

EUROPE.

By Atlantic Submarine Telegraph Cable.

A Peace Treaty Between Prussia, Bavaria, and Hesse-Darmstadt.

IMPORTANT TERRITORY GAINED BY PRUSSIA.

Peace Negotiations at Prague Nearly Concluded.

EVACUATION OF BOHEMIA BY THE PRUSSIANS.

NAPOLÉON TO CEDE VENETIA TO ITALY.

What Hungary Hopes from Austria.

War Between the Christians and Turks in Candia.

The American Sloop "Alice" at the Royal Yacht Squadron Regatta.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

PRUSSIA. Peace Concluded by Prussia with Bavaria and Hesse-Darmstadt.

BERLIN, August 22.—The Prussian Commissioners have, with the sanction of the Government, concluded a peace with Bavaria and Hesse-Darmstadt. The terms are very advantageous to Prussia, and in accord with her original demands. Bavaria cedes to Prussia the Northern district, composed of Lichtenfels, formerly called Upper Franconia, and the walled town of Culmbach. The Bavarian Government also undertakes to pay Prussia thirty millions of florins, as an indemnity for her expenses in the war.

Hesse-Darmstadt cedes to Prussia the territory of the Landgraviate of Hesse-Homburg, a State which was admitted a member of the Confederation of the Rhine in the year 1817, and lies directly between Rhenish Bavaria, Rhenish Prussia, and Birkenfeld.

Prussia also obtains the exclusive right to garrison the fortress of Mayence, for which duty Hesse-Darmstadt hitherto contributed two hundred infantry, besides giving three hundred and thirty-three men to the federal German army.

Under the treaty Bavaria retains the territory of Upper Hesse, which will be joined to and incorporated with the new Confederation of Northern Germany, the organization and limits of which will be arranged after the peace treaty is perfected between Prussia and Austria.

BOHEMIA. The Prussians Evacuating Bohemia.

BERLIN, August 22.—The Prussian troops which had penetrated into Bohemia during the operations against Austria have commenced to evacuate the territory, and it is thought they will have completed the work by the 15th of September.

The Evacuation of Bohemia by Prussia. LONDON, August 22.—P. M.—One of the conditions of peace between Prussia and Austria is, that Prussia is to evacuate Bohemia within a fortnight.

ITALY. Napoleon to Cede Venetia to the Kingdom.

PARIS, August 22.—The Paris Patrie of this evening's date says that the Emperor Napoleon will cede Venetia, as handed over to France by Austria, direct to Italy, to be held as part of the kingdom of Victor Emmanuel.

HUNGARY. Constitutional Obligations to be Made by Austria.

PESTH, August 22.—After the conclusion of peace with Prussia, the Emperor Francis Joseph, of Austria, with the consent of his Cabinet, intends to appoint a responsible Hungarian ministry; and after this act is completed the Hungarian Diet will be formally reopened in this city some time during the month of September.

ENGLAND. The Jamaica Negro Question and Ex-Governor Eyre.

LONDON, August 22.—Ex-Governor Eyre, of Jamaica, whose official conduct during the late negro revolt in that island has been made the subject of such an excited and angry canvass at home, enjoyed a public reception at Southampton yesterday. The fête was given in his honor by his immediate friends, personal and political, and the municipal authorities took part in it. There was a banquet in the evening. A large opposition meeting was held in the town the same day, at which a series of resolutions condemning the conduct and rule of the ex-Governor when in Jamaica were adopted with great unanimity.

GREECE. Turkish War Against the Christians in Candia—Damage to the United States Consulate.

ATHENS, August 18.—The Turks have commenced active hostilities against the Christians in Candia, whom they treat as rebels against the authority of the Sultan. A number of the foreign consular offices, particularly those of the United States, Holland, and Sweden, have suffered very much damage. The Consuls have protested in the name of their respective Governments, The Christians, or insurgents, are twenty-five thousand strong, and hold important points against the Turkish soldiers. The Latest Report from the Scene of Difficulty.

LONDON, August 23.—P. M.—A telegram from Athens reports that fighting has occurred in the island of Candia, and that the United States Consulate has been damaged.

AQUATICS. The Royal Yacht Squadron Regatta—Compliment to the American Sloop "Alice."

LONDON, August 23.—The annual regatta of the Royal Yacht Squadron Regatta—Compliment to the American Sloop "Alice." Commenced August 9. Correspondence London News.

The annual regatta dinner of the members of the squadron took place last night at the Castle, Commodore the Earl of Wilton presided, the vice-chair being taken by Vice Commodore the Marquis of Conyngham, and among those present were Captain the Prince of Leiningen, Vice-Admiral Sir Thomas Pasley, Flag Lieutenant C. P. Bowen, R. N.; Lieutenant the Hon. A. Denison, R. N.; Lieutenant the Hon. J. B. Vivian, R. N.; and Major Mackenzie, A. D. C. of her Majesty's yacht Victoria and Albert. Sir Percy Shelley, H. Potten, Esq., Inglis Jones, Esq., Lord Colville, General Lord Melville, G. C. B.; Lieutenant-Colonel Markham, F. P. B. Deane Ruddle, Esq.; Admiral Sir C. Talbot, G. C. B.; Captain the American Sloop "Alice," skipper A. Clark, H. Stanfield, Esq., C. A. Longellow (of the Alice), Earl Vane, and other distinguished yachtsmen.

The dinner having been disposed of, the Commodore gave "The health of her Majesty the Queen, Patron of the Royal Yacht Squadron," which was drunk with all the honors. This toast was followed by "The health of the Prince and Princess of Wales and the rest of the royal family," which was most enthusiastically received.

The noble Commodore then, in a few observations, gave "The Army and Navy," and several complimentary toasts followed.

The Commodore gave "The health of Lieutenant-Colonel Markham, the winner of the Queen's Cup."

Lieutenant-Colonel Markham, in responding, said he had started for this prize several times, and he was now delighted that at length his efforts had been successful, and that he was able to carry away the Queen's Cup.

The Commodore said he had a pleasing toast to propose, which was "The health of Mr. Appleton, the owner of the Alice." He was delighted to see American gentlemen coming amongst them, as they obtained some good and useful hints from them, and they were thus enabled to make great improvements on their own lines. It was really a most gallant act for the owner, and as a son of the great poet Longfellow, with the assistance of only three men, to cross the Atlantic in so small a vessel.

This toast was enthusiastically received. Some other toasts were given and acknowledged, and the business of the evening was brought to a close.

This morning was appointed for a race for £100, open to all yachts not less than thirty tons belonging to a Royal Yacht Club; the course round the island. The following yachts were entered:

Table with columns: Yacht, Owner, Tons. Includes entries for M. de Cap, M. de Cap, M. de Cap, etc.

The American sloop Alice did not start. The course this day was to the westward, and at half-past 10 precisely the starting gun was fired. The Lutwirth was the first to get away, followed by the Titania, Intrepid, Pandemonium, and Arcton, at short distances from each other. On making their way up the Solent channel, when just below Egypt House, the Pandemonium made a long reach to the southward, and after her the Arcton made a long tack and took the second place. Some time manoeuvring then went on, and the Arcton and Lutwirth had a desperate struggle for the first place. The Pandemonium and almost unconquerable Arcton then took the lead, and the Lutwirth, hitherto holding a good wind, off Lynnington creek, weathered the Pandemonium, and soon afterwards the whole fleet were hauled down, making their way down the Needles Passage, and any further notice of them could not be obtained. The details of the race at the back of the island must necessarily be deferred.

About half-past four o'clock this afternoon there was a cry raised that the yachts were in sight, and this report turned out to be true, for far distant to the eastward was seen Lord Ponsonby's Lutwirth, a new vessel, and hitherto untrod in racing, while the Lutwirth was observed beating against the flood tide, the Arcton, and still further to the leeward Mr. Mulholland's Egeria; but as the two first vessels may be called upon to allow a considerable amount of time to some of the others, the result of the race must be deferred until to-morrow. The Lutwirth came in first, the Arcton second, and the Blue Bell third.

The regatta ball takes place this evening at the Castle.

THE OPERA IN BERLIN. Scene at King William's First Visit After the War.

A letter in the Paris Temps, dated Berlin, gives a glowing description of the scene which took place at the Opera House, on the evening of the 6th, on which the representatives of the army were for the benefit of the wounded soldiers. "The whole court was present, and not a seat was vacant. When the King entered, at half-past seven, the entire audience rose and received him with most enthusiastic applause. The performance commenced with the Sieges March (the march to victory) of Taubert. When the curtain rose the whole company sang a royal song, which was composed expressly for the occasion. Each strophe was received with applause, and when the tenor, Herr Worsky, sang the following strophe:—

And when throughout the land shall float The flag of union, then we'll shout, Hail, Emperor of Germany!

The whole audience rose, and because so excited that the singing was for a long time interrupted. After the last verse the cries and bravos burst forth again, and the national hymn was demanded from all parts of the theatre. The orchestra complied with the wishes of the audience, and all present—princes, princesses, and citizens—joined in the chorus. The enthusiasm had no limit. I never saw anything like it. The receipts amounted to near £2000.

The Baron James de Rothschild is shortly bringing out a comedy, written by himself, called Baron de Financier.

THE SOUTHERN STATES.

The Unionists of Louisiana—An Appeal to Congress and Northern Loyalists.

NEW ORLEANS, August 22.—The subjoined important petition, from the loyal citizens of New Orleans, asking protection from Congress and the loyal citizens of the nation, has been signed by nearly every Union man in the city, and is now on its way North.—

We, the undersigned Union men of the State of Louisiana, respectfully represent that after four years combating the armed forces of the Rebels and traitors we are not prepared to yet willing that these same Rebels and traitors should return among us, assume authority, maltreat with contempt and derision, or otherwise abuse us. The facts are patent and beyond question, and it is well known that the Union men of this State are in the minority. The returned Rebels and traitors have the balance of power in their hands, and it is publicly avowed by the Confederate element must rule. Matters have assumed such a phase that if not changed in the brief, we, the Union men, will have no security for life, property or honor. The returned Rebels and traitors are daily growing more powerful, and daily insults and abuses are heaped upon us by them. They no longer hide and return to us when they commence a riot, and when we use vile epithets towards us. Our residences are marked, and attempts have been made to fire the dwellings of some of us who are most conspicuous. They are daily spotted, and daily threats are heard against us. They not only abuse and curse us in private, but publicly scorn and vitiate us. Newspapers, cannot be bought on the streets, and private papers, during the days of the liquidation of old, are passed from hand to hand. We would infinitely prefer to return them their arms and fight them in open field than thus to permit them to protect the protection of our Government, to assume to dictate to our Government, to assume to dictate to our Government, to assume to dictate to our Government, under a misapprehension, grants to prisoners of war, guilty of the highest crime against the State—the treason—the privilege, hitherto unknown, of dictating to their conquerors the terms upon which they are to be permitted to live in the land of their birth with unparagoned traitors, against all of which we protest. We protest against being termed Rebels and traitors; by those whose hands are yet defiled with the blood of Union men, and who boldly and with unparagoned effort, not only in private, but throughout the daily papers, term us Rebels and traitors, and style themselves the Union men of the South, and the true friends of the Union, and their Confederate organizations, and ignoring that they are prisoners of war to our Government. We protest against being treated by prisoners of war under parole. We protest against the laws of the State relative to the traitors against being made to feel that we are the lamb of the sacrifice to conciliate Rebels and traitors. Knowing our spirit would gain power, as they have proved conclusively by their acts of pre-meditated cold-blooded butchery of Union men on Monday, the 13th of July, the Saint Bartholomew day of New Orleans, we protest against being treated by the tender mercies of the traitors, who use the knife and the pistol, to protest most emphatically against being made to slaves, so to speak, of the prisoners of war, who hate us with unutterable hate, who despise and curse us as they do for this hundreds and thousands of our Union men, and who are the cause for this we waged a war for the Union, for this we have embraced our whole land in taxation? Was it for this we spent millions of dollars? Was it for this we made in vain the lives and limbs of our thousands of brave men? Was it for this we elected Andrew Johnson to the office from which ill-starred events caused him to become President? Was it for this we considered? We consider upon the conquerors and loyal citizens of the Union to protect us. We not only petition but demand protection from the Congress of your country, as we are in duty bound.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed. The President has been urged to remove Stanton, and it is generally expected that he will not be removed. The President has been urged to remove Stanton, and it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

only against the blacks, but also against the whites who during the war were Unionists. The only way a restraint from a civil contract is made in the Bureau, and the United States troops. The Commissioner is in daily receipt of cases of whites flogging their negro laborers. They assert their right to do it, and laugh at the Civil Rights Bill. General Grant orders the arrest and punishment of all who resist the treatment they show respect to the officers of the Bureau, it being carried out, and is pronounced a gross insult. Lieutenant W. F. Hogarty, of the United States Army, is especially praised for the number of arrests he has made. The average pay of laborers is $12 per month, with rations. In the tobacco districts it averages from twenty to thirty dollars per month. Reports from all sections of the State make it evident that the yield of corn, potatoes, hemp and grass will be greater this season than ever before. The wheat crop alone will be below the average yield. The Commissioner says that the State refuses to provide for colored paupers, and the Government has to take care of these people. In Louisville alone provision is made for them.

WASHINGTON. General Howard Summoned Before the President—His Removal Probable—Desperate Efforts to Retain Secretary Stanton in the Cabinet—The Soldiers' and Sailors' National Convention at Cleveland.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed. The President has been urged to remove Stanton, and it is generally expected that he will not be removed. The President has been urged to remove Stanton, and it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected that he will not be removed.

WASHINGTON, August 23.—The tremendous pressure for the removal of Secretary Stanton has demanded desperate efforts on the part of the Secretary's friends to retain him in his office. It is not known what arrangements will be made to secure his retention, but it is generally expected