

BUSINESS NOTICES.

YOUTH AND BOYS' CLOTHING. ... BARNETT & CO. ...

THE RIVERSIDE INSTITUTE.—During the year 1867, Mr. Bechtel, of Riverside, N. J., commenced the erection of that flourishing little town of a handsome and spacious brick edifice, intended to be used as a hotel and others during the summer months.

A party of gentlemen, residing in Philadelphia and Riverside, some time since determined upon a plan by which the said building and grounds could be made available for philanthropic purposes of a religious character.

OVERING.—On the 23d instant, Mrs. MARY DAVIS, in the 73d year of her age, died at her residence, No. 1215 1/2 Fifth street, on Friday afternoon, October 23, at 2 o'clock, without further notice.

THE GRANT MOVEMENT AND ITS EFFECTS. The spontaneous movement of the Republic in Philadelphia in putting forward General Grant as their chief candidate for the Presidency excites much comment in political circles here.

THE DETAILS SUPPRESSED. The position taken by Judge Kelley in this movement insures the co-operation of the Federal element, which his heretofore has rather opposed to the nomination of Grant.

MR. GRINNELL AND GENERAL GRANT. J. B. Grinnell is a Republican Congressman from Iowa. He has written a private letter to a friend, giving his views of General Grant and his politics.

COLLECTOR CAKE'S CASE. Collector Cake still remains here, and this morning was in consultation with Secretary McCulloch upon matters pertaining to the Philadelphia Custom House.

GENERAL GRANT AT WORK. General Grant was attending to business at the War Department this morning as usual, having recovered from his indisposition.

THE CORRESPONDENCE BETWEEN JOHNSON AND THOMAS. General Grant has permitted the publication of the correspondence between the President and General Thomas, Grant and Thomas, and Governor Brownlow and General Cooper.

FIRE AT ALBION, MICHIGAN. ALBION, Oct. 24.—The flouring mill, owned by Messrs. Tallin & Taylor, was destroyed by fire this morning.

STOCKS IN NEW YORK TO-DAY. NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—Smith, Randolph & Co., Bankers, No. 10 South Third street, and No. 2 Nassau street, report, report at 10 o'clock this afternoon as follows:

THE DEATH OF WILLIAM FURMAN.—His DEATH.—Something of his former life.—William Furman, who was stabbed in the groin, on Tuesday evening, in Locust street, at the eighth door from the effects of his injuries last evening at the Pennsylvania Hospital.

THE DEATH OF WILLIAM FURMAN.—His DEATH.—Something of his former life.—William Furman, who was stabbed in the groin, on Tuesday evening, in Locust street, at the eighth door from the effects of his injuries last evening at the Pennsylvania Hospital.

THE DEATH OF WILLIAM FURMAN.—His DEATH.—Something of his former life.—William Furman, who was stabbed in the groin, on Tuesday evening, in Locust street, at the eighth door from the effects of his injuries last evening at the Pennsylvania Hospital.

THE DEATH OF WILLIAM FURMAN.—His DEATH.—Something of his former life.—William Furman, who was stabbed in the groin, on Tuesday evening, in Locust street, at the eighth door from the effects of his injuries last evening at the Pennsylvania Hospital.

THE DEATH OF WILLIAM FURMAN.—His DEATH.—Something of his former life.—William Furman, who was stabbed in the groin, on Tuesday evening, in Locust street, at the eighth door from the effects of his injuries last evening at the Pennsylvania Hospital.

THE DEATH OF WILLIAM FURMAN.—His DEATH.—Something of his former life.—William Furman, who was stabbed in the groin, on Tuesday evening, in Locust street, at the eighth door from the effects of his injuries last evening at the Pennsylvania Hospital.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

THE EPIDEMIC AT THE NAVY YARD.—Two MORE DEATHS.—FRANCIS GOODWIN was the second man John De Camp, the Commander of the United States revenue steamer Potomac, in a communication to the Surgeon General, dated at Washington, Oct. 23, 1867.

THE ALARM OF FIRE AT 10 O'CLOCK THIS MORNING.—The alarm of fire at 10 o'clock this morning was caused by a fire in a room in the building of the Philadelphia Fire Engine Co. No. 10, at the corner of Locust and Arch streets.

A KIDNAP BY COSTLY FRIEND.—Lewis Carrigan was arrested at Second and Queen streets last night by a constable, and taken to the police station. Carrigan made the credulous darkey believe that he knew where he was, and kept him tramping up and down the streets, and at last he was taken to the police station.

THE SONS OF TEMPERANCE.—This evening the twenty-fifth anniversary of this Order will be observed at the Warren House, at 10 o'clock. Rev. W. C. Best will preside.

THE NEW YORK METHODIST.—stands distinguished among the papers of that large denomination. It is a paper of high standing, and is published by Rev. Dr. Crooks, who has associated with him a large number of able and energetic contributors.

ADMITTED.—In the United States Circuit Court yesterday, Judge G. W. Merwin, presiding, admitted to the bar, Charles H. Schaeffer, Esq., a member of the Reading bar, who was admitted to practice in the United States Court of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

DISORDERLY.—A batch of young women who take up their abode every evening, near acorn alley and Locust street and backstreet, were arrested last night by the police.

CLOTHES WINGERS ARE REPAIRED BY UNIVERSAL. Bailey's Novelty, Putnam's, and other patterns. Also, Danvers's Sewing Machines.

CARPET STRETCHERS BY WHICH YOUR CARPETS may be laid tight and smooth; extra quality of Carpet Tacks and Tack-pullers, and various qualities of Hammer, for sale.

JONES, TEMPLE & CO., FASHIONABLE HATTERS, First Store, new Chestnut street, (149)

FOSTER, FASHIONABLE HATTER, 411 Chestnut, No. 7, 8, NINTH STREET.

WINDOW GLASS FOREIGN AND AMERICAN, BENJAMIN H. SHOMAKER, French Plate Glass Agency, Nos. 205, 207, 209, AND IN N. FOURTH ST. 1015 1/2 PHILADELPHIA.

FROM WASHINGTON THIS P. M.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. (SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO EVENING TELEGRAPH.) The Grant Movement and its Effects.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. The spontaneous movement of the Republic in Philadelphia in putting forward General Grant as their chief candidate for the Presidency excites much comment in political circles here.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. The position taken by Judge Kelley in this movement insures the co-operation of the Federal element, which his heretofore has rather opposed to the nomination of Grant.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. J. B. Grinnell is a Republican Congressman from Iowa. He has written a private letter to a friend, giving his views of General Grant and his politics.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. Collector Cake still remains here, and this morning was in consultation with Secretary McCulloch upon matters pertaining to the Philadelphia Custom House.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. General Grant was attending to business at the War Department this morning as usual, having recovered from his indisposition.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. General Grant has permitted the publication of the correspondence between the President and General Thomas, Grant and Thomas, and Governor Brownlow and General Cooper.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. The flouring mill, owned by Messrs. Tallin & Taylor, was destroyed by fire this morning.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. Smith, Randolph & Co., Bankers, No. 10 South Third street, and No. 2 Nassau street, report, report at 10 o'clock this afternoon as follows:

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. The death of William Furman.—His DEATH.—Something of his former life.—William Furman, who was stabbed in the groin, on Tuesday evening, in Locust street, at the eighth door from the effects of his injuries last evening at the Pennsylvania Hospital.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. The death of William Furman.—His DEATH.—Something of his former life.—William Furman, who was stabbed in the groin, on Tuesday evening, in Locust street, at the eighth door from the effects of his injuries last evening at the Pennsylvania Hospital.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. The death of William Furman.—His DEATH.—Something of his former life.—William Furman, who was stabbed in the groin, on Tuesday evening, in Locust street, at the eighth door from the effects of his injuries last evening at the Pennsylvania Hospital.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. The death of William Furman.—His DEATH.—Something of his former life.—William Furman, who was stabbed in the groin, on Tuesday evening, in Locust street, at the eighth door from the effects of his injuries last evening at the Pennsylvania Hospital.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. The death of William Furman.—His DEATH.—Something of his former life.—William Furman, who was stabbed in the groin, on Tuesday evening, in Locust street, at the eighth door from the effects of his injuries last evening at the Pennsylvania Hospital.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. The death of William Furman.—His DEATH.—Something of his former life.—William Furman, who was stabbed in the groin, on Tuesday evening, in Locust street, at the eighth door from the effects of his injuries last evening at the Pennsylvania Hospital.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. The death of William Furman.—His DEATH.—Something of his former life.—William Furman, who was stabbed in the groin, on Tuesday evening, in Locust street, at the eighth door from the effects of his injuries last evening at the Pennsylvania Hospital.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. The death of William Furman.—His DEATH.—Something of his former life.—William Furman, who was stabbed in the groin, on Tuesday evening, in Locust street, at the eighth door from the effects of his injuries last evening at the Pennsylvania Hospital.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24. The death of William Furman.—His DEATH.—Something of his former life.—William Furman, who was stabbed in the groin, on Tuesday evening, in Locust street, at the eighth door from the effects of his injuries last evening at the Pennsylvania Hospital.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—Judge Ludlow.—Robert Collier, charged with assault and battery in causing the reflection of the sun upon a mirror into the eyes of a lady, was fined $50.

WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

THE DEFENDANT IN THE CASE OF WILLIAM DAVIS was charged with having voided his oath by voting at an election in this city, and was fined $50. The judge in his opinion, said that a general election was held in this city on the 23d inst., and that the defendant, who was a member of the Democratic party, voted at the polls of the Fourth Ward.

EUROPE.

Smuggled Goods. New York, Oct. 24.—Two bags of silk ribbons, cotton hose, waists, tape, and shirt buttons, supposed to have been smuggled in the steamer City of London, were seized this morning.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.

Money is easier on call, and discounts are extremely stringent. Exchange active. Governments dull. Stock market.