

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

FOR ADDITIONAL LOCAL ITEMS SEE OUTSIDE PAGES.

A NEW ORGAN.—The trial of the new organ built for the Third Baptist Church, of this city, took place last evening in the presence of a large number of persons. The instrument contains 25 draw stops; two sets of manuals, each with a compass of 56 notes from C to G, for the great and swell organs respectively; a set of pedals of one and a half octaves, with from C to G 24 notes, and three "Compositional" Pedals, operating upon the stops of the great organ. It has been constructed with special reference to the church in which it stands, is supplied with all the modern improvements in its various details, and is in every respect a first-class organ of its size. The case is light and graceful in its proportions, made from a novel and original design, and presents a tasteful and handsome appearance. The front pipes are ornamented in gold and color, worked upon a white metallic ground. The voicing is musical and effective, furnishing considerable fullness and brilliancy in the full organ, whilst each stop possesses in itself a distinctive character of tone, richness and a sweetness of effect, as well as power. It cost $300.

BURGALY.—Some time between 11 o'clock on Monday night and 2 o'clock on Tuesday morning, the malt house of John G. White & Co., 3, 5, 424 Dillwyn street, was entered by burglars. The lock was picked and an iron bar, about 3 feet long, was used in removing the staples. After gaining admittance, the office was broken into and work was commenced on the safe. In attempting to bore a hole into the door the chisel broke, and the thieves becoming discouraged, ceased work, but not, however, until they had managed to draw in the desk and scattered books and papers over the floor.

RUM ROW.—The Building Inspectors visited "Rum Row" yesterday and condemned five of the buildings and ordered the premises to be pulled down, as they are in a dangerous condition. Rum Row is located on Federal street, west of Broad. The houses were erected previous to the consolidation of the city. The foundation works are made of brick, and the locality of the buildings was formerly known as "Roxbury" in old Moyamensing district. The condemned buildings will be pulled down in a day or two.

FIRST WARD GRANT CLUB.—An adjourned meeting of the citizens of the First Ward, for the purpose of forming a Grant Club, was held last evening, in the hall at Sixth and Dickerson streets. E. A. Merrick, Esq., presided, and B. H. Bennett, Esq., acted as secretary. The committee appointed at the last meeting, prepared a constitution for the government of the Club reported a constitution, which was agreed to. The election of permanent officers was postponed until a future meeting, in consequence of the slight attendance, owing to the unfavorable weather.

AMUSEMENTS. ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—La Sonnambula was delightfully rendered to a good house by the Richings' Troupe, last evening. This evening they will perform "The Last Days of Pompeii" and Mrs. Seguin will sing the grand aria, "Why, soul, art thou so heavy?" To-morrow (Thursday) evening "Mariana," on Friday night, benefit of the Caroline Richings, "The Daughter of the Regiment."

THE MATINEE AT HORTICULTURAL HALL.—The fifth matinee of the Carl Seitz series will take place to-morrow (Thursday), on which occasion the singer Miss Georgiana Blackburne will make her first appearance in these concerts. The program for this matinee is as follows: Symphony No. 4, "Jupiter," by Mozart; 1. Allegro vivace; 2. Andante cantabile; 3. Minuetto allegretto; 4. Finale allegro molto. "Oh Mio Fernando," "La Favorita," by Donizetti, sung by Miss Blackburne. Grand March, "Fest March," by F. Hoffman; Waltz, "Wiener Chronik" (Viennese Chronicles), by Strauss; First Finale of Lohengrin, by R. Wagner; Overture, "Fra Diavolo," by Aubler.

NATIONAL HALL.—The moving mirror of Bunyan's tabernacle, in a grand and beautiful manner, will be exhibited at National Hall, in this city, for a short time, beginning to-night. The panorama has received the highest commendation from the press and pulpit of the large cities of America and the Canadian confederation, and has recently been exhibited at Union Hall, in New York city, for one hundred and fifty nights, and seen there by 100,000 people. It has been produced by the following well-known and distinguished artists:—Huntington, Kyle, May, Crosey, Church, Darley, Dallas, and Paul Duggan.

THE PHILADELPHIA CIRCUS, at Tenth and Callowhill streets, is now open for the season. The troupe of artists is very superior. The acrobats, both male and female, are all famous. Among the list of acrobats we observe the names of the favorite "Arabian Brothers." Everybody should patronize this worthy institution—the Philadelphia Circus, if it is not made up of mere travelling "showmen," but of real artists.

"THE GRAND DUCHESS," as personated by Mrs. General at the Walnut, is acknowledged to be a very "taking" role. The popularity of the new opera is increasing nightly. It can only be played four nights more. On Monday Edwin Forrest in "Yorick."

Miss Kate Reynolds continues very successful in "Nobody's Daughter" at the Arch. These are announced as the last nights of the very popular play. On Monday next "Surf" is to be produced in splendid style.

Mrs. Bowers has consented to appear in "My Smokey" this week to-morrow evening. On Friday her benefit will occur.

THE PROGRAMME at Carcross & Dixey's this evening is unusually attractive. Mme Bistori and the "Richmond Raiders" are conical features.

"D'Arcy McGee" has signalled his escape from the Rum Fiend (only in his case it was the brandy and water fiend) by writing a life of Father Mathew for a Canadian magazine.
