

OHIO POLITICS.

Protection to Labor and Laborers—Increased Tariff Desired—Judge Kelley's Reply to Democratic Aspersions, Etc.

REVENUE TELEGRAPH SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE] CINCINNATI, Sept. 12, 1867.—The political campaign has begun long since, and, judging by the list of speakers...

Among the noted statesmen who have argued the situation in Ohio, Judge Kelley, of Philadelphia, has been enthusiastically received, since he advanced the proposition to improve our country, and education extended to all on equal terms.

In speaking the other night of the protective tariff legislation, the Republican party, he said:—You cannot govern all families by the same rule, nor can you when their conditions are different.

Judge Kelley quoted from a speech of Mr. Reemelin, a Democratic leader, lately made:—"See these pantaloons of mine. They cost in Germany $25. Here they would cost $10. Add $2 to $3 for profit, exchange, freight, and higher tailoring here, $1-20, and it makes $7, still leaving $3 to go to the tailor."

Ask American tailors if they think it would be well for Congress to legislate that you should be able to compete with the tailors of Belgium and Switzerland who earn from two to three dollars a day...

THE ANNEKE JANS ESTATE.

New Facts for the Heirs—The Purchase Money for St. John's Park—A New Mode to Make Trinity Disgorge Her Millions into the Laps of the Right Owners—The Corporation Should be Treated Like the Squatters on Dutch Hill.

The immense value of the estate of Trinity Church naturally invests the subject of her title to the property with immense interest, not only to the heirs of Anneke Jans, but to the public at large.

THE HEIRS OF ST. JOHN'S PARK PURCHASE MONEY. We should state here that when Trinity sold St. John's Park to the Hudson River Railroad Company...

HOW TO MAKE TRINITY DISGORGE. In answer to the numerous inquiries of the heirs, we would state that there is at present a little prospect of any suit being prosecuted against Trinity Church. Mr. Grossbeck has initiated proceedings by having notice of a complaint served on Mr. Dunscombe and his wife, but Trinity has not yet sent in her answer; her lawyers have asked time to prepare a case. Should the suit be pressed, it will require a large amount to carry it through for the Corporation, as in previous cases, will lavish in their expenditures, and take advantage of every legal or illegal technicality to delay the case.

There is, however, one mode by which the Corporation of Trinity Church could be obliged to disgorge the millions in the laps of the right owners. It has been tried with entire success recently among a body of squatters on lands in this city, near the Central Park.

The National Finances. LETTER FROM GENERAL BUTLER. To the Editor of the N. Y. Evening Post.—A correspondent in the Evening Post of September 5, signing himself "A Hard Money Radical Republican," has written upon finance with a curiosity expressed with respect to the views of Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio.

The Earth Burning—A Remarkable Event. From the Corinth (Miss.) News, 3d. Several persons were in Corinth on Saturday last, who gave some startling accounts of the earth being on fire about four miles southwest of Hamburg, Tennessee.

Whipping a Railroad. The St. Paul Pioneer tells the following story of an old farmer in Ramsey county, Minn.—It seems that on Monday a contractor of the St. Paul and Chicago Railway took a gang of about forty men to Pig's Eye to commence work on the road.

TROUBLE IN TENNESSEE. A Citizen Killed by the Militia at Jackson—Civilians Arming to Drive Out the Militia—A General Riot Expected. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 13.—At Jackson, Madison county, yesterday morning, a prominent citizen named Hart was shot dead by the militia.
