompany regiments or detachments will form on Pine street, east of Broad street, right on Broad street.

Sixth Division.—Major-General S. W. Crawford.—Governor Curtin and staff, and the soldiers' orphans, with a delegation of firemen as a guard of honor, will form on Pine street, west of Broad, right on Broad street.

Seventh Division.—Major-General John R. Brooke.—Pennsylvania Militia, Military Academies and Schools, and organizations composed of members who served in the field during the late war, will form on Lombard street, west of Broad, right on Broad street.

Eighth Division.—Major-General S. W. Crawford.—Governor Curtin and staff, and the soldiers' orphans, with a delegation of firemen as a guard of honor, will form on Pine street, west of Broad, right on Broad street.

Ninth Division.—Major-General S. W. Crawford.—Governor Curtin and staff, and the soldiers' orphans, with a delegation of firemen as a guard of honor, will form on Pine street, west of Broad, right on Broad street.

THE MORTALITY OF THE CITY.—We have compiled the following statement of the mortality of the city of Philadelphia, for the past six months, from the records at the office of the Board of Health, in a view of the comparison during the same time in 1865:—

Table with columns: Months, 1865, 1866. Rows: January, February, March, April, May, June, Total.

The increase of those brought from the country during the present year (1866) and the total (282) should be properly noted, which would leave the actual mortality of the city for the past six months 6489, showing about 2300 less than the first six months of 1865, making the same a distinct improvement.

The deaths in each Ward during the present year are given as follows:—

Table with columns: Months, Males, Females, U. S., For. Rows: January, February, March, April, May, June, Total.

Of the whole number of deaths, 2907 were under five years of age, and 231 over 80 years. The deaths from consumption numbered 1037.

From the above statements it will be seen that Philadelphia can claim to be one of the most healthy cities in the United States.

PARADE OF FIREMEN.—The Vigilant Steam Fire Engine Company, No. 3, returned to Philadelphia on Saturday evening, from their pleasant excursion. They met with a warm welcome at the hands of their brother firemen, who assembled in large numbers at Walnut street wharf. The Vigilant reached the city shortly after 10 o'clock, when the escort was formed in the following order:—Chief Marshal, Charles A. Major, of the Perseverance Hose Company, and Alder.

First Division, B. K. Allick, Marshal.—Hibernia Engine, Resolution Hose, Empire Hook and Ladder, Northern Liberty Engine, and Hope Hose.

Second Division, William J. Gilbert, Marshal.—Assistance Engine, Washington Hose, Friendship Engine, United States Hose, Philadelphia Engine, Perseverance Hose, and Vigilant Engine.

Third Division, George T. Reed, Marshal.—Niagara Hose, Mechanic Engine, Independence Hose, and Independence Engine.

Fourth Division, F. McCully, Marshal.—Lafayette Hose, Franklin Hose, Kensington Hose, Ringold Hose, and Tenth Street Hose.

The engine belonging to the Vigilant Company was loaded down with presents of various descriptions, received at points along the route they had passed over. Many of the engines and carriages of the companies forming the escort were also handsomely decorated.

THE SENGEBUND'S RETURN.—The return home of the Sengembund on Saturday evening from the Memorial, young and old, is a happy occasion. The first prize, was carried off by the Sengembund, on the occasion of a public demonstration that must have been peculiarly gratifying to the members of the Society and their friends.

The societies participating in the demonstration were the Memnoch, young and old, Liedertafel, Cecilia, Aurora Sengembund, Concordia, Arion, and others, the whole making a handsome display. Upon reaching the hall there was a display of fireworks. The building was tastefully decorated; evergreen wreaths were fastened along the front, lanterns were suspended from the windows, and gas jets were made to form the ever-pleasing words, "Welcome Home."

Besides these there were two transparencies recording the triumph of the Sengembund—first at New York, on July 18, 1865, and in Providence, R. I. June 18, 1866. The welcome at the hall was most enthusiastic. Songs and speeches closed the affair.

THE WILLIAMSTOWN RAILROAD.—Efforts have been made by the citizens of Hammon to secure the route of the Williamstown Railroad through their city, and connect with the Baritan Bay road at Atsion. It is thought, however, that they will not be successful, as the two roads will probably connect at Jackson Station. The citizens of Hammon propose to build the track from that place to Atsion, in case it is decided to bring it there.

FRUIT CULTURE.—At Hammon there are now under successful cultivation 3023 acres of strawberries, 137 acres of blackberries, 163 acres of raspberries, and 331 acres of cranberries. There are also 43,376 grape vines, 17332 pear trees, 9305 apple trees, 10,617 peach trees, 653 cherry trees, 119 plum trees. Besides these there are many other kinds of fruit raised in abundance.

MILITARY.—On Saturday evening the Soldiers' and Sailors' Club of Camden held a meeting, and adopted a resolution asking the State authorities to supply them with arms and equipments in order that they may be enabled to perfect their organization. This club promises to be a useful military association, and the necessary equipments should be given them by the authorities.

A SAILING MATCH.—A challenge has been sent by the owners of the sailing yacht Delaware to the owners of the Harriet Smith, of Salem, to sail a match on the 15th inst. for the sum of $250. The challenge has been accepted; but it is most likely the day of sailing will be changed.

SUCCESSFUL.—The concert given by the Sabbath School children of the First Baptist Church, Camden, a night or two ago, was very successful, realizing a handsome sum, which is to be appropriated to the interests of the school.

BADLY HURT.—A man named Jarman, while at work in Bridgeton, a day or two since, was badly injured in consequence of receiving a terrible fall, by the breaking-down of a seat folding.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—Mr. William S. Doughen, of Camden, had his jaw broken a few days ago by being struck with a steam engine wagon, while attempting to prevent his horses from running away.

REOPENED.—The Union M. E. Church, which for some time past has been undergoing necessary repairs, was again opened for divine service yesterday.
