

DRAMATIC NOTES.

Mr. Joseph Jefferson is now performing "Rip Van Winkle" at McVickar's Theatre, Chicago. In the meantime he is superintending the production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream," which will be brought out shortly.

—Lore has been withdrawn at Wood's Museum, New York, and this evening Miss Maggie Mitchell appears in her favorite role of "Fanchon."

—A daughter of G. P. E. James, the novelist, recently attempted the stage in Australia, but met with no success.

—The Stamese Twins have left Wood's Museum, New York, and will be their own managers in future.

—Mr. Edwin Forrest has engaged Mr. George H. Clark, who was leading man at the Chesnut Street Theatre a year or two ago, as the principal member of the company which he is organizing to perform in the Northern and New England States this winter.

—Mrs. Lander is performing "Mary Stuart" with much success at the Broadway Theatre, New York.

—It is said that the "Star" system is dying out in England, and that the result is a better class of actors are secured for the stock companies.

—"Fool Play" made a hit at Wood's Museum Chicago, and it will run during the present week. On next Monday Mr. Lester Wallace's drama of the "Velezra; or, France and Algeria" will be produced.

—Mr. G. L. Fox's pantomime of "Humpty Dumpty" is still running at the Olympic Theatre, New York. About Christmas some important changes and alterations will be made, which will convert it into substantially a new piece.

—A new play by Lord Lytton will be brought out shortly at the London Lyceum. The leading characters will be sustained by Mr. and Mrs. Hermann Vezin.

—A new Ethiopian burlesque "Orpheus," is in preparation by Kelly & Leon's Minstrels, New York.

—It is said that Mr. Sothern will return to the United States next year.

—Edwin Booth commenced a short engagement at the National Theatre, Cincinnati, last week. His performances attract first-class audiences.

—The approaching theatrical season in Havana promises to be one of more than usual brilliancy. Civili, a Spanish actress of some celebrity, with an excellent dramatic company, will appear at the Tacon Theatre.

—The new German Theatre in San Francisco was opened on Friday evening, August 28, under the management of Charles Fritsch. A prologue, dedicated to the German Muse, was recited by Franklin O'Neil, after which the play of "Frauenkampf" was performed, with Franklin Pittersdorf in the principal role.

—L'Abime (No Thoroughfare) has reached its hundredth representation at the Vaudeville, Paris. The story is one of the best for dramatic purposes that has been written of late years, and the version produced at the Chesnut Street Theatre last winter failed solely on account of the want of common intelligence displayed in adapting it to the stage. We hope still to see "No Thoroughfare" brought out in this city in a popular style.

—"Le Cierne des Feuillants," a new drama in four acts and a prologue, by M. A. Pages, has been produced at the Theatre Beaumarchais. It introduces a tolerably new arrangement of well-used materials. "Lenoel," a rich man, horribly jealous of his wife and his friend "Andria," determined to commit suicide in a manner that shall fix upon the latter the certainty of his murder. After making elaborate preparations, he finds that he has been mistaken, but at this moment is seized by robbers and is carried off. A servant who has robbed him, and is endeavoring to make off, is drenched in his clothes, is shot by a nephew of "Lenoel," over-anxious to enter upon his estate. The wound, which is in the face, renders the features undistinguishable. "Andria" is arrested for murder, and the circumstances leave scarcely room for doubt. Of course, the man supposed to be murdered returns in time to set matters straight and a ward punishment where it is due.

—Several actresses are about to make their first appearances in London. Among them are a Miss Marie O'Bevine, engaged at Drury Lane; Miss Edith Chellis, at the Holborn; Miss Clara Thomson, at the New Royalty, and Miss Rose Bar end, at the Globe.

—Among the entertainments at the minor London theatres are "Manfred" at the Victoria and a series of so-called classical performances at the New East London Theatre, in which Miss Marriott makes some of her latest appearances previous to her departure for America.

MUSICAL NOTES.

—Mr. J. Grau will open the French Theatre, New York, with his Parisian opera bouffe company, on Monday evening, October 5. The company will comprise forty performers, prominent among whom are Mmes Rose Ball, Desolanzas, Fontanel, and Messrs. Carrier, Beckers, Gabli, and Bourgois. They will make their debut in "La Grande Duchesse de Gerolstein," which will be followed by "Genievie de Brabant."

—"Barbe Bleue" still attracts crowded houses at Niblo's. It is still being withdrawn after the present week, and we may expect to have it in Philadelphia ere long.

—It is understood that Strakosch will bring out Miss Kellogg in concert instead of opera this season.

—A new baritone will shortly make his debut in London. The gentleman in question is a Mr. Maybrick, and he was formerly organist in St. Peter's Church, Liverpool.

—A new opera bouffe, by M. Herve, entitled "Chiperte III; ou, l'Invention de la Vapeur," has been read at the Folies Marigny, Paris.

—The critic of the San Francisco Times disparaged Madame Parepa-Rosa's "Norma" recently, and the management ordered their advertisement upon this action, says:—

It is simply insulting to the profession of journalism, no less than to the office of critic, and is founded on a total misapprehension of the relations of the press to the public. It involves the degrading assumption that the insertion of an advertisement in a newspaper establishes a lien on its contents. If theatrical managers can buy the opinions of newspapers with a paltry advertisement (and for some reason or other the opera-house management has evidently been led to believe it can purchase reading columns), and fixes a gag on its opinions, are they not worth the public and infamous to their disservice? The opera season, under the joint management of Parepa-Rosa and Tom McGuire, is now a successful success, though in the other part of the season the business is bad.

Norma and Don Giovanni brought us the business. Parepa-Rosa sang the music of "Norma" exceedingly well, if I except a tendency to too much ornamentation. All through it was Parepa-Rosa, the concert singer. Signor Testa would have made a very good Pollock, if he had voice and physical ability equal to the part. Signora Testa, as Aguilera, divided the honors with the prima donna. Signor Testa has been indisposed ever since he arrived here. The two appearances he has made during the season have not added to his previous reputation. "Don Giovanni" has been twice admirably performed to overflowing houses. Signor Testa was entitled to, and received the lion's share of the honors. Madame Parepa failed entirely to infuse feeling into Don Giovanni. Most of the parts were in the hands of the province, and incompent. The orchestra on this occasion was increased by twenty. The chorus, eleven male voices and five female. The bones of Mozart would be in their grave could they have heard the murder of his favorite opera as accomplished in San Francisco. The vocalists of Creation and Mrs. Testa have been brought out with the opera orchestra. Parepa-Rosa's voice and execution meet with universal commendation from musical amateurs and critics; but they pronounce her incapable of clothing her vocal efforts with dramatic expression. She is also incapable of giving expression to the lines of the lyric author. But the people go to see her, and she is making money.

—Wagner's "Rienzi" will be the opening spectacle at the Theatre Lyrique, Paris. This work was commenced at Riga, but finished in Paris. It was first produced in Dresden in 1841.

CITY ITEMS.

At prices guaranteed lower than the lowest elsewhere, and full satisfaction guaranteed to every purchaser, or the sale cancelled and money refunded.

Half-way between Fifth and Sixth streets, } BENNETT & CO. TOWNS HALL, PHILADELPHIA, AND 600 BROADWAY NEW YORK.

WE ARE NOT CAST IRON!—Cast Iron undergoes marked changes under the alternate action of heat and cold, and the human body is not cast iron. On the contrary, it is a combination of delicate tissues and fibres, which are exquisitely sensitive to atmospheric changes, and, unless protected against sudden and violent variations of temperature by wise precautions, are sure to be disastrously affected by them.

At this season the difference between the temperature of night and day is greater than at any other period of the year, and the stomach, the liver, the bowels, and the nervous system are apt to receive violent shocks from these changes, resulting in indigestion, bilious attacks, debility, low nervous fever, fever and ague, remittent fever, etc. Sustain and reinforce these organs, therefore, with the purest and most potent of all vegetable tonics and alteratives.

WIS.—HOTTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. The effect of this matchless invigorant is to brace up the whole vital organization, and regulate its action. Useful at all seasons as a means of promoting perfect digestion and an even and natural flow of bile, and a healthy condition of the bowels and the skin, it is especially necessary in the fall, when the complaints arising from checked perspiration are so common. It is found, by those who are in the habit of using this agreeable and unequalled tonic, that it so strengthens and fortifies the body as to render it proof against the morbid influences which infect the air during the prevalence of epidemics.

JEWELRY.—Mr. William W. Cassidy, No. 12 South Second street, has the largest and most attractive assortment of fine jewelry and silverware in the city. Purchasers can rely upon obtaining a real, pure article furnished at a price which cannot be equalled. He also has a large stock of American watches in all varieties and at all prices. A visit to his store is sure to result in pleasure and profit.

AFFECTIONS OF THE LIVER, BILIOUS DISORDERS, SICK HEADACHE, ETC., are thoroughly cured by Dr. Jayne's Sensitive Pills. Acting as a gentle laxative, they remove all irritating and fecal matter from the bowels, gradually change the vitiated secretions of the stomach and liver, and restore these organs to a healthy condition. Sold by all Druggists.

WINE, HERBS AND ROOTS.—The base of Speer's "Standard Wine Bitters" is his celebrated Wine, in which are Peruvian Bark, Chamomile Flowers, Snake Root, Ginger, etc. It is pleasant to the taste, and far superior to anything in the form of tonics now before the public. They are simply his own Wine, made bitter by the infusion of herbs and roots above enumerated. Sold by all Druggists.

READY-MADE CLOTHING, the same in style and workmanship as customer work. Warranted to give satisfaction. At Charles Stokes & Co's, No. 224 Chesnut street.

He has a knowledge of his patrons with it in New York papers before the mails arrive, that is especially commendable. His emporium, at No. 107 S. Third street, is completely stocked.

OBITUARY.

"In the midst of life we are in death." How painfully has this been forced upon us within the last few days. One week ago our friend, companion, associate, THOMAS M. TRIOI, was with us, and as usual the life of his social circle he loved so well, to be with. And now he is no more. Peace be to his ashes. Eulogy, to those who knew him, is unnecessary; but to the stranger we have but to say, think what a friend should be, he was that.
